1 SECTION 1. The General Laws as appearing in the 2012 Official Edition are hereby
2 amended by inserting after Chapter 208 the following new chapter:-

3 Chapter 208A

4 ARTICLE 1

5 GENERAL PROVISIONS

6 SECTION 101. SHORT TITLE. This Act may be cited as the Uniform Child-Custody
7 Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act.

8 SECTION 102. DEFINITIONS. In this Act:

9 (1) "Abandoned" means left without provision for reasonable and necessary care or 10 supervision.

11 (2) "Child" means an individual who has not attained 18 years of age.

12 (3) "Child-custody determination" means a judgment, decree, or other order of a court
13 providing for the legal custody, physical custody, or visitation with respect to a child. The term 14 includes a permanent, temporary, initial, and modification order. The term does not include an 15 order relating to child support or other monetary obligation of an individual.

16 (4) "Child-custody proceeding" means a proceeding in which legal custody, physical 17 custody, or visitation with respect to a child is an issue. The term includes a proceeding for 18 divorce, separation, neglect, abuse, dependency, guardianship, paternity, termination of parental 19 rights, and protection from domestic violence, in which the issue may appear. The term does not 20 include a proceeding involving juvenile delinquency, contractual emancipation, or enforcement
21 under Article 3.

22 (5) "Commencement" means the filing of the first pleading in a proceeding.

23 (6) "Court" means an entity authorized under the law of a State to establish, enforce, or 24 modify a child-custody determination.

25 (7) "Home State" means the State in which a child lived with a parent or a person acting 26 as a parent for at least six consecutive months immediately before the commencement of a child-
27 custody proceeding. In the case of a child less than six months of age, the term means the State
28 in which the child lived from birth with any of the persons mentioned. A period of temporary 29 absence of any of the mentioned persons is part of the period.

30 (8) "Initial determination" means the first child-custody determination concerning a 31 particular child.

32 (9) "Issuing court" means the court that makes a child-custody determination for which 33 enforcement is sought under this Act.

34 (10) "Issuing State" means the State in which a child-custody determination is made.

35 (11) "Modification" means a child-custody determination that changes, replaces,
36 supersedes, or is otherwise made after a previous determination concerning the same child, 37 whether or not it is made by the court that made the previous determination.

38 (12) "Person" includes government, governmental subdivision, agency, or 39 instrumentality, or any other legal or commercial entity.

40 (13) "Person acting as a parent" means a person, other than a parent, who:

41 (A) has physical custody of the child or has had physical custody for a period of six 42 consecutive months, including any temporary absence, within one year immediately before the 43 commencement of a child-custody proceeding; and

44 (B) has been awarded legal custody by a court or claims a right to legal custody under the 45 law of this State.

46 (14) "Physical custody" means the physical care and supervision of a child.

47 (15) "State" means a State of the United States, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the 48 United States Virgin Islands, or any territory or insular possession subject to the jurisdiction of 49 the United States.

50 (16) "Tribe" means an Indian tribe, or band, or Alaskan Native village, which is 51 recognized by federal law or formally acknowledged by a State.

52 (17) "Warrant" means an order issued by a court authorizing law enforcement officers to 53 take physical custody of a child.

54 SECTION 103. PROCEEDINGS GOVERNED BY OTHER LAW. This Act does not 55 govern:

56 (1) An adoption proceeding; or

57 (2) A proceeding pertaining to the authorization of emergency medical care for a child.

58 SECTION 104. APPLICATION TO INDIAN TRIBES.

59 (a) A child-custody proceeding that pertains to an Indian child as defined in the Indian
60 Child Welfare Act, 25 U.S.C. 1901 et seq., is not subject to this Act to the extent it is governed 61 by the Indian Child Welfare Act.

62 (b) A court of this State shall treat a tribe as a State of the United States for purposes of 63 Articles 1 and 2.

64 (c) A child-custody determination made by a tribe under factual circumstances in 65 substantial conformity with the jurisdictional standards of this Act must be recognized and 66 enforced under the provisions of Article 3.

67 SECTION 105. INTERNATIONAL APPLICATION OF ACT.

68 (a) A court of this State shall treat a foreign country as a State of the United States for 69 purposes of applying Articles 1 and 2.

70 (b) A child-custody determination made in a foreign country under factual circumstances
71 in substantial conformity with the jurisdictional standards of this Act must be recognized and 72 enforced under Article 3 of this Act.

73 (c) The court need not apply the provisions of this Act when the child custody law of the 74 other country violates fundamental principles of human rights.

75 SECTION 106. BINDING FORCE OF CHILD-CUSTODY DETERMINATION. A
76 child-custody determination made by a court of this State that had jurisdiction under this Act
77 binds all persons who have been served in accordance with the laws of this State or notified in 78 accordance with Section 108 or who have submitted to the jurisdiction of the court, and who 79 have been given an opportunity to be heard. The determination is conclusive as to them as to all 80 decided issues of law and fact except to the extent the determination is modified.

