127 The board of directors shall have the general direction of the affairs of the corporation and shall meet as often as may be necessary, but not less than once each month. A quorum shall 129 consist of not less than a majority of the directors. If less than a quorum is present, a majority of 130 those present may adjourn the meeting until the next regular meeting or another time prior 131 thereto. It shall act upon all applications for membership and determine the rate of interest to be 132 paid on deposits. These duties may be delegated by the directors. The board may also declare 133 dividends as provided in section 29 and shall fill vacancies in the board of directors and 134 committees until the next annual election. These duties may not be delegated. The 135 establishment of deposit accounts or the discontinuance thereof may be authorized by the board of directors of the credit union. It shall make recommendations to the members of the credit union relative to the need of amendments to the by-laws, and other matters upon which, in its opinion, the members should act at any regular or special meeting. The board of directors may borrow money for and on behalf of the credit union as authorized by section seventy-three. It may, by a two-thirds vote, remove from office for cause any officer or any member of any committee. It may also elect an honorary president, who shall be a member of said credit union. Said honorary president shall not be compensated in any way by the credit union. The board may appoint associate directors who shall not be compensated or vote.

Unless the articles of organization or bylaws provide that action required or permitted by this chapter or other provisions of the General Laws to be taken by the directors may be taken only at a meeting, the action may be taken without a meeting if the action is taken by the unanimous consent of the members of the board of directors. The action shall be evidenced by 1 or more consents describing the action taken, in writing, signed by each director, or delivered to the credit union by electronic transmission, to the address specified by the credit union for the purpose or, if no address has been specified, to the principal office of the credit union, addressed to the secretary or other officer or agent having custody of the records of proceedings of directors, and included in the minutes or filed with the corporate records reflecting the action taken. Action taken under this section is effective when the last director signs or delivers the consent, unless the consent specifies a different effective date. A consent signed or delivered under this section has the effect of a meeting vote and may be described as such in any document. The provisions of this section shall also apply to committees of the board and the members thereof.

Section 29. The capital of a credit union shall be unlimited in amount and shall consistent of shares and deposits. Share shall be a par value of not less than 1 dollar but not more than 25 dollars each and shall be subscribed and paid for in such manner as the by-laws of the credit union shall prescribe.

234 Dividends may be paid at various rates based on the type and amount of an account or on 235 the terms and conditions applicable to said accounts.

The board of directors of a credit union may receive payments on uninsured non-share accounts subject to such terms, rates, and conditions as may be established by the board of directors, within limitations prescribed by the commissioner. With respect to any insured credit union other than a low-income credit union, uninsured non-share accounts shall (i) not alter the cooperative nature of the credit union; (ii) be subordinate to all other claims against the credit union, including the claims of creditors, shareholders, and the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund; iii) be available to be applied to cover operating losses of the credit union in excess of its retained earnings and, to the extent so applied, will not be replenished; (iv) if they have a stated maturity, have an initial maturity of at least 5 years; (v) if they have a stated 245 maturity, the net worth value of such accounts may be discounted at the discretion of the commissioner when the remaining maturity is less than 5 years; (vi) are subject to disclosure and consumer protection requirements as determined by the board; (vii) are offered by a credit union that is determined by the commissioner to be sufficiently capitalized and well-managed; (viii) are subject to such rules and regulations as the commissioner may establish; and (ix) are authorized by the National Credit Union Administration.

A share or deposit authorized by section 30 except club deposits, if the directors so determine, and if the share and deposit liabilities are insured in full under federal or state law, or both, may be received as a special notice account subject to this section.

