In the Year Two Thousand Fourteen

SENATE, October 16, 2014

The committee on Ways and Means, to whom was referred the Senate establishing a sick leave bank for Joseph Quinn, an employee of the Trial Court (Senate, No. 2375),- reports, recommending that the same ought to pass with an amendment substituting a new with the same title (Senate, No. 2385).

For the committee,
Stephen M. Brewer

SENATE No. 2385

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Fourteen

An Act establishing a sick leave bank for Joseph Quinn, an employee of the Trial Court.

Whereas, The deferred operation of this act would tend to defeat its purpose, which is to establish forthwith a sick leave bank for a certain employee of the trial court, therefore it is hereby declared to be an emergency law, necessary for the immediate preservation of the public convenience.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, the trial court shall establish a
2 sick leave bank for Joseph Quinn, an employee of the Concord district court in the department of 3 the trial court. Any employee of the trial court may voluntarily contribute 1 or more sick,
4 personal or vacation days to the sick leave bank for use by Joseph Quinn. Whenever Joseph
5 Quinn terminates employment with the trial court or requests to dissolve the sick leave bank, any
6 remaining time in the sick leave bank shall be transferred to the trial court paid leave bank. Sick
7 leave bank days shall not be used for absences unrelated to the illness or disability that 8 necessitated the establishment of the sick leave bank as determined by the trial court.
