An Act establishing a commission on government accountability, economy, and efficiency.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1           SECTION 1. There is hereby established a special commission to investigate and study 2 methods of improving the accountability, economy and efficiency of the government of the 3 commonwealth and the operation of its agencies, departments, instrumentalities, and political 4 subdivisions, hereinafter referred to as “the commission”.

5           SECTION 2. The purpose of the commission shall be to make recommendations to the 6 governor and the general court to promote economy, efficiency, and improved service in the 7 transaction of the public business in the various departments, agencies, instrumentalities and 8 political subdivisions in the executive, legislative and judicial branches of state and local 9 government, and in making the operation of all state departments, agencies, and 10 instrumentalities, and local government and all expenditures of public funds, more directly

11 responsive to the needs of the Commonwealth and its political subdivisions, by any or all of the 12 following means:

13 (a) By adopting methods and procedures for reducing expenditures to the lowest amount 14 consistent with the efficient performance of essential services, activities and functions.

15 (b) By eliminating duplication and overlapping services, activities, and functions, and 16 time- consuming or wasteful practices.

17 (c) By consolidating services, activities, and functions of a similar nature.

18 (d) By abolishing services, activities, and functions not necessary to the efficient conduct 19 of state or local government.

20 (e) By the elimination of unnecessary departments and agencies, the creation of necessary 21 new departments and agencies, the reorganization of existing departments and agencies, and the 22 transfer of functions and responsibilities among departments and agencies.

23 (f) By defining or redefining duties and responsibilities of state or local officers.

24 (g) By revising present provisions for continuing or permanent appropriations of state 25 funds or bond authorizations, for whatever purpose, by eliminating any such existing provisions 26 and by adopting new provisions.

27 (h) By establishing means for performance measurement and methods of reporting such 28 measurement.

29 (i) Reorganizing all aspects of career public service including, but not limited to, methods 30 of recruitment and retention of public employees; training and re-training of public employees;

31 job classification, salaries and benefits of public employees; discipline and termination of public 32 employees, clarifying the state responsibilities and functions that are best served by regular 33 public employees and those best served by contract employees; and encouraging and facilitating 34 opportunities for private sector and non-profit sector employees to work in state or local 35 government for limited periods of time.

36 (j) By analyzing and evaluating all state and local contracts with private vendors for the 37 purpose of confirming that all contracted approaches to the delivery of goods and services are 38 accountable, economical, and efficient.

39 (k) To review state requirements for contracting for goods and services and for the 40 retention of professional services to determine the most effective means of determining the most 41 qualified vendor, including but not limited to, a review of the method by which state and local 42 agencies, state authorities, boards and commissions retain legal counsel, accounting, 43 architectural and engineering services.

44 SECTION 3. The commission shall be comprised of the following members, each of 45 whom shall serve at the pleasure of the appointing authority:

46 (a) Seven members appointed by the governor. Not more than four of such members shall 47 be registered voters in the same political party, and none shall hold public office in the executive 48 branch of the state government. Two of the seven shall have expertise in the management of 49 municipal government and one shall have expertise in managing a major not for profit agency.
50 Appointments shall include, but not be limited to, residents of the commonwealth in the fields of 51 business and government management, accounting, labor relations, finance, human relations or

52 academic fields including, but not limited to, deans of schools of business or public 53 administration.

54 (b) Three members of the senate who shall be the chair of the senate committee on ways
55 and means, the chair of the senate committee on post audit and oversight, and one member 56 designated by the senate minority leader.

57 (c) Three members of the house of representatives, who shall be the chair of the house 58 committee on ways and means, the chair of the house committee on post audit and oversight, and 59 one member designated by the house minority leader.

60 (d) The governor, the president of the senate, and the speaker of the house, who shall 61 jointly designate the chair or co-chairs of the special commission, shall each serve on the task 62 force, ex- officio.

63 (e) The auditor of the commonwealth and the inspector general of the commonwealth, ex-64 officio.

65 SECTION 4. The commission shall meet not less than quarterly and shall have the 66 authority, subject to the approval of the secretary of administration and finance, to request staff
67 support and research from state agencies to carry out its responsibilities. The commission may 68 seek assistance from other organizations or individuals on a pro bono basis. The commission
69 shall file annual reports with the clerk of the senate and the clerk of the house of representatives
70 and shall make a final report not later than June 30, 2021 unless revived and continued for a 71 longer period of time by the general court. The commission may make interim reports as 72 appropriate in order to address the serious fiscal problems facing the commonwealth in the next 73 few years.
