60 previously authorized and made available for the purposes of this item.

61 EXECUTIVE OFFICE FOR ADMINISTRATION AND FINANCE

62 Human Resources Division

63 1750-0105.....$2,100,000

64 SECTION 3. Section 216 of chapter 6 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2016
65 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking out, in line 3, the words “up to 4”.

66 SECTION 4. Said section 216 of said chapter 6, as so appearing, is hereby further 67 amended by inserting after the word “designee”, in line 22, the following words:- ; the secretary 68 of technology services and security or a designee; the executive director of the Massachusetts 69 Technology Park Corporation or a designee.

70 SECTION 5. Section 28 of chapter 119 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 71 amended by striking out subsection (a) and inserting in place thereof the following subsection:-

72 (a) During the pendency of an action brought pursuant to section 24, temporary orders 73 providing for the support of a child may be entered. The court may thereafter enter a judgment 74 against the party chargeable with support. Any order of support entered under this section shall 75 conform to and be enforced under section 12 of chapter 119A.

76 SECTION 6. Subsection (a) of section 12 of chapter 119A of the General Laws, as so 77 appearing, is hereby amended by striking out, in line 2, the words “, section 40 of chapter 201”.

78 SECTION 7. Said subsection (a) of said section 12 of said chapter 119A, as so appearing, 79 is hereby further amended by striking out, in lines 11 to 13, inclusive, the words “, unless the 80 obligor and obligee agree in writing that the obligee shall obtain health care coverage for his 81 child or children or that such coverage will be provided by other means”.

82 SECTION 8. Subsection (b) of said section 12 of said chapter 119A, as so appearing, is 83 hereby amended by striking out paragraph (5) and inserting in place thereof the following 84 paragraph:-

85 (5) (A) A judgment or order shall include: (i) the name and address of the obligor; (ii) the 86 name, address and federal employer identification number of the obligor's employer; and (iii)
87 such other information as the IV-D agency requires to assist it in collecting support payments.
88 With respect to an order for income withholding made payable to the IV-D agency, the issuing 89 court shall provide to the IV-D agency: (i) a copy of the judgment or order for support and the 90 order for income withholding; (ii) the address of the obligee; (iii) the date of birth of the child;
91 and (iv) such other information as the IV-D agency requires to assist it in collecting support 92 payments; provided, however, that such information need not be included in the order for income 93 withholding.

94 (B) Each such judgment or order shall also include a provision for health care coverage 95 for the child in accordance with this section and may require the obligor to pay an amount 96 toward the obligee's cost of health care coverage or toward uninsured medical expenses on 97 behalf of the child. The court shall enter an order that requires the obligor or the obligee to 98 provide health care coverage if such coverage is available at reasonable cost and accessible to the 99 child. If the court determines that an order for health care coverage is not in the best interest of 100 the child or creates an undue hardship for the obligor or the obligee, then the court shall enter 101 written findings.

102 (C) If the child is enrolled in MassHealth or equivalent program administered in another 103 state pursuant to chapter 118E, 42 U.S.C. 1397aa et seq. or 42 U.S.C. 1396a et seq., the court 104 shall order the obligee to maintain such coverage as long as the child remains eligible; provided, 105 however, that the court may also order the obligor to enroll the child in private health insurance 106 if: (i) private health insurance is available to the obligor at reasonable cost and accessible to the 107 child; (ii) enrollment in the insurance is in the best interest of the child; and (iii) enrollment in the 108 insurance will not create an undue hardship for the obligor or the obligee.

109 (D) If health care coverage pursuant to this section is not available to the obligor or the 110 obligee at the time the order is entered, the court shall order the parties to notify the IV-D agency 111 if such coverage becomes available. For the purposes of this section: (i) health care coverage 112 shall be deemed reasonable in cost if the cost to the party ordered to provide health care coverage 113 does not exceed 5 per cent of the gross income of the party; (ii) health care coverage shall be 114 deemed accessible to the child if covered services are available within 15 miles of the child's 115 primary residence; (iii) health care coverage includes private health insurance available through 116 employment, union affiliation or otherwise, and public health coverage administered by the Title

117 XIX agency; and (iv) private health insurance shall be deemed not available at reasonable cost to 118 an obligor or obligee whose gross income does not exceed 150 per cent of the federal poverty 119 guidelines for the family size or who receives MassHealth on behalf of the obligor, the obligee or 120 the child.