81 SECTION 107. PRIORITY. If a question of existence or exercise of jurisdiction under 82 this Act is raised in a child-custody proceeding, the question, upon request of a party, must be 83 given priority on the calendar and handled expeditiously.

84 SECTION 108. NOTICE TO PERSONS OUTSIDE STATE.

85 (a) Notice required for the exercise of jurisdiction when a person is outside this State may 86 be given in a manner prescribed by the law of this State for the service of process or by the law
87 of the State in which the service is made. Notice must be given in a manner reasonably 88 calculated to give actual notice, but may be by publication if other means are not effective.

89 (b) Proof of service may be made in the manner prescribed by the law of this State or by 90 the law of the State in which the service is made.

91 (c) Notice is not required for the exercise of jurisdiction with respect to a person who 92 submits to the jurisdiction of the court.

93 SECTION 109. APPEARANCE AND LIMITED IMMUNITY.

94 (a) A party to a child-custody proceeding who is not subject to personal jurisdiction in 95 this State and is a responding party under Article 2, a party in a proceeding to modify a child-
96 custody determination under Article 2, or a petitioner in a proceeding to enforce or register a
97 child-custody determination under Article 3 may appear and participate in the proceeding
98 without submitting to personal jurisdiction over the party for another proceeding or purpose.

99 (b) A party is not subject to personal jurisdiction in this State solely by being physically
100 present for the purpose of participating in a proceeding under this Act. If a party is subject to 101 personal jurisdiction in this State on a basis other than physical presence, the party may be 102 served with process in this State. If a party present in this State is subject to the jurisdiction of 103 another State, service of process allowable under the laws of that State may be accomplished in 104 this State.

105 (c) The immunity granted by this section does not extend to civil litigation based on acts
106 unrelated to the participation in a proceeding under this Act committed by an individual while 107 present in this State.

108 SECTION 110. COMMUNICATION BETWEEN COURTS.

109 (a) A court of this State may communicate with a court in another State concerning a 110 proceeding arising under this Act.

111 (b) The court may allow the parties to participate in the communication. If the parties are 112 not able to participate in the communication, the parties shall be given the opportunity to present 113 facts and legal arguments before a decision on jurisdiction is made.

114 (c) A communication between courts on schedules, calendars, court records, and similar 115 matters may occur without informing the parties. A record need not be made of that 116 communication.

117 (d) Except as provided in subsection (c), a record must be made of the communication.
118 The parties must be informed promptly of the communication and granted access to the record.

119 (e) For the purposes of this section, "record" means information that is inscribed on a 120 tangible medium or that which is stored in an electronic or other medium and is retrievable in 121 perceivable form. A record includes notes or transcripts of a court reporter who listened to a 122 conference call between the courts, an electronic recording of a telephone call, a memorandum or 123 an electronic record of the communication between the courts, or a memorandum or an 124 electronic record made by a court after the communication.

125 SECTION 111. TAKING TESTIMONY IN ANOTHER STATE.

126 (a) In addition to other procedures available to a party, a party to a child- custody
127 proceeding may offer testimony of witnesses who are located in another State, including 128 testimony of the parties and the child, by deposition or other means allowable in this State for 129 testimony taken in another State. The court on its own motion may order that the testimony of a 130 person be taken in another State and may prescribe the manner in which and the terms upon 131 which the testimony is taken.

132 (b) A court of this State may permit an individual residing in another State to be deposed
133 or to testify by telephone, audiovisual means, or other electronic means before a designated court
134 or at another location in that State. A court of this State shall cooperate with courts of other 135 States in designating an appropriate location for the deposition or testimony.

136 (c) Documentary evidence transmitted from another State to a court of this State by 137 technological means that do not produce an original writing may not be excluded from evidence 138 on an objection based on the means of transmission.

139 SECTION 112. COOPERATION BETWEEN COURTS; PRESERVATION OF 140 RECORDS.

141 (a) A court of this State may request the appropriate court of another State to:

142 (1) hold an evidentiary hearing;

143 (2) order a person to produce or give evidence under procedures of that State;

144 (3) order that an evaluation be made with respect to the custody of a child involved in a 145 pending proceeding;

146 (4) forward to the court of this State a certified copy of the transcript of the record of the 147 hearing, the evidence otherwise presented, and any evaluation prepared in compliance with the 148 request; and

149 (5) order a party to a child-custody proceeding or any person having physical custody of 150 the child to appear in the proceeding with or without the child.

151 (b) Upon request of a court of another State, a court of this State may hold a hearing or 152 enter an order described in subsection (a).

153 (c) Travel and other necessary and reasonable expenses incurred under subsections (a)
154 and (b) may be assessed against the parties according to the law of this State.

