SENATE . . . . . No. 00293

By Mr. Baddour, petition (accompanied by bill, Senate, No. 293) of Baddour for legislation relative to the administration of political action committees [Joint Committee on Election Laws].

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Eleven

An Act relative to the administration of political action committees organized by not-for-profit corporations..

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 1 of Chapter 55 of the Massachusetts General Laws is hereby 2 amended by deleting in its entirety paragraph four and by inserting the following: "Contribution", 3 a contribution of money or anything of value to an individual, candidate, political committee, or 4 person acting on behalf of said individual, candidate or political committee, for the purpose of 5 influencing the nomination or election of said individual or candidate, or for the purpose of 6 supporting or opposing a political party committee, or for the purpose of promoting or opposing 7 a charter change, referendum question, constitutional amendment, or other question submitted to 8 the voters, and shall include any: (1) gift, subscription, loan, advance, deposit of money, or thing 9 of value, except a loan of money to a candidate by a national or state bank made in accordance 10 with the applicable banking laws and regulations and in the ordinary course of business; (2)
11 transfer of money or anything of value between political committees; (3) payment, by any person 12 other than a candidate or political committee, or compensation for the personal services of 13 another person which are rendered to such candidate or committee; (4) purchase from an 14 individual, candidate, or political committee, or person acting on behalf of said individual, 15 candidate, or political committee, whether through the device of tickets, advertisements, or 16 otherwise, for fund-raising activities, including testimonials, held on behalf of said individual, 17 candidate or political committee, to the extent that the purchase price exceeds the actual cost of 18 the goods sold or services rendered; (5) discount or rebate not available to other candidates for 19 the same office and to the general public; and (6) forgiveness of indebtedness or payment of 20 indebtedness by another person; but shall not include the rendering of services by speakers, 21 editors, writers, poll watchers, poll checkers or others; nor the payment by those rendering such 22 services of such personal expenses as may be incidental thereto; nor the exercise of ordinary 23 hospitality; nor any costs to solicit, administer or maintain a political action committee organized 24 by a not-for-profit corporation, trade union, trade association or chamber of commerce provided 25 that such costs shall not exceed thirty percent of the political action committee's annual 26 expenditures; provided, further, that a transfer of funds or payments by a depository candidate or 27 his committee to the political committee of a party, for goods or services provided to a candidate 28 or his committee by such political party shall not be considered to be a contribution.

29           SECTION 2. Section 8 of Chapter 55 of the Massachusetts General Laws is hereby 30 amended by inserting after the word "party" in line 14 the following: ; except for costs to solicit,
31 administer or maintain a political action committee organized by a not-for-profit corporation, 32 trade union, trade association or chamber of commerce provided that such costs shall not exceed 33 thirty percent of the political action committee's annual expenditures.
