The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Second General Court (2021-2022)

An Act relative to inmate telephone calls.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Chapter 127 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after section 87 the 2 following section:-

3 Section 87A. State and local agencies charged with the operation and management of 4 state prisons, local jails, and juvenile detention centers shall provide persons in their custody and 5 confined in a correctional or detention facility with voice communication service free of charge.
6 Communications shall be maximized to the extent possible. Nothing in this section shall abrogate
7 existing law preserving in-person contact visits. Such state and local agencies may supplement 8 voice communication service with other communication services, including, but not limited to,
9 video communication and electronic mail services. To the extent that such voice communication 10 service or any other communication service is provided, each such service shall be provided free 11 of charge to the person initiating and the person receiving the communication.