155 (d) A court of this State shall preserve the pleadings, orders, decrees, records of hearings,
156 evaluations, and other pertinent records with respect to a child-custody proceeding until the child 157 attains 18 years of age. Upon appropriate request by a court or law enforcement official of 158 another State, the court shall forward a certified copy of these records.

159 ARTICLE 2

160 JURISDICTION

161 SECTION 201. INITIAL CHILD-CUSTODY JURISDICTION.

162 (a) Except as otherwise provided in Section 204, a court of this State has jurisdiction to 163 make an initial child-custody determination only if:

164 (1) this State is the home State of the child on the date of the commencement of the 165 proceeding, or was the home State of the child within six months before the commencement of 166 the proceeding and the child is absent from this State but a parent or person acting as a parent
167 continues to live in this State;

168 (2) a court of another State does not have jurisdiction under paragraph (1), or a court of 169 the home State of the child has declined to exercise jurisdiction on the ground that this State is 170 the more appropriate forum under Section 207 or 208, and:(A) the child and the child's parents,

171 or the child and at least one parent or a person acting as a parent have a significant connection
172 with this State other than mere physical presence; and

173 (B) substantial evidence is available in this State concerning the child's care, protection,
174 training, and personal relationships;

175 (3) all courts having jurisdiction under paragraph (1) or (2) have declined to exercise
176 jurisdiction on the ground that a court of this State is the more appropriate forum to determine 177 the custody of the child under Section 207 or 208; or 178 (4) no State would have jurisdiction under paragraph (1), (2), or (3).

179 (b) Subsection (a) is the exclusive jurisdictional basis for making a child- custody
180 determination by a court of this State.

181 (c) Physical presence of, or personal jurisdiction over, a party or a child is neither 182 necessary nor sufficient to make a child-custody determination.

183 SECTION 202. EXCLUSIVE, CONTINUING JURISDICTION.

184 (a) Except as otherwise provided in Section 204, a court of this State that has made a
185 child-custody determination consistent with Section 201 or 203 has exclusive, continuing 186 jurisdiction over the determination until:

187 (1) a court of this State determines that neither the child, the child and one parent, nor the 188 child and a person acting as a parent have a significant connection with this State and that 189 substantial evidence is no longer available in this State concerning the child's care, protection, 190 training, and personal relationships; or

191 (2) a court of this State or a court of another State determines that neither the child, nor a 192 parent, nor any person acting as a parent presently resides in this State; or

193 (3) the court finds that a parent or person acting as a parent who resides in Massachusetts
194 has engaged in a serious incident or pattern of abuse as defined by c. 208, §28A against the other 195 parent or person acting as a parent, or against a child who is the subject of the proceeding. If the 196 court so finds, it shall be presumed that this state does not have continuing, exclusive jurisdiction 197 over the determination unless the victim or the victim's custodial parent or guardian consents to 198 continuing, exclusive jurisdiction; or

199 (4) the parties mutually agree in writing that this state shall no longer have continuing, 200 exclusive jurisdiction and said agreement has been approved by the court.

201 (b) A court of this State that has exclusive, continuing jurisdiction under this section may 202 decline to exercise its jurisdiction if the court determines that it is an inconvenient forum under 203 Section 207.

204 (c) A court of this State that has made a child-custody determination and does not have 205 exclusive, continuing jurisdiction under this section may modify that determination only if it has 206 jurisdiction to make an initial determination under Section 201.

207 SECTION 203. JURISDICTION TO MODIFY CHILD CUSTODY

208 DETERMINATION. Except as otherwise provided in Section 204, a court of this State may not 209 modify a child-custody determination made by a court of another State unless a court of this 210 State has jurisdiction to make an initial determination under Section 201(a)(1) or (2) and:

211 (1) the court of the other State determines it no longer has exclusive, continuing
212 jurisdiction under Section 202 or that a court of this State would be a more convenient forum
213 under Section 207;

214 (2) a court of this State or a court of the other State determines that neither the child, nor 215 a parent, nor any person acting as a parent presently resides in the other State; or

216 (3) the parents or all persons acting as parents have mutually agreed in writing that this 217 state shall have the authority to modify a determination and such agreement has been approved 218 by the court.

219 SECTION 204. TEMPORARY EMERGENCY JURISDICTION.

220 (a) A court of this State has temporary emergency jurisdiction if the child is present in 221 this State and the child has been abandoned or it is necessary in an emergency to protect the child 222 because the child, or a sibling or parent of the child, is subjected to or threatened with 223 mistreatment or abuse.

224 (b) If there is no previous child-custody determination that is entitled to be enforced
225 under this Act, and if no child-custody proceeding has been commenced in a court of a State
226 having jurisdiction under Sections 201 through 203, a child-custody determination made under 227 this section remains in effect until an order is obtained from a court of a State having jurisdiction
228 under Sections 201 through 203. If a child-custody proceeding has not been or is not commenced
229 in a court of a State having jurisdiction under Sections 201 through 203, a child-custody 230 determination made under this section becomes a final determination, if:

231 (1) it so provides; and

232 (2) this State becomes the home State of the child.