121 (E) If the IV-D agency is responsible for enforcing the order, the court shall order the 122 obligor and the obligee to notify the IV-D agency of any changes in the availability and terms of 123 health care coverage. If the obligor is required to provide health care coverage for a child of the 124 obligor's through an employment-related health plan and if the IV-D agency has the name and 125 address of the employer, the IV-D agency shall transfer the national medical support notice, as 126 required by Title IV, Part D of the federal Social Security Act, to the employer notifying the 127 employer to enroll the child in a health care plan provided by the employer for which the obligor 128 is eligible. If the obligee is required to provide health care coverage, the IV-D agency may 129 transmit such national medical support notice to the employer of the obligee and the provisions 130 of this section with respect to the notice shall apply to such obligee and such employer. The 131 notice may be transmitted to the employer by any method, including paper, facsimile, magnetic 132 tape or other electronic means.

133 SECTION 9. The third paragraph of subsection (c) of said section 12 of said chapter 134 119A, as so appearing, is hereby amended by striking out the last 3 sentences.

135 SECTION 10. Subsection (d) of said section 12 of said chapter 119A, as so appearing, is 136 hereby amended by striking out the fifth sentence and inserting in place thereof the following 137 sentence:- When the agency ascertains that an obligor has failed to comply with a judgment or 138 order for health care coverage and health care coverage is available to the obligor at reasonable

139 cost and accessible to the child, the IV-D agency shall send notice of the judgment or national 140 medical support notice to the employer or to a provider of health care coverage together with 141 notice of the provisions of subsection (f).

142 SECTION 11. Said subsection (d) of said section 12 of said chapter 119A, as so 143 appearing, is hereby further amended by striking out the last sentence and inserting in place 144 thereof the following sentence:- The obligor or obligee may contest or seek a modification of an 145 order for health care coverage on the grounds that the coverage: (i) is no longer available to the 146 obligor at reasonable cost; (ii) is no longer accessible to the child; (iii) is no longer in the best 147 interest of the child; or (iv) creates an undue hardship for the moving party; provided, however, 148 that the moving party shall bear the burden of proving that the coverage: (i) is no longer 149 available to the moving party at reasonable cost; (ii) is no longer accessible to the child; (iii) is 150 no longer in the best interest of the child; or (iv) creates an undue hardship for the moving party; 151 and provided further, that the provider of health care coverage shall maintain coverage for the 152 child under the order pending a modification of the order.

153 SECTION 12. Said section 12 of said chapter 119A, as so appearing, is hereby further 154 amended by striking out subsection (k) and inserting in place thereof the following subsection:-

155 (k) Upon receipt of the national medical support notice or upon application of the 156 employee pursuant to the order for health care coverage, the employer shall enroll the child in 157 the health care plan. The national medical support notice shall have the same effect as an 158 enrollment application signed by the employee and shall operate to enroll the child in the health 159 care plan. The employer shall comply with the requirements of the national medical support 160 notice as set forth in the instructions incorporated into the notice. If health care coverage is 161 provided by the obligor, the employer or the provider of health care coverage shall furnish the 162 obligee with such information as may be necessary for the child to obtain benefits through the 163 plan and shall permit the obligee or, with the approval of the obligee, the provider of medical 164 services to submit claims for covered services without the approval of the obligor. A claim 165 submitted in accordance with this subsection shall be payable, as appropriate, directly to the 166 obligee, to the provider of medical services or, if the individual has assigned the individual's 167 rights to medical support pursuant to Title XIX of the federal Social Security Act, to the division 168 of medical assistance. If the division of medical assistance has been assigned the rights of an 169 individual covered for health benefits from the provider of health care coverage and eligible for 170 medical assistance under said Title XIX, the provider of health care coverage shall apply to the 171 division the same requirements applicable to an agent or assignee of any other individual so 172 covered.