- 1. Special Notice Account Agreements Any such shares or deposits shall be received subject to a written agreement between the credit union and the shareholder or depositor or joint shareholders or joint depositors which agreement shall contain the following provisions:—
- 258 Except as hereinafter provided relative to dividends or interest on such shares and (a) 259 deposits, neither the whole nor any part of such shares or deposits may be withdrawn other than 260 pursuant to the terms of a withdrawal notice of ninety days or more signed by such shareholder 261 or depositor or any joint shareholder or depositor and received by such credit union. Such notice 262 shall state that such shareholder or depositor or such joint shareholders or depositors propose to 263 withdraw such shares and deposits in whole or in specified part during a withdrawal period 264 commencing upon a day specified, which day shall be not less than ninety days following the receipt by the credit union of such withdrawal notice and terminating upon the expiration of the ninth day following or, if such ninth day shall be a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday, upon the 266 expiration of the business day next succeeding such ninth day. 267

- 268 (b) Any ordinary, extra or additional dividend or interest on such shares or deposits
  269 may be withdrawn pursuant to a permanent dividend or interest order signed by such shareholder
  270 or depositor or any joint shareholder or depositor and received by such credit union prior to the 271 day upon which such dividend or interest becomes payable or pursuant to a demand made by 272 such shareholder or depositor or any joint shareholders or depositors within one year after the 273 day upon which such dividend or interest became payable. If not so withdrawn, no such 274 dividend or interest shall be withdrawn except as hereinbefore provided in subparagraph (a).
- 275 2. Withdrawals No such credit union shall permit the whole or any part of such 276 shares or deposits or any ordinary, extra or additional interest or dividend declared thereon to be 277 withdrawn, in whole or in part, except in accordance with the terms of such agreement.
- 278 3. Passbooks Each passbook representing shares or deposits received under this 279 section shall contain the title "Special Notice Account."
- Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, any credit union or federal credit union may accept public funds pursuant to section 34 of chapter 29 and sections 54, 55 and 55A of chapter 44 as provided for therein; provided, however, that the total of such public funds received shall not exceed, at any time, 25 percent of the assets of the credit union or federal credit union.
- SECTION 50. Section 30 of said chapter 171, as so appearing, is hereby amended by inserting after the words "National Credit Union Administration", the following words:- and to members of low-income credit unions.

- SECTION 95. Section 69 of said chapter 171, as so appearing, is hereby amended by striking out the last paragraph.
- SECTION 96. Section 70 of said chapter 171, as so appearing, is hereby repealed.
- SECTION 97. Said chapter 171 is hereby further amended by striking out section 71, as so appearing, and inserting in place thereof the following section:-
- Section 71. At least 5 per cent of the total assets of a credit union shall be carried as cash on hand or in the following investments which shall be absolute property and shall be under the control of the credit union or be held by book entry procedure when required.

- 499 (a) shares in a federally-insured corporate credit union; 500 (b) deposits in savings banks incorporated in the commonwealth; 501 (c) paid-up shares and accounts of and in cooperative banks incorporated in the 502 commonwealth; 503 (d) shares of savings and loan associations incorporated in the commonwealth; 504 (e) balances due from banks and trust companies or banking companies which are members of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation; 506 (f) shares of federal savings and loan associations having a usual place of business within the commonwealth; 507 508 (g) bonds or notes of the United States or of any state or subdivision thereof with a 509 maturity of up to 5 years;
- 510 (h) bonds or notes of other federal agencies which are on the list of legal investments 511 prepared pursuant to section 15A of chapter 167 with a maturity of up to 3 years;
- (i) repurchase agreements secured by United States government obligations up to 1 year maturity; provided, however, that repurchase agreements greater than 1 year maturity shall contain provisions authorizing early withdrawal of such obligations;
- 515 (j) in a common trust unit plan organized for the purchase of bonds or notes of the United 516 States or of any subdivision thereof which are on the list of legal investments prepared pursuant 517 to said section 15A of said chapter 167 and which has as its custodian a banking institution 518 authorized to accept deposits from a credit union or from a savings bank;

