In the Year Two Thousand Thirteen

An Act relating to assault and battery on public employees.

Whereas, The deferred operation of this act would tend to defeat its purpose, which is to protect public and health care workers from being inhibited in their duties due to assault and battery, therefore, it is hereby declared to be an emergency law, necessary for the immediate preservation of the public convenience.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1           Sections 13D and 13I of Chapter 265 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2010
2 Official Edition, are hereby amended by inserting after the final sentence in each section, the
3 following sentence:-

4           Any officer authorized to make arrests may arrest without a warrant any person who the
5 officer has probable cause to believe has committed the above offense and may keep said person
6 in custody for not more than 24 hours, or until the next sitting of the court, during which period
7 the officer shall seek the issuance of a complaint and request a bail determination.
