The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninetieth General Court (2017-2018)

An Act establishing an autism spectrum disorder designation on driver’s licenses and identification cards and criminal justice training relative to autism spectrum disorders.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 90 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after
2 section 8M the following section:-

3 Section 8N. (a) A resident who is diagnosed with an autism spectrum disorder may 4 request to have a notation of such diagnosis placed on a Commonwealth issued driver’s license
5 or identification card. Such applicant shall present the registry of motor vehicles with a sworn 6 statement from a qualified medical professional licensed in Massachusetts verifying such 7 diagnosis. Applicant must provide the registry with permission to make public this diagnosis on 8 their Commonwealth issued driver’s license or identification card.

9 (b) The registrar shall establish procedures necessary to carry out the provisions of this 10 section including, without limitation, application forms to include a waiver of liability for the 11 release of any medical information and an appropriate symbol to be placed on the drivers'
12 licenses and identification cards.

13 SECTION 2. Section 116 of Chapter 6 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2010
14 Official edition, is hereby amended by inserting the following section after Section 116E:—

15 Section 116F:

16 A. The municipal police training committee shall establish within the recruit basic 17 training curriculum a course for regional and municipal police training schools on or before
18 January first, two thousand and fourteen for the training of law enforcement officers in the 19 commonwealth in appropriate interactions with persons diagnosed with an autism spectrum 20 disorder, and also shall develop guidelines for law enforcement response to individuals with 21 autism spectrum disorders who are victims or witnesses to crime, or suspected or convicted of 22 crime.

23 The course of instruction and the guidelines shall stress positive responses to such 24 individuals, de-escalating potentially dangerous situations, understanding of the different manner 25 in which such individuals process sensory stimuli and language, and appropriate methods of 26 interrogation.

27 Where appropriate, the training presenters shall include experts on autism spectrum
28 disorders who also have expertise in the law enforcement or corrections field.

29 As used in this section, “law enforcement officer” shall mean any officer of a local police 30 department, capital and state police, and “correction officer” shall mean any officer tasked with 31 the custody, care, or transport of incarcerated or detained persons. As used in this section, 32 “autism spectrum disorder” shall mean a disability on the autism spectrum, which includes but 33 may not be limited to autistic disorder, Asperger's disorder, pervasive developmental disorder
34 not otherwise specified, childhood disintegrative disorder, nonverbal learning disorder, or Rhett's
35 Syndrome, as defined in such professional guidelines as the Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of 36 the American Psychiatric Association.

37 B. The course of basic training for law enforcement officers and correction officers shall,
38 no later than January first, two thousand and fourteen, include at least eight hours of instruction
39 in the procedures and techniques described below:

40 (aa) The nature and manifestations of autism spectrum disorders.

41 (bb) Appropriate techniques for interviewing or interrogating an individual with an 42 autism spectrum disorder, including techniques to ensure legality of statements made, and 43 techniques to protect the rights of the interviewee.

44 (cc) Techniques for locating an individual with an autism spectrum disorder who runs
45 away, and returning said individual while causing as little stress as possible to him or her.

46 (dd) The legal duties imposed on police officers to offer protection and assistance, 47 including guidelines for making felony and misdemeanor arrests, and appropriate techniques for 48 arrest and restraint on an individual with an autism spectrum disorder.

49 (ee) Techniques for de-escalating a potentially dangerous situation to maximize the safety
50 of both the law enforcement officer or correction officer and the individual with an autism
51 spectrum disorder.

52 (ff) Techniques for differentiating between an individual with an autism spectrum
53 disorder from an individual who is belligerent, uncooperative, or otherwise displaying traits
54 similar to the characteristics of an individual with an autism spectrum disorder.

55 (gg) Procedures to ensure the safety and well-being of individuals with an autism
56 spectrum disorder in a correctional facility.

57 (hh) The impact of interaction with law enforcement officers or correction officers on 58 individuals with an autism spectrum disorder.

59 C. All law enforcement recruits shall receive the course of basic training for law
60 enforcement officers, established in subsections (A) and (B), as part of their required 61 certification process.