- 519 (k) securities of government sponsored enterprises;
- 520 (1) federal funds;
- (m) in any bonds or notes which are on the list of legal investments prepared pursuant to said section 15A of said chapter 167 with a maturity of up to 3 years; provided, however, that such bonds or notes are rated as A, AA, or AAA; and
- (n) certificates of deposit of up to 1 year maturity which otherwise meet the criteria in clauses (a) to (h), inclusive, or clause (q) of the first paragraph of section 67.
- SECTION 98. Section 72 of said chapter 171, as so appearing, is hereby repealed.
- SECTION 99. Said chapter 171 is hereby further amended by striking out section 73, as so appearing, and inserting in place thereof the following section:-
- Section 73. The board of directors may borrow money for and in behalf of the credit union.
- Said board may, if the credit union has a deposit or share account therein, borrow money for and on behalf of the credit union from a savings bank, cooperative bank, federal savings and loan association, national bank or trust company, entities determined by the commissioner or any federally-insured corporate credit unions; provided, however, that money borrowed from such institution is in an amount not exceeding said deposit or share account and is for a time not extending beyond the end of a 1 year period from the date on which the loan is made.
- SECTION 100. Section 74 of said chapter 171, as so appearing, is hereby amended by inserting, after the word "obtained;", in line 8, the following word:- and.

539 SECTION 101. Said section 74 of said chapter 171, as so appearing, is hereby further 540 amended by striking out clause (d).

541 SECTION 102. Said chapter 171 is hereby further amended by striking out section 75, as so appearing, and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

543 Section 75. A well capitalized or adequately capitalized credit union, as defined by 12 C.F.R. 702.102, may invest, in the aggregate, in any fixed assets in an amount not to exceed 5 544 545 percent of the credit union's shares and retained earnings without advance regulatory approval. 546 Included in such investments is the purchase, erection, or preparation of rental property in a reasonable amount; provided, however, that said rental property is necessary to complete said purchase, erection or preparation. The commissioner may waive these requirements. 548

A credit union may invest an amount to be approved by the commissioner, subject to such regulations, if any, as he may deem necessary, in a corporation or association formed for the purpose of furnishing to such credit union, or to other credit unions or banks as hereinafter provided, statistical or bookkeeping services or information of the kind generally required by a credit union. A credit union may also, in participation with any other credit union, bank or national banking association, invest its shares or deposits in such corporation or association, subject however to the same approval and regulation, if any, as above provided. The provisions of section 2 of chapter 167 shall apply to such corporations or associations. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to preclude a credit union from renting or subscribing for the services of such corporations or associations or any other corporation or association rendering such 559 services.

A credit union may purchase by itself or with other credit unions or banks, group life insurance on the lives of debtors who request such insurance. The premium for such insurance, or the premium on an individual life insurance policy held to cover the indebtedness, may be added to the payments required of those who elect to become insured. In the event of the death of any debtor so insured, the insurance proceeds shall be applied to reduce or extinguish the unpaid indebtedness to the extent of such payment.

No director, officer or employee of such credit union shall benefit financially, directly or indirectly from the sale of such insurance.

A credit union may purchase by itself or with a group of credit unions or banks, group accident and health insurance covering debtors of such credit union or group of credit unions if the debtors request such insurance. Such insurance shall cover all or part of the indebtedness of such debtors. The premium for such insurance or the premium on an individual accident and health insurance policy held to cover the indebtedness, may be added to the payments required of any such debtor who elects to become insured. No director, officer or employee of such credit union shall benefit financially, directly or indirectly, from the sale of such insurance.

A credit union may engage directly in the business of selling, issuing or registering checks, traveler's checks or money orders and may cash any check or money order whatsoever and may make charges for any of the foregoing.

A credit union may establish and maintain safe deposit vaults and rent boxes or storage space therein under conditions prescribed by the commissioner.

For the purposes of this section "safe deposit box" shall mean a box or safe in the vaults of any credit union; "lessee" shall mean the person in whose name a safe deposit box stands on the books of a credit union; and "rent" shall mean the amount due to a credit union for the rental or use of a safe deposit box.