173 SECTION 13. Subsection (m) of said section 12 of said chapter 119A, as so appearing, is 174 hereby amended by striking out the last sentence.

175 SECTION 14. The first paragraph of section 28 of chapter 208 of the General Laws, as so 176 appearing, is hereby amended by striking out the last 2 sentences.

177 SECTION 15. Said section 28 of said chapter 208, as so appearing, is hereby further 178 amended by inserting after the first paragraph the following 3 paragraphs:-

179 If the court makes an order for maintenance or support of a child, the court shall require 180 either parent to provide health care coverage for the child if such coverage is available at 181 reasonable cost and accessible to the child. The court may require the obligor to pay an amount 182 toward the obligee's cost of health care coverage or toward uninsured medical expenses on

183 behalf of the child. If the court determines that an order for health care coverage is not in the best 184 interest of the child or creates an undue hardship for either parent, the court shall enter written 185 findings.

186 If the child is enrolled in MassHealth or an equivalent program in another state pursuant 187 to chapter 118E, 42 U.S.C. 1397aa et seq. or 42 U.S.C. 1396a et seq., the court shall order the 188 obligee to maintain coverage as long as the child remains eligible; provided, however, that court 189 may also order the obligor to enroll the child in private health insurance if: (i) private health 190 insurance is available to the obligor at reasonable cost and accessible to the child; (ii) enrollment 191 in the insurance is in the best interest of the child; and (iii) enrollment in the insurance will not 192 create an undue hardship for the obligor or the obligee.

193 If the IV-D agency under chapter 119A is responsible for enforcing the order, the court
194 shall order the parents to notify the IV-D agency of any changes in the availability and terms of 195 health care coverage. For the purposes of this section: (i) health care coverage shall be deemed 196 reasonable in cost if the cost to the party ordered to provide health care coverage does not exceed 197 5 per cent of the gross income of the party; (ii) health care coverage shall be deemed accessible
198 to the child if covered services are available within 15 miles of the child's primary residence;
199 (iii) health care coverage includes private health insurance available through employment, union
200 affiliation or otherwise, and public health coverage administered by the Title XIX agency; and 201 (iv) private health insurance shall be deemed not available at reasonable cost to an obligor or 202 obligee whose gross income does not exceed 150 per cent of the federal poverty guidelines for 203 the family size or who receives MassHealth on behalf of the obligor, the obligee or the child.

204 SECTION 16. The fifth paragraph of section 32 of chapter 209 of the General Laws, as 205 so appearing, is hereby amended by striking out the last 2 sentences.

206 SECTION 17. Said section 32 of said chapter 209, as so appearing, is hereby further 207 amended by inserting after the fifth paragraph the following 3 paragraphs:-

208 If the court makes an order for maintenance or support on behalf of a spouse or child, the 209 court shall require either parent to provide health care coverage for the child if such coverage is 210 available at reasonable cost and accessible to the child. The court may require the obligor to pay 211 an amount toward the obligee's cost of health care coverage or toward uninsured medical
212 expenses on behalf of the child. If the court determines that an order for health care coverage is 213 not in the best interest of the child or creates an undue hardship for either parent, the court shall 214 enter written findings.

215 If the child is enrolled in MassHealth or equivalent program in another state pursuant to 216 chapter 118E, 42 U.S.C. 1397aa et seq. or 42 U.S.C. 1396a et seq., the court shall order the 217 obligee to maintain such coverage as long as the child remains eligible; provided, however, that 218 court may also order the obligor to enroll the child in private health insurance if: (i) private 219 health insurance is available to the obligor at reasonable cost and accessible to the child; (ii)
220 enrollment in the insurance is in the best interest of the child; and (iii) enrollment in the 221 insurance will not create an undue hardship for the obligor or the obligee.

