The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Eighty-Ninth General Court (2015-2016)
—————

An Act relative to telemedicine.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 32A of the General Laws is hereby amended by adding the 2 following section:-

3 Section 26. (a) As used in this section the following words shall, unless the context
4 clearly requires otherwise, have the following meanings:-

5 “Health Benefit Policy”, Any individual or group plan, policy, or contract for healthcare 6 services issued, delivered, issued for delivery, executed, or renewed in this state, including, but 7 not limited to, those contracts executed by the Commonwealth on behalf of state employees.

8 “Insurer”, an accident and sickness insurer, fraternal benefit society, hospital service 9 corporation, medical service corporation, health care corporation, managed care entity, or any 10 similar entity authorized to issue contracts under this title or to provide health benefit policies.

11 “Telemedicine”, the use of audio, video or other electronic media for the purpose of 12 diagnosis, consultation, or treatment as it pertains to the delivery of healthcare services.
13 Telemedicine does not include the use of audio only telephone or facsimile.

14 (b) The commission shall provide to an active or retired employee of the commonwealth 15 who is insured under the group insurance commission benefits on a nondiscriminatory basis for 16 the application of telemedicine for covered services provided within the scope of practice of a 17 physician or health care provider as a method of delivery of medical care by which an individual 18 shall receive medical services from a health care provider without in person contact with the 19 provider.

20 (c) The commission may not deny coverage of the sole basis that the coverage is 21 provided through telemedicine if the health care service would be covered if it were provided
22 through in-person consultation between the covered person and a health care provider.

23 (d) Nothing in this section shall prohibit an insurer from providing coverage for only 24 those services that are medically necessary and subject to the terms and conditions of the covered
25 person’s policy.

26 SECTION 2. Chapter 175 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after 27 section 47AA the following section:-

28 Section 47BB. (a) As used in this section the following words shall, unless the context
29 clearly requires otherwise, have the following meanings:-

30 “Health Benefit Policy”, Any individual or group plan, policy, or contract for healthcare
31 services issued, delivered, issued for delivery, executed, or renewed in this state, including, but 32 not limited to, those contracts executed by the Commonwealth on behalf of state employees.

33 “Insurer”, an accident and sickness insurer, fraternal benefit society, hospital service
34 corporation, medical service corporation, health care corporation, managed care entity, or any 35 similar entity authorized to issue contracts under this title or to provide health benefit policies.

36 “Telemedicine”, the use of audio, video or other electronic media for the purpose of 37 diagnosis, consultation, or treatment as it pertains to the delivery of healthcare services.
38 Telemedicine does not include the use of audio only telephone or facsimile.

39 (b) An individual policy of accident and sickness insurance issued under section 108 that 40 provides hospital expense and surgical expense insurance and any group blanket or general 41 policy of accident and sickness insurance issued under section 110 that provides hospital expense 42 and surgical expense insurance, which is issued or renewed within or without the 43 commonwealth, shall provide benefits on a nondiscriminatory basis to residents of the 44 commonwealth and to all policyholders having a principal place of employment in the 45 commonwealth for the application of telemedicine for covered services provided within the 46 scope of practice of a physician or health care provider as a method of delivery of medical care 47 by which an individual shall receive medical services from a health care provider without in 48 person contact with the provider.

49 (c) The commission may not deny coverage of the sole basis that the coverage is 50 provided through telemedicine if the health care service would be covered if it were provided
51 through in-person consultation between the covered person and a health care provider.

52 (d) Nothing in this section shall prohibit an insurer from providing coverage for only 53 those services that are medically necessary and subject to the terms and conditions of the covered
54 person's policy.

55 SECTION 3. Chapter 176A of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after 56 section 8DD the following section:-

57 Section 8EE. (a) As used in this section the following words shall, unless the context
58 clearly requires otherwise, have the following meanings:-

59 "Health Benefit Policy", Any individual or group plan, policy, or contract for healthcare
60 services issued, delivered, issued for delivery, executed, or renewed in this state, including, but 61 not limited to, those contracts executed by the Commonwealth on behalf of state employees.

62 "Insurer", an accident and sickness insurer, fraternal benefit society, hospital service
63 corporation, medical service corporation, health care corporation, managed care entity, or any 64 similar entity authorized to issue contracts under this title or to provide health benefit policies.

65 "Telemedicine", the use of audio, video or other electronic media for the purpose of 66 diagnosis, consultation, or treatment as it pertains to the delivery of healthcare services.
67 Telemedicine does not include the use of audio only telephone or facsimile.

