SENATE . . . . . No. 1639

By Mr. Brownsberger, a petition (accompanied by bill, Senate, No. 1639) of William N. Brownsberger, Denise Provost, David M. Rogers, Jonathan Hecht and other members of the General Court for legislation to protect vulnerable road users. Transportation.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Thirteen

An Act to protect vulnerable road users.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1: Section 1 of Chapter 90 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2010
2 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting the following sentence:

3 “Vulnerable user” means a pedestrian or a person operating a bicycle, handcycle, tricycle,
4 skateboard, roller skates, in-line skates, wheelchair, non-motorized scooter, or any non-
5 motorized vehicle, or a person riding a horse.

6 SECTION 2: Chapter 90 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2010 Official Edition,
7 is hereby amended by inserting the following as Section 24Y:

8 Persons convicted of violation of Sections 14C, 24, 24G, or 24L of Chapter 90 of the 9 General Laws, where the victim is a vulnerable user as defined in Section 1 of Chapter 90, shall,
10 in addition to the penalties set forth in those sections: (a) be subject to fines up to double the 11 statutory amounts; (b) be required to complete a traffic safety class including interactions
12 between motorized vehicles and vulnerable users; and (c) be required to perform up to 100 hours
13 of community service related to driver improvement and providing public education on traffic
14 safety including interactions between motorized vehicles and vulnerable users.

15 SECTION 3: Chapter 90 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2010 Official Edition,
16 is hereby amended by inserting the following as Section 14C:

17 (1) It is unlawful for a person in a motor vehicle to intentionally pass a vulnerable user, as
18 defined in Section 1 of Chapter 90, at an unsafe distance or at an unreasonable or improper
19 speed, follow a vulnerable user at an unsafe distance, slow or stop in front of a vulnerable user

20 for the purpose of interfering with the vulnerable user's movement, or engage in any other
21 behavior intended to interfere with or frighten a vulnerable user. A person convicted of violation
22 of this section shall be fined not less than two hundred fifty dollars or imprisoned not more than 23 thirty days, or both.

24 (2) Irrespective of any criminal prosecution or the result of a criminal prosecution, a
25 vulnerable user who is intentionally physically assaulted or otherwise intentionally injured;
26 threatened with physical assault or injury, whether by words, a vehicle, body part of another, or
27 other object; or intentionally distracted, or the attempt thereof, by a person in a motor vehicle
28 shall have a civil cause of action in a court of competent jurisdiction for appropriate relief, which 29 shall include: (a) an injunction; (b) actual damages with regard to each such violation, or up to 30 three times the amount of the actual damages or $1,000, whichever is greater; (c) punitive
31 damages in an amount to be determined by a jury or a court sitting without a jury; and (d)
32 reasonable attorney's fees and costs.

33 (3) The relief provided for in subsection (2) of this section shall be in addition to all other 34 remedies provided by law. Nothing in this section shall preclude an aggrieved person from 35 pursuing any other remedy provided by law.