222 If the IV-D agency under chapter 119A is responsible for enforcing the order, the court
223 shall order the parents to notify the IV-D agency of any changes in the availability and terms of 224 health care coverage. For the purposes of this section: (i) health care coverage shall be deemed 225 reasonable in cost if the cost to the party ordered to provide health care coverage does not exceed

226 5 per cent of the gross income of the party; (ii) health care coverage shall be deemed accessible 227 to the child if covered services are available within 15 miles of the primary residence of the 228 child; (iii) health care coverage includes private health insurance available through employment, 229 union affiliation or otherwise, and public health coverage administered by the Title XIX agency; 230 and (iv) private health insurance shall be deemed not available at reasonable cost to an obligor or 231 obligee whose gross income does not exceed 150 per cent of the federal poverty guidelines for 232 the family size or who receives MassHealth on behalf of the obligor, the obligee or the child.

233 SECTION 18. The first paragraph of section 37 of said chapter 209, as so appearing, is 234 hereby amended by striking out the last 2 sentences.

235 SECTION 19. Said section 37 of said chapter 209, as so appearing, is hereby further 236 amended by inserting after the first paragraph the following 3 paragraphs:-

237 If the court makes an order for support or maintenance on behalf of a child, the court 238 shall require either parent to provide health care coverage for the child if such coverage is 239 available at reasonable cost and accessible to the child. The court may require the obligor to pay 240 an amount toward the obligee's cost of health care coverage or toward uninsured medical 241 expenses on behalf of the child. If the court determines that an order for health care coverage is 242 not in the best interest of the child or creates an undue hardship for either parent, the court shall 243 enter written findings.

244 If the child is enrolled in MassHealth or equivalent program in another state pursuant to 245 chapter 118E, 42 U.S.C. 1397aa et seq. or 42 U.S.C. 1396a et seq., the court shall order the 246 obligee to maintain coverage as long as the child remains eligible; provided, however, that the 247 court may also order the obligor to enroll the child in private health insurance if: (i) private

248 health insurance is available to the obligor at reasonable cost and accessible to the child; (ii)
249 enrollment in the insurance is in the best interest of the child; and (iii) enrollment in the 250 insurance will not create an undue hardship for the obligor or the obligee.

251 If the IV-D agency under chapter 119A is responsible for enforcing the order, the court
252 shall order the parents to notify the IV-D agency of any changes in the availability and terms of 253 health care coverage. For the purposes of this section: (i) health care coverage shall be deemed 254 reasonable in cost if the cost to the party ordered to provide health care coverage does not exceed 255 5 per cent of the gross income of the party; (ii) health care coverage shall be deemed accessible
256 to the child if covered services are available within 15 miles of the child's primary residence;
257 (iii) health care coverage includes private health insurance available through employment, union
258 affiliation or otherwise, and public health coverage administered by the Title XIX agency; and 259 (iv) private health insurance shall be deemed not available at reasonable cost to an obligor or 260 obligee whose gross income does not exceed 150 per cent of the federal poverty guidelines for 261 the family size or who receives MassHealth on behalf of the obligor, the obligee or the child.

262 SECTION 20. The first paragraph of section 9 of chapter 209C of the General Laws, as 263 so appearing, is hereby amended by striking out the seventh and eighth sentences.

264 SECTION 21. Said section 9 of said chapter 209C, as so appearing, is hereby further 265 amended by inserting after the first paragraph the following 3 paragraphs:-

266 If the court makes an order or judgment for maintenance or support of a child, the court 267 shall require either parent to provide health care coverage for the child if such coverage is 268 available at reasonable cost and accessible to the child. The court may require the obligor to pay 269 an amount toward the obligee's cost of health care coverage or toward uninsured medical

270 expenses on behalf of the child. If the court determines that an order for health care coverage is 271 not in the best interest of the child or creates an undue hardship for either parent, the court shall 272 enter written findings.

