The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Third General Court (2023-2024)

An Act establishing a legislative fiscal office.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 3 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after section 2 71 the following section:-

3 Section 72. (a) There shall be a permanent legislative fiscal office to serve as a service 4 agency for the general court, which shall consist of a director and deputy director and staff to 5 assist the director and deputy director. The director and deputy director shall be appointed by 6 joint decision of the lieutenant governor, treasurer, secretary of administration and finance, house 7 chair of ways and means and senate chair of ways and means. The director, deputy director and 8 staff shall have substantial experience in financial management, accounting or other related 9 fields.

10 (b) The legislative fiscal office shall research and provide assistance and analysis to 11 legislators, legislative staff and legislative committees on the fiscal impact of proposed 12 legislation or the state budget. The findings and recommendations of the office are not binding 13 upon the general court, but an independent assessment of costs and proposals of statutory 14 changes to produce a more cost-sensible and effective proposal. Legislators can request that costs 15 of a proposed bill be reviewed at any time during the legislative process, and if such a review is 16 requested, the review shall be completed before the reporting of the bill from its current 17 committee.

18 (c) The legislative fiscal office shall have the following responsibilities:

19 (1) Provide fiscal analysis on proposed legislation

20 (2) Analyze the governor's proposed budget

21 (3) Following each legislative session, the office shall prepare a report detailing all 22 appropriations of the legislature including, but not limited to, data concerning the final fiscal year
23 budget, supplemental budgets, bonds, tax incentives and fiscal impact of bills signed into law 24 during the legislative session.

25 (d) The funds for the operations of the legislative fiscal office shall be appropriated by 26 the general court from the general fund from year to year and shall be included in and constitute 27 a separate item in the act appropriating funds for the expenses of the general court.

28 (e) The books and records of the legislative fiscal office shall be subject to audit by the 29 state auditor's office.