233 (c) If there is a previous child-custody determination that is entitled to be enforced under 234 this Act, or a child-custody proceeding has been commenced in a court of a State having 235 jurisdiction under Sections 201 through 203, any order issued by a court of this State under this 236 section must specify in the order a period of time which the court considers adequate to allow the 237 person seeking an order to obtain an order from the State having jurisdiction under Sections 201
238 through 203. The order issued in this State remains in effect until an order is obtained from the 239 other State within the period specified or the period expires.

240 (d) A court of this State that has been asked to make a child-custody determination under 241 this section, upon being informed that a child-custody proceeding has been commenced, or a 242 child-custody determination has been made, by a court of a State having jurisdiction under 243 Sections 201 through 203, shall immediately communicate with the other court. A court of this 244 State that is exercising jurisdiction pursuant to Sections 201 through 203, upon being informed 245 that a child-custody proceeding has been commenced, or a child-custody determination has been 246 made by a court of another State under a statute similar to this section shall immediately 247 communicate with the court of that State. The purpose of the communication is to resolve the 248 emergency, protect the safety of the parties and the child, and determine a period for the duration
249 of the temporary order.

250 SECTION 205. NOTICE; OPPORTUNITY TO BE HEARD; JOINDER.

251 (a) Before a child-custody determination is made under this Act, notice and an 252 opportunity to be heard in accordance with the standards of Section 108 must be given to all 253 persons entitled to notice under the law of this State as in child-custody proceedings between

254 residents of this State, any parent whose parental rights have not been previously terminated, and 255 any person having physical custody of the child.

256 (b) This Act does not govern the enforceability of a child-custody determination made 257 without notice and an opportunity to be heard.

258 (c) The obligation to join a party and the right to intervene as a party in a child-custody
259 proceeding under this Act are governed by the law of this State as in child-custody proceedings
260 between residents of this State.

261 SECTION 206. SIMULTANEOUS PROCEEDINGS.

262 (a) Except as otherwise provided in Section 204, a court of this State may not exercise its 263 jurisdiction under this Article if, at the time of the commencement of the proceeding, a 264 proceeding concerning the custody of the child had been previously commenced in a court of 265 another State having jurisdiction substantially in conformity with this Act, unless the proceeding
266 has been terminated or is stayed by the court of the other State because a court of this State is a 267 more convenient forum under Section 207.

268 (b) Except as otherwise provided in Section 204, a court of this State, before hearing a 269 child-custody proceeding, shall examine the court documents and other information supplied by 270 the parties pursuant to Section 209. If the court determines that a child-custody proceeding was 271 previously commenced in a court in another State having jurisdiction substantially in accordance 272 with this Act, the court of this State shall stay its proceeding and communicate with the court of 273 the other State. If the court of the State having jurisdiction substantially in accordance with this 274 Act does not determine that the court of this State is a more appropriate forum, the court of this 275 State shall dismiss the proceeding.

276 (c) In a proceeding to modify a child-custody determination, a court of this State shall 277 determine whether a proceeding to enforce the determination has been commenced in another
278 State. If a proceeding to enforce a child-custody determination has been commenced in another 279 State, the court may:

280 (1) stay the proceeding for modification pending the entry of an order of a court of the 281 other State enforcing, staying, denying, or dismissing the proceeding for enforcement;

282 (2) enjoin the parties from continuing with the proceeding for enforcement; or 283 (3) proceed with the modification under conditions it considers appropriate.

284 SECTION 207. INCONVENIENT FORUM.

285 (a) A court of this State that has jurisdiction under this Act to make a child-custody 286 determination may decline to exercise its jurisdiction at any time if it determines that it is an 287 inconvenient forum under the circumstances and that a court of another State is a more 288 appropriate forum. The issue of inconvenient forum may be raised upon the court's own motion, 289 request of another court, or motion of a party.

290 (b) Before determining whether it is an inconvenient forum, a court of this State shall 291 consider whether it is appropriate that a court of another State exercise jurisdiction. For this 292 purpose, the court shall allow the parties to submit information and shall consider all relevant 293 factors, including:

294 (1) whether domestic violence has occurred and is likely to continue in the future and 295 which State could best protect the parties and the child;

296 (2) the length of time the child has resided outside this State;

297 (3) the distance between the court in this State and the court in the State that would 298 assume jurisdiction;

299 (4) the relative financial circumstances of the parties and the effect of such circumstance
300 on the ability to litigate in a foreign jurisdiction;

301 (5) any agreement of the parties as to which State should assume jurisdiction;

302 (6) the nature and location of the evidence required to resolve the pending litigation,
303 including the testimony of the child;

304 (7) the ability of the court of each State to decide the issue expeditiously and the 305 procedures necessary to present the evidence; and

306 (8) the familiarity of the court of each State with the facts and issues of the pending 307 litigation.