273 If the child is enrolled in MassHealth or equivalent program in another state pursuant to 274 chapter 118E, 42 U.S.C. 1397aa et seq. or 42 U.S.C. 1396a et seq., the court shall order the 275 obligee to maintain coverage as long as the child remains eligible; provided, however, that the 276 court may also order the obligor to enroll the child in private health insurance if: (i) private 277 health insurance is available to the obligor at reasonable cost and accessible to the child; (ii)
278 enrollment in the insurance is in the best interest of the child; and (iii) enrollment in the 279 insurance will not create an undue hardship for the obligor or the obligee.

280 If the IV-D agency under chapter 119A is responsible for enforcing the order, the court
281 shall order the parents to notify the IV-D agency of any changes in the availability and terms of 282 health care coverage. For the purposes of this section: (i) health care coverage shall be deemed 283 reasonable in cost if the cost to the party ordered to provide health care coverage does not exceed
284 5 per cent of the gross income of the party; (ii) health care coverage shall be deemed accessible
285 to the child if covered services are available within 15 miles of the child's primary residence;
286 (iii) health care coverage includes private health insurance available through employment, union
287 affiliation or otherwise, and public health coverage administered by the Title XIX agency; and 288 (iv) private health insurance shall be deemed not available at reasonable cost to an obligor or 289 obligee whose gross income does not exceed 150 per cent of the federal poverty guidelines for 290 the family size or who receives MassHealth on behalf of the obligor, the obligee or the child.

291 SECTION 22. Section 49 of chapter 9 of the acts of 2011, as most recently amended by 292 section 25 of chapter 5 of the acts of 2019, is hereby further amended by inserting after 293 subsection (d), the following subsection:-

294 (d^{1/2})(1) The commissioner may procure job order contracts for use by state agencies 295 consisting of the division of capital asset management and maintenance, the department of 296 correction and any higher education facilities subject to the department of higher education for 297 facilities that are owned or operated by the state agencies for projects that: (i) improve access to 298 places of public accommodation listed in section 92A of chapter 272 of the General Laws; or (ii) 299 remove barriers and create or improve accessible features for both physical and programmatic 300 access necessary for compliance with the law, including for compliance with Title II of the 301 federal Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990.

302 (2) These contracts shall be limited to job orders estimated to cost not more than 303 $1,000,000 each and shall be procured through the procedures specified in section 39M of 304 chapter 30 of the General Laws, except that: (i) the amount of the bid deposit shall be $5,000; (ii) 305 contractors who are awarded job orders under any job order contract shall be certified by the 306 division of capital asset management and maintenance for the category of work specified in the 307 contract; and (iii) the amounts of surety bonds required by the contract may be satisfied with 308 respect to each particular job order before the commencement of any work under that job order.
309 The commissioner shall award a job order contract to the eligible and responsible bidder who 310 offers the lowest mark-up over the base unit prices specified in the contract specifications.

311 SECTION 23. Subsection (c) of section 220 of chapter 69 of the acts of 2018 is hereby 312 amended by striking out the words “June 30” and inserting in place thereof the following words:-
313 December 31.

314 SECTION 24. Subsection (e) of section 221 of said chapter 69 is hereby amended by 315 striking out the words “July 1” and inserting in place thereof the following words:- December 31.

316 SECTION 25. Item 7004-0202 of section 2 of chapter 154 of the acts of 2018 is hereby 317 amended by inserting after the word “housing”, the second time it appears, the following words:- 318 ; provided further, that any unexpended funds in this item shall not revert but shall be made 319 available for the purpose of this item until June 30, 2020.

320 SECTION 26. Item 7061-9814 of said section 2 of said chapter 154 is hereby amended 321 by adding the following words:- ; and provided further, that appropriated funds may be expended 322 for programs or activities during the summer months.

323 SECTION 27. Section 56 of chapter 228 of the acts of 2018 is hereby amended by 324 inserting after the first sentence the following sentence:- A city or town that enters into such an 325 agreement with an adjacent city or town to expend its grant proceeds in a manner that provides 326 broadband service to areas within the adjacent city or town shall, upon receipt of reimbursement 327 from the adjacent city or town, credit the funds paid in reimbursement to the grant from which 328 the expenses were originally paid and such funds shall become part of the grant to be expended 329 according to the provisions of the grant agreement.