A credit union which leases a safe deposit box for rent shall advise the lessee in writing that insurance coverage for the contents of such safe deposit box is not provided by such credit union, but that the lessee may, at his own expense, insure said contents with an insurance company of his own selection. The commissioner shall establish such rules and regulations as he deems necessary to carry out the provisions of this paragraph.

If the rent for a safe deposit box has not been paid for one year after being due, the credit union may mail, postage prepaid, to the lessee at his address shown on its books, a notice stating that if the rent for such safe deposit box is not paid within 60 days from the date of such notice, the credit union may cause such safe deposit box to be opened and the contents to be disposed of in accordance with the provisions of this section. Upon the expiration of 60 days from the date of such notice, if the lessee has failed to pay the rent for such safe deposit box in full to the date of such notice, all rights of the lessee in the safe deposit box and of access thereto shall cease and such credit union may, at any time thereafter in the presence of one of its officers and of a notary public not in the general employ of such credit union, cause such safe deposit box to be opened and such notary public shall remove the contents thereof, list the same and seal such contents in a package, marking thereon the name of the lessee and his address as shown on the books of the credit union. An affidavit setting forth the facts concerning the entry and listing the contents of the safe deposit box shall be signed by the officer and the notary public and shall be retained by the credit union. Such affidavit shall be prima facie evidence of the facts set forth therein in all proceedings at law and equity wherein evidence of such facts would be admissible.

604 The package containing the contents of any safe deposit box opened as aforesaid shall be retained on special deposit by the credit union subject to payment of rent due for such safe 605 deposit box, all expenses incurred in connection with opening such safe deposit box and charges 606 for the safekeeping of such package. If such package remains unclaimed for seven years and the 607 amounts due as above provided remain unpaid, the credit union may mail, postage prepaid, to the 608 609 person to whom, and at the address at which, the notice provided for above was mailed, a notice 610 stating that if such amounts shall not be paid within 60 days from the date of such notice, the 611 credit union will turn over the contents, less the rental charge, to the state treasurer as unclaimed 612 and abandoned property, to be held by him subject to the provisions of chapter two hundred A. The credit union may sell, assign or deliver so much of the contents of such package, at either public or private sale, as will enable it to realize such amount as will compensate such credit 614 union for said charges. 616 The affidavit required by this paragraph shall be in substantially the following form:— COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS 617 618 County of We, ___ an authorized official of ___ and ___ a notary public not in the general employ 619 of said credit union, hereby certify that on the ___ day ___ (insert year), we were present and 620 witnessed the forcible opening of Safe No. ___ leased in the name of ___ in the vaults of the ___ 621 622 office of said credit union; that the contents of said safe were removed, examined, listed and then enclosed in a package and sealed in our presence. We further certify that the following is a true 623 624 and complete list of all the contents removed from said safe.

- 684 (ii) Assumption of deposits, shares or liabilities as rollovers or transfers of member 685 retirement accounts or in which a federally-insured credit union perfects a security interest in 686 connection with an extension of credit to any member.
- (iii) Purchases of assets, including loans or mortgage loans, or assumptions of deposits, shares, or liabilities by any federally-insured credit union from another federally-insured credit union, except a purchase or assumption as a part of a merger or
- (iv) Purchases of loan or mortgage loan participations under this chapter.
- SECTION 113. Section 80A of said chapter 171, as so appearing, is hereby amended by striking out, in line 140, the words "secretary of state" and inserting in place thereof the following word:- commissioner.
- SECTION 114. Chapter 171 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by inserting after section 80B the following section:-
- Section 80C. (a) A savings bank governed by the provisions of chapter 168 or a cooperative bank governed by the provisions of chapter 170 may convert into a credit union subject to the provisions of this section. Any such conversion shall comply with all applicable federal laws and regulations.
- (b) A savings or cooperative bank that is at least adequately capitalized and has received at least a satisfactory rating in its most recent examination for compliance at the Community Reinvestment Act may submit a detailed plan of conversion approved by 2/3 vote of the entire board of directors to the commissioner. The commissioner may require changes and additions to the plan, including but not limited to, changes to any notices, disclosures, or communications, except as required by federal law or regulation. The commissioner may prescribe regulations for any savings or cooperative banks to covert to a credit union charter. Unless waived by the commissioner, the converting savings or cooperative bank shall prepare and submit to the commissioner a conversion plan which shall include, but not be limited to:

