An Act relative to homeowners' fire insurance policies.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Section 193P of chapter 175 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2014 Official 2 Edition, is hereby amended by striking the first paragraph and inserting in place thereof the 3 following new text:

4 "No insurance company shall cancel or non-renew a fire insurance policy without good
5 cause. Except as otherwise specifically provided in this chapter, no policy providing protection 6 against loss by reason of fire to a dwelling or contents thereof shall be issued unless it contains a 7 provision that the insurer will give written notice of its intent not to renew or reissue a policy to 8 the insured at least sixty days prior to the expiration of the policy which notice shall state or be 9 accompanied by a detailed explanation of such decision. The explanation shall include the 10 reasons for the policy non-renewal or cancellation and measures the insured may take to mitigate

- 11 such reasons. In a manor not otherwise inconsistent with the general laws, The Division of
- 12 Insurance shall promulgate regulations herein under to enforce the provisions of this act.”