68 (b) A contract between a subscriber and the corporation under an individual or group 69 hospital service plan which is issued or renewed within or without the commonwealth shall

70 provide benefits on a nondiscriminatory basis to residents of the commonwealth and to all 71 policyholders having a principal place of employment in the commonwealth for the application 72 of telemedicine for covered services provided within the scope of practice of a physician or 73 health care provider as a method of delivery of medical care by which an individual shall receive 74 medical services from a health care provider without in person contact with the provider.

75 (c) The commission may not deny coverage of the sole basis that the coverage is 76 provided through telemedicine if the health care service would be covered if it were provided
77 through in-person consultation between the covered person and a health care provider.

79 those services that are medically necessary and subject to the terms and conditions of the covered
80 person's policy.

81 SECTION 4. Chapter 176B of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after 82 section 4DD the following section:-

83 Section 4EE. (a) As used in this section the following words shall, unless the context
84 clearly requires otherwise, have the following meanings:-

85 "Health Benefit Policy", Any individual or group plan, policy, or contract for healthcare
86 services issued, delivered, issued for delivery, executed, or renewed in this state, including, but 87 not limited to, those contracts executed by the Commonwealth on behalf of state employees.

88 "Insurer", an accident and sickness insurer, fraternal benefit society, hospital service
89 corporation, medical service corporation, health care corporation, managed care entity, or any 90 similar entity authorized to issue contracts under this title or to provide health benefit policies.

91 “Telemedicine”, the use of audio, video or other electronic media for the purpose of 92 diagnosis, consultation, or treatment as it pertains to the delivery of healthcare services.
93 Telemedicine does not include the use of audio only telephone or facsimile.

94 (b) A subscription certificate under an individual or group medical service agreement 95 which is issued or renewed within or without the commonwealth shall provide benefits on a 96 nondiscriminatory basis to residents of the commonwealth and to all policyholders having a 97 principal place of employment in the commonwealth for the application of telemedicine for 98 covered services provided within the scope of practice of a physician or health care provider as a 99 method of delivery of medical care by which an individual shall receive medical services from a 100 health care provider without in person contact with the provider.

101 (c) The commission may not deny coverage of the sole basis that the coverage is 102 provided through telemedicine if the health care service would be covered if it were provided
103 through in-person consultation between the covered person and a health care provider.

104 (d) Nothing in this section shall prohibit an insurer from providing coverage for only 105 those services that are medically necessary and subject to the terms and conditions of the covered 106 person’s policy.

107 SECTION 5. Chapter 176G of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after 108 section 4V the following section:-

109 Section 4W. (a) As used in this section the following words shall, unless the context
110 clearly requires otherwise, have the following meanings:-

111 “Health Benefit Policy”, Any individual or group plan, policy, or contract for healthcare
112 services issued, delivered, issued for delivery, executed, or renewed in this state, including, but 113 not limited to, those contracts executed by the Commonwealth on behalf of state employees.

114 “Insurer”, an accident and sickness insurer, fraternal benefit society, hospital service
115 corporation, medical service corporation, health care corporation, managed care entity, or any 116 similar entity authorized to issue contracts under this title or to provide health benefit policies.

118 diagnosis, consultation, or treatment as it pertains to the delivery of healthcare services.
119 Telemedicine does not include the use of audio only telephone or facsimile.

120 (b) A health maintenance contract issued or renewed within or without the 121 commonwealth shall provide benefits on a nondiscriminatory basis to residents of the 122 commonwealth and to all policyholders having a principal place of employment in the 123 commonwealth for the application of telemedicine for covered services provided within the 124 scope of practice of a physician or health care provider as a method of delivery of medical care
125 by which an individual shall receive medical services from a health care provider without in 126 person contact with the provider.

127 (c) The commission may not deny coverage of the sole basis that the coverage is 128 provided through telemedicine if the health care service would be covered if it were provided
129 through in-person consultation between the covered person and a health care provider.

130 (d) Nothing in this section shall prohibit an insurer from providing coverage for only
131 those services that are medically necessary and subject to the terms and conditions of the covered
132 person’s policy.

133 SECTION 5. All policies, contracts and certificates of health insurance subject to section 134 25 of chapter 32A, section 47AA of chapter 175, section 8DD of chapter 176A, section 4CC of 135 chapter 176B, and section 4V of chapter 176G of the General Laws which are delivered, issued 136 or renewed on or after January 1, 2012 shall conform with the provisions of this act. Form filings 137 implementing this act shall be subject to the approval of the commissioner of insurance.
