The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Second General Court (2021-2022)

An Act promoting equity in agriculture.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 (a) As used in this section, the following words shall, unless the context clearly requires 2 otherwise, have the following meanings:-

3 “Department”, the department of agricultural resources.

4 “socially disadvantaged groups”, people who have, or whose lineage has, been 5 historically been historically or systematically excluded from, or have had less access to 6 resources and opportunities based on cultural, racial, or ethnic prejudice based on their identity 7 as a member of a group rather than for their individual qualities. These groups include, but are 8 not limited to, African Americans, Cape Verdeans, Hispanics, Asians Americans, Pacific
9 Islanders, Caribbean Islanders, Native Americans and Alaskan Natives.

10 (b) There shall be a commission on agricultural equity to develop recommendations for 11 supporting racially equitable investments, policies, and practices to promote equity in agriculture 12 in the commonwealth.

13           The commission shall consist of 15 members, including the commissioner of agricultural 14 resources or a designee; 2 of whom shall be chosen by the legislative food system caucus, to be 15 selected through an open nomination process under criteria developed by the caucus; 2 of who 16 shall represent nonprofit organizations whose primary purpose is working with farmers from 17 socially disadvantaged groups, to be selected by the commissioner through an open nomination 18 process under criteria developed by the department; 2 of whom shall be chosen by Buy Local 19 organizations funded by the department; 2 of whom shall be chosen by the Massachusetts Food
20 System Collaborative; 2 of whom shall be chosen by the Massachusetts Food System
21 Collaborative; 2 of whom shall be chosen by the commission on Indian affairs to represent 22 Native American farmers; 1 of whom shall be chosen by Massachusetts Farm Bureau Federation;
23 and 1 of whom shall be chosen by the University of Massachusetts Center for Agriculture, Food
24 and the Environment.

25           The commission shall be co-chaired by the commissioner of agricultural resources and a 26 member of the commission chosen by the members.

27           The commission shall hold 3 or more public hearings in various regions of the state,
28 including 1 in a rural area and 1 in an urban area with potential for increased urban agriculture.

29           (c) The commission shall investigate and study ways to increase equity in agriculture in 30 the commonwealth, and shall prepare a report that includes:

31           (1) recommendations for data collection and dissemination, benchmark development,
32 targeting practices, and transparency for grantmaking to promote equitable access to grant 33 programs and equitable distribution of funds to socially disadvantaged groups;

34 (2) recommendations for how laws, regulations, and other policies that regulate and 35 support agriculture in the commonwealth could more equitably serve socially disadvantaged 36 groups;

37 (3) recommendations for how programs and services offered by the department,
38 including, but not limited to those programs regarding land access and protection, farmer
39 technical assistance and education, marketing, and others, could more equitably serve socially 40 disadvantaged groups;

41 (4) recommendations for how regulatory and other departmental decision-making 42 processes could more equitably serve socially disadvantaged groups;

43 (5) recommendations for the ongoing role of the commission or another representative 44 body in supporting implementation and monitoring of these goals; and 45 (6) a plan for implementation of these recommendations, including a timeline.

46 The department shall furnish reasonable staff and other support for the work of the 47 commission. Members may receive reimbursement for the reasonable expenses incurred in 48 carrying out their responsibilities as members of the commission under procedures established by 49 the department.

50 The department may fund the expenses of the commission from the Massachusetts
51 Farmer Equity Commission Fund, without further appropriation.

52 (d) The Commission shall, no later than 12 months following the date of enactment of 53 this act, report to the general court on the results of its investigation and study together with its 54 findings, recommendations, and drafts of legislation, if any, necessary to carry out those

55 recommendations. The report shall be posted on the web site of the department and shall be 56 submitted to the speaker of the house, the senate president, the house and senate committees on 57 ways and means and the committee on energy, natural resources and agriculture.

58 (e) There shall be established and set up on the books of the commonwealth a separate 59 fund, to be administered by the commissioner of the department of agricultural resources, which 60 shall be known as the Massachusetts Farmer Equity Commission Fund. The Fund shall consist of 61 all revenues from public and private sources as appropriations, gifts, grants, donations, and 62 grants-in-aid or other receipts to be disbursed by the commission to provide stipends for time 63 spent furthering the cause of the commission made by non-governmental members of the 64 commission.