308 (c) If a court of this State determines that it is an inconvenient forum and that a court of 309 another State is a more appropriate forum, it shall stay the proceedings upon condition that a
310 child-custody proceeding be promptly commenced in another designated State and may impose 311 any other condition the court considers just and proper.

312 (d) A court of this State may decline to exercise its jurisdiction under this Act if a child-313 custody determination is incidental to an action for divorce or another proceeding while still 314 retaining jurisdiction over the divorce or other proceeding.

315 SECTION 208. JURISDICTION DECLINED BY REASON OF CONDUCT.

316 (a) Except as otherwise provided in Section 204 or by other law of this State, if a court of 317 this State has jurisdiction under this Act because a person invoking the jurisdiction has engaged 318 in unjustifiable conduct, the court shall decline to exercise its jurisdiction unless:

319 (1) the parents and all persons acting as parents have acquiesced in the exercise of 320 jurisdiction;

321 (2) a court of the State otherwise having jurisdiction under Sections 201 through 203
322 determines that this State is a more appropriate forum under Section 207; or 323 (3) no other State would have jurisdiction under Sections 201 through 203.

324 (b) If a court of this State declines to exercise its jurisdiction pursuant to subsection (a), it 325 may fashion an appropriate remedy to ensure the safety of the child and prevent a repetition of 326 the wrongful conduct, including staying the proceeding until a child-custody proceeding is 327 commenced in a court having jurisdiction under Sections 201 through 203.

328 (c) If a court dismisses a petition or stays a proceeding because it declines to exercise its 329 jurisdiction pursuant to subsection (a), it shall charge the party invoking the jurisdiction of the 330 court with necessary and reasonable expenses including costs, communication expenses,
331 attorney's fees, investigative fees, expenses for witnesses, travel expenses, and child care during 332 the course of the proceedings, unless the party from whom fees are sought establishes that the 333 award would be clearly inappropriate. The court may not assess fees, costs, or expenses against 334 this State except as otherwise provided by law other than this Act.

335 SECTION 209. INFORMATION TO BE SUBMITTED TO COURT.

336 (a) Subject to local law providing for the confidentiality of procedures, addresses, and 337 other identifying information, in a child-custody proceeding, each party, in its first pleading or in 338 an attached affidavit, shall give information, if reasonably ascertainable, under oath as to the 339 child's present address, the places where the child has lived during the last five years, and the 340 names and present addresses of the persons with whom the child has lived during that period.
341 The pleading or affidavit must state whether the party:

342 (1) has participated, as a party or witness or in any other capacity, in any other 343 proceeding concerning the custody of or visitation with the child and, if so, identify the court, the 344 case number of the proceeding, and the date of the child-custody determination, if any;

345 (2) knows of any proceeding that could affect the current proceeding, including 346 proceedings for enforcement and proceedings relating to domestic violence, protective orders,
347 termination of parental rights, and adoptions and, if so, identify the court and the case number 348 and the nature of the proceeding; and

349 (3) knows the names and addresses of any person not a party to the proceeding who has 350 physical custody of the child or claims rights of legal custody or physical custody of, or 351 visitation with, the child and, if so, the names and addresses of those persons.

352 (b) If the information required by subsection (a) is not furnished, the court, upon its own 353 motion or that of a party, may stay the proceeding until the information is furnished.

354 (c) If the declaration as to any of the items described in subsection (a)(1) through (3) is in 355 the affirmative, the declarant shall give additional information under oath as required by the 356 court. The court may examine the parties under oath as to details of the information furnished 357 and other matters pertinent to the court's jurisdiction and the disposition of the case.

358 (d) Each party has a continuing duty to inform the court of any proceeding in this or any 359 other State that could affect the current proceeding.

360 (e) If a party alleges in an affidavit or a pleading under oath that the health, safety, or 361 liberty of a party or child would be put at risk by the disclosure of identifying information, that 362 information shall be sealed and not disclosed to the other party or the public unless the court 363 orders the disclosure to be made after a hearing in which the court takes into consideration the 364 health, safety, or liberty of the party or child and determines that the disclosure is in the interest 365 of justice.

366 SECTION 210. APPEARANCE OF PARTIES AND CHILD.

367 (a) A court of this State may order a party to a child-custody proceeding who is in this 368 State to appear before the court personally with or without the child. The court may order any 369 person who is in this State and who has physical custody or control of the child to appear 370 physically with the child.

371 (b) If a party to a child-custody proceeding whose presence is desired by the court is 372 outside this State, the court may order that a notice given pursuant to Section 108 include a 373 statement directing the party to appear personally with or without the child and declaring that 374 failure to appear may result in a decision adverse to the party.

375 (c) The court may enter any orders necessary to ensure the safety of the child and of any 376 person ordered to appear under this section.