- 709 (1) A 3-year business plan which shall include performance financial statements 710 for the credit union;
- 711 (2) An estimated budget for conversion expenses;
- 712 (3) Financial statements for the most recently completed quarter;
- 713 (4) The manner in which the converting bank will comply with membership requirements 714 and divest itself of customers who do not meet credit union field-of-membership limitations;
- 715 (5) The manner in which the converting bank will convert its board to a voluntary non-716 paid structure and divest its board of stock options, if any;
- 717 (6) The manner in which the converting bank will divest its capital stock, if any;
- 718 (7) The manner in which the converting bank will divest impermissible 719 investments;
- 720 (8) The manner in which the converting bank will comply with branching, share 721 and deposit limitations;
- 722 (9) The manner in which the converting bank will comply with organizational 723 member and member business loan requirements under relevant state and federal provisions;

- 724 (10) A copy of materials forwarded to corporations or shareholders relative to 725 voting on the plan of conversion;
- 726 (11) The proposed amended and restated articles of organization and bylaws of the 727 converting bank;
- 728 (12) If applicable, the procedures and timing for conversion from federal deposit 729 insurance to federal share insurance;
- 730 (13) If applicable, the procedures and timing for changes in relevant state excess deposit 731 insurers; and
- 732 (14) Any other relevant information that the commissioner may reasonably require.
- 733 (c) The converting bank shall perform a complete policy review to address appraisal 734 restrictions, lending restrictions, investment restrictions, and corporate structure restrictions, in 735 order to ensure compliance with the provisions of this chapter and any relevant state or federal 736 credit union regulations.
- (d) Upon approval of a plan of charter conversion by the board of directors of the converting savings or cooperative bank, the conversion plan and certified copy of the resolution of the board of directors approving the conversion plan shall be submitted to the commissioner. Included with the plan shall be an information statement to be sent to corporators or shareholders which shall fully and fairly disclose all significant terms and steps to be taken for the conversion and shall include but not be limited to:
- 743 (1) a statement as to why the board is considering the conversion.

- 744 (2) a statement of the major positive and negative business effects of the proposed conversion.
- 746 (3) the impact on the corporators or shareholders financial and other interests in the 747 proposed credit union.
- 748 (4) a disclosure of any conversion related economic benefit a director or senior 749 management official may receive including receipt of or an increase in compensation.
- 750 (e) The commissioner may require changes to the plan of conversion and information 751 statement. The commissioner may also require any equitable disclosure he determines 752 applicable to the transaction. The commissioner may specify the form, type, timing and other 753 material aspects of the plan of reorganization and information statement to be sent to corporators 754 and shareholders.
- (f) The commissioner shall review the contents of the plan before the board presents the conversion plan for a vote. The commissioner shall approve the contents of the conversion plan and information statement only if the commissioner is satisfied of all of the following:
- 758 (1) The plan discloses information concerning the advantages and disadvantages 759 of the proposed conversion.
- 760 (2) The information statement discloses the impact on the corporators or shareholders 761 financial and other interests in the credit union.
- 762 (3) The conversion would not be made to circumvent a pending supervisory action that is 763 initiated by the commissioner or other regulatory agency because of a concern over the safety 764 and soundness of the savings or cooperative bank.

