SENATE . . . . . No. 2550

---

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Third General Court (2023-2024)

An Act providing consumers with equal protection for all real estate appraisals.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1           SECTION 1. Section 173 of chapter 112 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2022
2 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting after the definition of “Certified appraisal or 3 certified appraisal report” the following definition:-

4           “Evaluation”, an estimate of the value of real property, made in accordance with the 5 Interagency Appraisal and Evaluation Guidelines, for use in a real estate-related financial 6 transaction for which an appraisal is not required by federal law.

7           SECTION 2. Subsection A of section 174 of said chapter 112, as so appearing, is hereby 8 amended by striking out the second sentence and inserting in place thereof the following 9 sentence:-

10           Except to the extent permitted under subsections B and C, a person who has not obtained 11 a real estate appraisal license or certification under this chapter shall not prepare, for a fee or 12 other consideration, an appraisal or appraisal report relating to real estate or real property in the 13 commonwealth.

14 SECTION 3. Said section 174 of said chapter 112, as so appearing, is hereby further 15 amended by striking out subsection C and inserting in place thereof the following subsection:-

16 C. Sections 173 to 195, inclusive, shall not apply to a person engaged by a financial 17 institution to perform an evaluation. When providing an evaluation, a licensed or certified real 18 estate appraiser is not required to comply with the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal 19 Practice. An evaluation by a real estate appraiser who is licensed or certified in the 20 commonwealth under this subsection shall contain a disclosure that the evaluation is not an 21 appraisal and is not required to comply with the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal
22 Practice.