377 (d) If a party to a child-custody proceeding who is outside this State is directed to appear 378 under subsection (b) or desires to appear personally before the court with or without the child,

379 the court may require another party to pay reasonable and necessary travel and other expenses of 380 the party so appearing and of the child.

381 ARTICLE 3

382 ENFORCEMENT

383 SECTION 301. DEFINITIONS. In this Article:

384 (1) "Petitioner" means a person who seeks enforcement of a child-custody determination
385 or enforcement of an order for the return of the child under the Hague Convention on the Civil 386 Aspects of International Child Abduction.

387 (2) "Respondent" means a person against whom a proceeding has been commenced for 388 enforcement of a child-custody determination or enforcement of an order for the return of the 389 child under the Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction.

390 SECTION 302. SCOPE; TEMPORARY VISITATION.

391 (a) This Article may be invoked to enforce:

392 (1) a child-custody determination; and

393 (2) an order for the return of the child made under the Hague Convention on the Civil 394 Aspects of International Child Abduction.

395 (b) A court of this State which does not have jurisdiction to modify a child-custody
396 determination, may issue a temporary order enforcing

397 (1) a visitation schedule made by a court of another State; or

398 (2) the visitation provisions of a child-custody determination of another State that does 399 not provide for a specific visitation schedule.

400 (c) If a court of this State makes an order under subparagraph (b)(2), it shall specify in the 401 order a period of time which it considers adequate to allow the person seeking the order to obtain 402 an order from the State having jurisdiction under Article 2. The order remains in effect until an 403 order is obtained from the other State or the period expires.

404 SECTION 303. DUTY TO ENFORCE.

405 (a) A court of this State shall recognize and enforce a child-custody determination of a
406 court of another State if the latter court exercised jurisdiction that was in substantial conformity
407 with this Act or the determination was made under factual circumstances meeting the 408 jurisdictional standards of this Act and the determination has not been modified in accordance 409 with this Act.

410 (b) A court may utilize any remedy available under other law of this State to enforce a 411 child-custody determination made by a court of another State. The procedure provided by this 412 Article does not affect the availability of other remedies to enforce a child-custody
413 determination.

414 SECTION 304. REGISTRATION OF CHILD-CUSTODY DETERMINATION.

415 (a) A child-custody determination issued by a court of another State may be registered in 416 this State, with or without a simultaneous request for enforcement, by sending to the appropriate
417 court in this State:

418 (1) a letter or other document requesting registration;

419 (2) two copies, including one certified copy, of the determination sought to be registered, 420 and a statement under penalty of perjury that to the best of the knowledge and belief of the 421 person seeking registration the order has not been modified; and

422 (3) except as otherwise provided in Section 209, the name and address of the person 423 seeking registration and any parent or person acting as a parent who has been awarded custody or 424 visitation in the child-custody determination sought to be registered.

425 (b) On receipt of the documents required by subsection (a), the registering court shall:

426 (1) cause the determination to be filed as a foreign judgment, together with one copy of 427 any accompanying documents and information, regardless of their form; and

428 (2) serve notice upon the persons named pursuant to (a)(3) and provide them with an 429 opportunity to contest the registration in accordance with this section.

430 (c) The notice required by subsection (b)(2) must state:

431 (1) that a registered determination is enforceable as of the date of the registration in the 432 same manner as a determination issued by a court of this State;

433 (2) that a hearing to contest the validity of the registered determination must be requested 434 within 20 days after service of notice; and

435 (3) that failure to contest the registration will result in confirmation of the child-custody 436 determination and preclude further contest of that determination with respect to any matter that 437 could have been asserted.

438 (d) A person seeking to contest the validity of a registered order must request a hearing
439 within 20 days after service of the notice. At that hearing, the court shall confirm the registered 440 order unless the person contesting registration establishes that:

441 (1) the issuing court did not have jurisdiction under Article 2;

442 (2) the child-custody determination sought to be registered has been vacated, stayed, or 443 modified by a court of a State having jurisdiction to do so under Article 2; or

444 (3) the person contesting registration was entitled to notice, but notice was not given in 445 accordance with the standards of Section 108 in the proceedings before the court that issued the 446 order for which registration is sought.

447 (e) If a timely request for a hearing to contest the validity of the registration is not made,
448 the registration is confirmed as a matter of law and the person requesting registration and all 449 persons served must be notified of the confirmation.

450 (f) Confirmation of a registered order, whether by operation of law or after notice and 451 hearing, precludes further contest of the order with respect to any matter which could have been 452 asserted at the time of registration.

453 SECTION 305. ENFORCEMENT OF REGISTERED DETERMINATION.

454 (a) A court of this State may grant any relief normally available under the law of this 455 State to enforce a registered child-custody determination made by a court of another State.

456 (b) A court of this State shall recognize and enforce, but may not modify except in 457 accordance with Article 2, a registered child-custody determination of another State.

