An Act relative to financial literacy curriculum.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, the department 2 of education shall authorize and assist in the implementation of programs to teach personal 3 financial literacy in order to equip students with the knowledge and skills needed to become self-4 supporting and to enable students to make critical decisions regarding personal finances. The 5 department shall develop a curriculum, materials and guidelines that local boards of education 6 and governing authorities of accredited nonpublic schools shall use in implementing the program 7 of instruction on personal financial literacy. The department shall also develop standards and 8 objectives for personal financial literacy for all grade levels within the existing math curriculum.
