An Act exempting the city of Attleboro from the provisions of chapter 31 of the General Laws as they concern the recruitment and hiring of full-time permanent police officers.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1           SECTION 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of any general or special law or rule to the 2 contrary, the City of Attleboro shall be exempt from chapter 31 of the General Laws concerning 3 the recruiting and hiring for the position of permanent full-time police officer; furthermore,
4 following (1) an original appointment as a permanent full-time police officer and graduation
5 from a police academy, or (2) a permanent full-time position transfer from another police 6 department, said police officer shall engage in the actual performance of the duties of such 7 position for a probationary period of twelve (12) months; whereupon after completion of the 8 probationary period, or extended probationary period, the police officer shall be considered a 9 full-time tenured civil service employee in said position under chapter 31 of the General Laws.

10           SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon its passage.