458 SECTION 306. SIMULTANEOUS PROCEEDINGS. If a proceeding for enforcement
459 under this Article has been or is commenced in this State and a court of this State determines that 460 a proceeding to modify the determination has been commenced in another State having 461 jurisdiction to modify the determination under Article 2, the enforcing court shall immediately 462 communicate with the modifying court. The proceeding for enforcement continues unless the 463 enforcing court, after consultation with the modifying court, stays or dismisses the proceeding.

464 SECTION 307. EXPEDITED ENFORCEMENT OF CHILD-CUSTODY
465 DETERMINATION.

466 (a) A petition under this Article must be verified. Certified copies of all orders sought to 467 be enforced and of the order confirming registration, if any, must be attached to the petition. A 468 copy of a certified copy of an order may be attached instead of the original.

469 (b) A petition for enforcement of a child-custody determination must state:

470 (1) whether the court that issued the determination identified the jurisdictional basis it 471 relied upon in exercising jurisdiction and, if so, what the basis was;

472 (2) whether the determination for which enforcement is sought has been vacated, stayed,
473 or modified by a court whose decision must be enforced under this Act or federal law and, if so,
474 identify the court, the case number of the proceeding, and the action taken;

475 (3) whether any proceeding has been commenced that could affect the current 476 proceeding, including proceedings relating to domestic violence, protective orders, termination
477 of parental rights, and adoptions and, if so, identify the court and the case number and the nature
478 of the proceeding;

479 (4) the present physical address of the child and the respondent, if known; and 480 (5) whether relief in addition to the immediate physical custody of the child and 481 attorney's fees is sought, including a request for assistance from law enforcement officials and, if 482 so, the relief sought.

483 (c) If the child-custody determination has been registered and confirmed under Section 484 304, the petition must also state the date and place of registration.

485 (d) The court shall issue an order directing the respondent to appear with or without the 486 child at a hearing and may enter any orders necessary to ensure the safety of the parties and the 487 child.

488 (e) The hearing must be held on the next judicial day following service of process unless 489 that date is impossible. In that event, the court must hold the hearing on the first day possible.
490 The court may extend the date of hearing at the request of the petitioner.

491 (f) The order must state the time and place of the hearing and must advise the respondent
492 that at the hearing the court will order the delivery of the child and the payment of fees, costs,
493 and expenses under Section 311, and may set an additional hearing to determine whether further 494 relief is appropriate, unless the respondent appears and establishes that:

495 (1) the child-custody determination has not been registered and confirmed under Section
496 304, and that

497 (A) the issuing court did not have jurisdiction under Article 2;

498 (B) the child-custody determination for which enforcement is sought has been vacated,
499 stayed, or modified by a court of a State having jurisdiction to do so under Article 2 or federal 500 law; or

501 (C) the respondent was entitled to notice, but notice was not given in accordance with the 502 standards of Section 108 in the proceedings before the court that issued the order for which 503 enforcement is sought; or

504 (2) the child-custody determination for which enforcement is sought was registered and
505 confirmed under Section 304, but has been vacated, stayed or modified by a court of a State
506 having jurisdiction to do so under Article 2 or federal law.

507 SECTION 308. SERVICE OF PETITION AND ORDER. Except as otherwise provided 508 in Section 310, the petition and order must be served, by any method authorized by the law of 509 this State, upon respondent and any person who has physical custody of the child.

510 SECTION 309. HEARING AND ORDER.

511 (a) Unless the court enters a temporary emergency order pursuant to Section 204, upon a
512 finding that a petitioner is entitled to the physical custody of the child immediately, the court 513 shall order the child delivered to the petitioner unless the respondent establishes that:

514 (1) the child-custody determination has not been registered and confirmed under Section
515 304, and that

516 (A) the issuing court did not have jurisdiction under Article 2;

517 (B) the child-custody determination for which enforcement is sought has been vacated,
518 stayed or modified by a court of a State having jurisdiction to do so under Article 2 or federal 519 law; or

520 (C) the respondent was entitled to notice, but notice was not given in accordance with the 521 standards of Section 108 in the proceedings before the court that issued the order for which 522 enforcement is sought; or

523 (2) the child-custody determination for which enforcement is sought was registered and
524 confirmed under Section 304, but has been vacated, stayed or modified by a court of a State
525 having jurisdiction to do so under Article 2 or federal law.

526 (b) The court shall award the fees, costs, and expenses authorized under Section 311 and 527 may grant additional relief, including a request for the assistance of law enforcement officials, 528 and set a further hearing to determine whether additional relief is appropriate.

529 (c) If a party called to testify refuses to answer on the ground that the testimony may be 530 self-incriminating, the court may draw an adverse inference from the refusal.

531 (d) A privilege against disclosure of communications between spouses and a defense of 532 immunity based on the relationship of husband and wife or parent and child may not be invoked
533 in a proceeding under this Article.