- (g) Upon approval of the contents of the conversion plan and information statement by the commissioner, the savings or cooperative bank shall call a special meeting of the corporators or shareholders to vote on the conversion plan. At least thirty days before the meeting, the savings or cooperative bank shall mail a notice of the meeting, the conversion plan and information statement to all corporators and shareholders.
- (h) The plan of conversion shall be approved by a majority vote of the shareholders or corporators voting. A shareholder or corporator may vote on the proposal to convert in person at the special meeting held on the date set for the vote or by ballot. The vote on the conversion proposal shall be by secret ballot and conducted by an independent entity. The independent entity shall be a company with experience in conducting corporate elections. A director of officer of the savings or cooperative bank, or an immediate family member of a director or officer, shall not have an ownership interest in, or be employed by the entity.
- 777 (i) An officer or director thereof shall not directly or indirectly give or offer or provide a 778 chance to win a lottery or anything of substantial value, as determined by the commissioner, to 779 the corporators or shareholders of the bank for an action related to the conversion to a credit 780 union or as an inducement to vote on the plan of conversion.
- (j) The provisions on notice to corporators or shareholders and voting procedures in this section shall govern the process for converting to a credit union notwithstanding other provisions of this chapter or a by-law of the converting savings or cooperative bank to the contrary.
- 784 (k) If the commissioner disapproves the methods by which the vote was taken or the 785 procedures applicable to the vote, the commissioner may direct that a new vote be taken. If the 786 commissioner does not disapprove of the methods by which the vote was taken within 10 days 787 after the notification is given, the vote shall be considered approved.

- (l) Certified copies of records of all proceedings held by the board of directors and corporators and shareholders of the savings or cooperative bank shall be filed with the commissioner.
- 791 (m) The commissioner may authorize a credit union resulting from a charter conversion 792 under this chapter to do the following:
- (1) Complete any activities that the converting bank legally engaged in at the effective time of the charter conversion but that otherwise are not permissible for credit unions; and
- 796 (2) Retain for a transitional period any assets that the converting bank legally held at the 797 effective time of the charter conversion that otherwise may not be held by credit unions.

- The terms and conditions of the completion of activities under subparagraph (1) and the retention of assets under subparagraph (2) of this paragraph are subject to the discretion of the commissioner. However, the transitional period during which activities may be carried out under subparagraph (1) or assets may be retained under subparagraph (2) may not exceed ten (10) years after the effective time of the charter conversion.
- n) If the conversion to a credit union is approved by the board of directors and the commissioner receives notification from the converting savings or cooperative bank that all approvals required under state and federal law and regulations, including required approvals for federal share insurance by the National Credit Union Administration have been obtained, that any waiting period prescribed by federal law has expired, that membership in the Massachusetts 808 Credit Union Share Insurance Corporation and of the share insurance fund thereof has been 809 obtained and that all applicable payments thereto have been made as determined by the commissioner, then a certificate to transact business shall be issued by the commissioner as 811 applicable. After receipt of the certificate to transact business, the converting savings or 812 cooperative bank shall promptly file such certificate and its articles of organization with the commissioner. Upon such filing, the charter of the converting savings or cooperative bank shall 813 814 automatically cease, and the converting bank shall cease to be a bank and shall become a credit 815 union. Upon such conversion, the converted credit union shall possess all the rights, privileges, and powers granted to it by its articles or organization and by the provisions of general statues 816 applicable to the type of credit union charter to which it converted. All of the assets and business 817 of the converting savings or cooperative bank shall transferred to and vested in it without any 819 deed or instrument of conveyance, provided the converting bank may execute any deed or 820 instrument of conveyance as is convenient to confirm such transfer. The converted credit union 821 shall be subject to all of the duties, relations, obligations, and liabilities of the converting bank, whether as debtor, depository, or otherwise, and shall be liable to pay and discharge all such 822 debts and liabilities, to perform all such duties in the same manner and to the same extent as if 824 the converted credit union had itself incurred the obligation or liability or assumed the duty or 825 relation. All rights of the credits of the converting savings or cooperative bank shall be 826 preserved unimpaired, and the converted credit union shall be entitled to receive, collect, accept, hold, and enjoy any and all gifts, bequests, devises, conveyances, and appointments in favor of or 827 828 in the name of the converting savings or cooperative bank and whether made or created to take effect prior to or after the conversion.

