

SENATE No. 1840

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Thirteen

RESOLVE Resolve to establish a commission to study the feasibility of hosting the summer Olympics

1 Resolved,

2 Resolved, that a special commission is hereby established to study the feasibility of 3 hosting the summer Olympics in the commonwealth in 2024. The commission shall consist of 9 4 members: 3 persons to be appointed by the governor, 1 of whom shall be a member of the 5 Boston 2024 Organizing Committee, Inc. and 1 of whom shall have experience in public safety 6 or law enforcement; and 2 persons to be appointed by the president of the senate, 1 person to be 7 appointed by the minority leader of the senate, 2 persons to be appointed by the speaker of the 8 house of representatives and 1 person to be appointed by the minority leader of the house of 9 representatives.

10 The study shall include, but not be limited to, the prospects of working with other New 11 England states and should seek input from local governments and organizations. The 12 commission shall review all aspects of a prospective summer Olympics in the commonwealth, 13 including, but not limited to, infrastructure, transportation, lodging, locations for events, costs, 14 benefits and any other factors the commission deems relevant.

15 The commission may receive and expend grants, gifts, contributions, bequests and in-16 kind contributions, including volunteer services, from individuals, corporations or other business 17 entities, foundations and state or other government bodies for the purpose of completing this 18 study.

19 The commission shall submit its findings and recommendations, together with drafts of 20 legislation necessary to carry out those recommendations by filing the same with the clerks of 21 the house of representatives and senate, the house and senate committees on ways and means and

22 the joint committee on tourism, arts and cultural development not later than March 1, 2014. The 23 commission shall submit with its findings and recommendations a detailed accounting of the 24 grants, gifts and financial contributions received by the commission and how those funds were 25 used. The commission shall convene its first official meeting not later than September 30, 2013.