534 SECTION 310. WARRANT TO TAKE PHYSICAL CUSTODY OF CHILD.

535 (a) Upon the filing of a petition seeking enforcement of a child-custody determination, 536 the petitioner may file a verified application for the issuance of a warrant to take physical

537 custody of the child if the child is likely to suffer serious imminent physical harm or removal
538 from this State.

539 (b) If the court, upon the testimony of the petitioner or other witness, finds that the child
540 is likely to suffer serious imminent physical harm or be imminently removed from this State, it
541 may issue a warrant to take physical custody of the child. The petition must be heard on the next 542 judicial day after the warrant is executed. The warrant must include the statements required by 543 Section 307(b).

544 (c) A warrant to take physical custody of a child must:

545 (1) recite the facts upon which a conclusion of serious imminent physical harm or 546 removal from the jurisdiction is based;

547 (2) direct law enforcement officers to take physical custody of the child immediately; and 548 (3) provide for the placement of the child pending final relief.

549 (d) The respondent must be served with the petition, warrant, and order immediately after 550 the child is taken into physical custody.

551 (e) A warrant to take physical custody of a child is enforceable throughout this State. If 552 the court finds on the basis of the testimony of the petitioner or other witness that a less intrusive 553 remedy is not effective, it may authorize law enforcement officers to enter private property to 554 take physical custody of the child. If required by the exigency of the case, the court may 555 authorize law enforcement officers to make a forcible entry at any hour.

556 (f) The court may impose conditions upon placement of a child to ensure the appearance
557 of the child and the child's custodian.

558 SECTION 311. COSTS, FEES, AND EXPENSES.

559 (a) The court shall award the prevailing party, including a State, necessary and reasonable 560 expenses incurred by or on behalf of the party, including costs, communication expenses,
561 attorney's fees, investigative fees, expenses for witnesses, travel expenses, and child care during 562 the course of the proceedings, unless the party from whom fees or expenses are sought 563 establishes that the award would be clearly inappropriate.

564 (b) The court may not assess fees, costs, or expenses against a State except as otherwise
565 provided by law other than this Act.

566 SECTION 312. RECOGNITION AND ENFORCEMENT. A court of this State shall 567 accord full faith and credit to an order made consistently with this Act which enforces a child-
568 custody determination by a court of another State unless the order has been vacated, stayed, or 569 modified by a court authorized to do so under Article 2.

570 SECTION 313. APPEALS. An appeal may be taken from a final order in a proceeding 571 under this Article in accordance with expedited appellate procedures in other civil cases. Unless 572 the court enters a temporary emergency order under Section 204, the enforcing court may not 573 stay an order enforcing a child-custody determination pending appeal.

574 SECTION 314. ROLE OF PROSECUTOR OR PUBLIC OFFICIAL.

575 (a) In a case arising under this Act or involving the Hague Convention on the Civil 576 Aspects of International Child Abduction, the prosecutor or other appropriate public official may 577 take any lawful action, including resort to a proceeding under this Article or any other available

578 civil proceeding to locate a child, obtain the return of a child, or enforce a child-custody 579 determination if there is:

580 (1) an existing child-custody determination;

581 (2) a request from a court in a pending child-custody case;

582 (3) a reasonable belief that a criminal statute has been violated; or

583 (4) a reasonable belief that the child has been wrongfully removed or retained in violation 584 of the Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction.

585 (b) A prosecutor or appropriate public official acts on behalf of the court and may not 586 represent any party to a child-custody determination.

587 SECTION 315. ROLE OF LAW ENFORCEMENT. At the request of a prosecutor or 588 other appropriate public official acting under Section 314, a law enforcement officer may take 589 any lawful action reasonably necessary to locate a child or a party and assist a prosecutor or 590 appropriate public official with responsibilities under Section 314.

591 SECTION 316. COSTS AND EXPENSES. If the respondent is not the prevailing party, 592 the court may assess against the respondent all direct expenses and costs incurred by the 593 prosecutor or other appropriate public official and law enforcement officers under Section 314 or 594 315.

595 ARTICLE 4

596 MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

597 SECTION 401. APPLICATION AND CONSTRUCTION. In applying and construing
598 this Uniform Act, consideration must be given to the need to promote uniformity of the law with 599 respect to its subject matter among States that enact it.

600 SECTION 402. SEVERABILITY CLAUSE. If any provision of this Act or its 601 application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other 602 provisions or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or 603 application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are severable.

604 SECTION 2. The Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction Act, G. L. c. 209B, is hereby 605 repealed.

606 SECTION 3. G.L. c. 208, §28 is amended by adding at the end thereof the jurisdiction of 607 any court to modify an existing judgment as to care and custody of a minor child and shall be 608 subject to the provisions of the Massachusetts Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction Act.

609 SECTION 4. This Act takes effect on July 1, 2016. A motion or other request for relief
610 made in a child-custody or enforcement proceeding that was commenced before the effective
611 date of this Act is governed by the law in effect at the time the motion or other request was 612 made.