(o) A person who willfully violates the disclosure provisions of this section knowing the disclosures made to be false or misleading in a material respect shall upon conviction be fined not more than $5,000 or imprisoned not more than 3 years, or both.

Section 82. Credit unions may form the Credit Union Employees Retirement Association, in this section and in sections 83 and 84 called the association, for the purpose of providing retirement or deferred compensation benefit services through plans that are qualified under sections 401, 408 or 457 of the federal Internal Revenue Code to employees of credit unions established under the laws of the commonwealth and which are members of the association and to their customers. Any bank or credit union chartered by the commonwealth, any such bank or credit union which has converted to federal charter and has its main office located in the commonwealth, any bank or credit union chartered by the federal government, by a state of the United States other than the commonwealth or by the District of Columbia and which has its main office or a branch office located in the commonwealth or in Maine, Vermont, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, or Connecticut, the Massachusetts Credit Union League, Inc., and its successors, the Massachusetts Credit Union Share Insurance Corporation, and other banking or credit union institutions with their main office or any branch office located in the commonwealth, as may from time to time be provided for in the by-laws of the association, and the respective employees of each of the foregoing, shall be eligible for membership in the association; provided, however, that no bank that was eligible to be a member of the association before January 1, 2004, shall be eligible to become a member of the Cooperative Banks Employees Retirement Association or the Savings Banks Employees Retirement Association unless and until the Cooperative Banks Employees Retirement Association and the Savings

Banks Employees Retirement Association permits a member to transfer from any or all of the qualified plans provided by said association, assets and liabilities, attributed to the member's employees, to 1 or more qualified plans not provided by said association. For the purpose of this section and sections 83 and 84, a reference to "credit union" or "credit unions" shall, unless the context otherwise requires, mean and include any or all of the organizations named or referred to in this paragraph, a reference to "directors of a credit union" shall, unless the context otherwise requires, mean and include the governing body of each member organization, and reference to "customer" shall mean any person or business who has established a contractual relationship for banking business purposes with any credit union located in the commonwealth which is a member of the association.

Eligible employees may contribute a portion of their compensation and a credit union may contribute to the extent determined by its governing body; provided, however, that all such contributions shall not exceed the limits of the applicable section of the federal Internal Revenue Code.

The funds contributed by participating credit unions and their employees shall be held or used by the trustees of the association for the provision of retirement and deferred compensation benefits, including pre-retirement, post-retirement cost-of-living adjustment, death, and disability benefits incident thereto, in all cases subject to the limits of the applicable section of the federal Internal Revenue Code. Expenses necessary for the administration of the association shall be paid by participating members as provided in the by-laws of the association. The association shall annually provide to each member a report of assets and liabilities attributable to its participants in any or all qualified plans adopted by a member.

A credit union providing retirement benefits to its employees through a plan offered by a provider of plans other than the association, which shall be a qualified plan under 26 U.S.C. section 401, 408 or 457, shall file with the commissioner such reports as the commissioner may from time-to-time require.

SECTION 116. Said chapter 171 is hereby further amended by striking out section 83 as so appearing, and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

882 Section 83. The by-laws of the association shall be submitted to the commissioner and 883 shall prescribe the manner in which, and the officers and agents by whom, the association may 884 be conducted and the manner in which its funds may be invested and paid out. Such association shall be formed when its by-laws have been approved and agreed to by a majority of the 885 886 directors of each of 15 or more credit unions and have been approved by the commissioner. The 887 association shall provide to the commissioner such statements of the membership and financial 888 transactions association as the commissioner may from time-to-time require. The commissioner 889 may verify any such statement by an examination of the books and papers of the association.

The association shall not be subject to chapter 32 or chapter 175 or to such other provisions of law as relate to insurance companies or other retirement associations.
