The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Third General Court (2023-2024)

An Act establishing local emergency management agencies.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 639 of the acts of 1950, as amended by section 1 of chapter 579 of 2 the acts of 1968, is hereby amended by striking out section 13 and inserting in place thereof the 3 following section:-

4 Section 13. Establishment of Local Civil Defense Organizations; Duties; Powers of 5 Political
6 Subdivisions During Disasters.

7 Each political subdivision of the commonwealth is hereby authorized and directed to 8 establish a local organization for civil defense in accordance with the state civil defense plan and 9 program, to be known as Local Emergency Management Agency and Local Office of Emergency

10 Preparedness. The appointing authority, as defined by this Section, may designate an existing 11 city or town department as such Agency.

12 Each local organization for civil defense and office of emergency preparedness shall have 13 a director, who shall, in the case of a city, be appointed by the mayor, or in a city having a 14 council manager form of government by the city manager, and in towns the director shall be 15 appointed by the selectman, except in towns having a town manager or town administrator, by 16 the manager or administrator. The director shall have direct responsibility for the organization, 17 administration and operation of such local organization for civil defense. Each local 18 organization for civil defense shall perform the civil defense functions within the territorial limits 19 of the political subdivision within which it is organized, subject to a declaration of a state of 20 emergency and, in addition, shall conduct such functions outside of such territorial limits as may 21 be required pursuant to the provisions of section seven of this act. .

22 The appointing authority may designate an existing department head of a city or town
23 department to serve as the director of civil defense. Section 20 of chapter 268A shall not apply 24 to such designation.

25 In carrying out the provisions of this act, each political subdivision in which in any 26 disaster, as described in section one, occurs, shall have the power to enter into contracts and 27 incur obligations necessary to combat such disaster, protecting the health and safety of persons
28 and property and providing emergency assistance to the victims of such disaster. Each 29 appointing authority of such political subdivision is authorized to exercise the powers vested 30 under this section in the light of the exigencies of the extreme emergency situation, without 31 regard to time-consuming procedures and formalities prescribed by law excepting mandatory

32 constitutional requirements, pertaining to the performance of public work, entering into 33 Contracts, the incurring of obligations, the employment of temporary workers, the rental of 34 equipment, the purchase of supplies and materials, expenditure of public funds, suspending 35 employment contract limitations, or restrictions made under Chapters 41 or 150E, or the 36 common law, to go on private property to provide aid and assistance, and take such other 37 appropriate actions as may be necessary to meet the state of emergency for the duration of the 38 emergency. The legislative body of such political subdivision can levy taxes and make 39 emergency appropriations to carry out the appointing authority's exercise of the powers under 40 this Section.

41 The appointing authority shall declare in writing the state of emergency in order to 42 exercise the powers under this section and shall file such declaration immediately with the 43 governor, the state director, the secretary of state, and the city or town clerk.

44 SECTION 2. Said chapter 639 of the acts of 1950, as so amended, is hereby further 45 amended by striking out section 16 and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

46 Section 16. Utilization of State and Local Departments, Agencies, Officers, and 47 Personnel.

48 In carrying out the provisions of this act, the governor and the executive officers, are 49 directed to utilize the services, equipment, supplies and facilities of existing departments, offices 50 and agencies of the commonwealth, and of the political subdivisions thereof, to the maximum 51 extent practicable; and the officers and personnel of all such departments, offices and agencies of 52 the commonwealth, and of the political subdivisions thereof, to the maximum extent practicable;
53 and the officers and personnel of all such departments, offices and agencies are directed to co-

54 operate with and extend such services and facilities to the governor and to the civil defense 55 organizations of the commonwealth upon request.

56 The governor may assign to a state agency any activity concerned with disaster 57 preparedness and relief of a nature related to the existing powers and duties of such agency, and 58 it shall thereupon, become the duty of such agency to undertake and carry out such activity on 59 behalf of the commonwealth.

60 Upon declaration of a state of emergency, mayor, or city manager in a city having a 61 council manager form of government, or town manager, or town administrator, as the case may 62 be, the director is directed to utilize the services, equipment, supplies and facilities of existing 63 departments, offices and agencies of said political subdivision, to the maximum extent 64 practicable; and the officers and personnel of all such departments, offices and agencies of said
65 political subdivision, to the maximum extent practicable are directed upon request to co-operate 66 with and extend such services and facilities to the mayor, or city manager in a city having a 67 council manager form of government, or to the town manager, or town administrator, as the case
68 may be, and to their respective civil defense organizations of the political subdivision.

69 The mayor, or city manager in a city having a council manager form of government, or 70 town manager, or town administrator, as the case may be, may assign to their municipal agency, 71 any activity concerned with disaster preparedness and relief of a nature related to the existing 72 powers and duties of such agency, and it shall, thereupon, become the duty of such agency to 73 undertake and carry out such activity on behalf of the city or town, as the case may be.
