The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Second General Court (2021-2022)

1	SECTION 1. (a) Notwithstanding any general law to the contrary, the division of each
2	city into convenient voting wards and precincts pursuant to section 1 and section 2 of chapter 54
3	of the General Laws shall be completed, approved locally and submitted through the state
4	secretary to the local election districts review commission, as established by section 9A of
5	chapter 9 of the General Laws, within 30 days after the enactment of legislation dividing the
6	commonwealth into: (i) congressional districts pursuant to the United States Constitution; (ii) 40
7	senatorial districts pursuant to section 2 of Article CI of the Articles of Amendment to the
8	Constitution of the Commonwealth; (iii) 160 representative districts pursuant to section 1 of said
9	Article CI; and (iv) 8 councillor districts pursuant to said section 2 of said Article CI and Article
10	XVI of the Articles of Amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth; provided,
11	however, that this section shall not apply to any city which has a special law to the contrary
12	covering the procedure for the division of wards and precincts.
13	(b) Notwithstanding any general law to the contrary, the division of each town into
14	convenient voting precincts pursuant to said section 1 and section 6 of said chapter 54, shall be
15	completed, approved locally and submitted through the state secretary to the local election
16	districts review commission within 30 days after the enactment of legislation dividing the
17	commonwealth into: (i) congressional districts pursuant to the United States Constitution; (ii) 40

senatorial districts pursuant to section 2 of Article CI of the Articles of Amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth; (iii) 160 representative districts pursuant to section 1 of said Article CI; and (iv) 8 councillor districts pursuant to said section 2 of said Article CI and Article XVI of the Articles of Amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth; provided, however, that this section shall not apply to any town which has a special law to the contrary covering the procedure for the division precincts.

(c) Notwithstanding any general law to the contrary, the division of each city and town into convenient voting wards or precincts pursuant to subsections (a) and (b) shall be completed, approved locally and be submitted through the state secretary to the local election districts review commission not later than December 15, 2021. Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, the local election district review commission may consider revisions or amendments submitted to the local election district review commission by a city or town to a division previously approved by the commission pursuant to subsections (a) or (b); provided, however, that such revisions or amendments shall be completed, approved locally and submitted through the state secretary to the local election districts review commission not later than December 15, 2021.

SECTION 2. Notwithstanding any general law to the contrary, if a city fails to timely complete, approve and submit a new division of voting wards and precincts through the state secretary to the local election districts review commission pursuant to section 1 or if a town fails to timely complete, approve and submit a new division of voting precincts through the state secretary to the local election districts review commission pursuant to said section 1, or if the local election districts review commission finds that any such proposed division of voting wards and precincts submitted by a city or any such proposed division of precincts submitted by a town is deficient, the commission shall, within 7 days: (i) make such division of the city into wards and precincts or the town into precincts; or (ii) appoint a special master to make such division, subject to approval and amendment by the commission. The cost of the special master shall be paid by the city or town. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the commission finds a proposed division deficient, it may consult with a city or town on a new division into wards or precincts.

SECTION 3. Notwithstanding any general law to the contrary, the local election districts review commission shall, within 14 days of receipt of the division of a city or town into convenient voting wards or precincts pursuant to section 1, or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, deliver to the president of the senate and speaker of the house of representatives an electronic geographic information system shapefile, or equivalent, containing said division.

SECTION 4. Notwithstanding any general law to the contrary, the local election districts review commission, in consultation with the state secretary, may promulgate rules and regulations necessary for the orderly administration and enforcement of this act by filing notice of the change with the rules and regulations division of the state secretary who shall post such notice on the state secretary's website.

- SECTION 5. Sections 1 to 4, inclusive, are hereby repealed.
- 57 SECTION 6. Section 5 shall take effect on January 1, 2022.
