The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Thirteen

An Act to promote higher education among employees of human services provider organizations.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 15A of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2010 Official
2 Edition, is hereby amended by inserting after Section 19E the following new section:-

3 Section 19 F. The board of higher education, in exercising its powers under section 4 of 4 Chapter 15A shall by no later than 180 after the effective date of this act establish a program of 5 tuition remission pursuant to which persons employed by providers of social services programs
6 that hold contracts with the commonwealth, and spouses of those persons, are provided tuition 7 remission benefits for courses or programs taken at any public community college or state
8 college or the University of Massachusetts. Tuition remission benefits provided to such persons 9 and their spouses shall be on parity, as nearly as possible, with tuition remission benefits 10 provided to employees of the commonwealth and their spouses. For purposes of this act, the 11 term "social services programs" shall have the meaning specified in section 274 of chapter 110
12 of the acts of 1993, as amended. In developing such programs of tuition remission benefits, the 13 board of higher education and the administrator of the current tuition remission program

14 operated by the Massachusetts Council of Human Services Providers, Inc. shall consult with the 15 secretary of health and human services and the secretary of elder affairs.
