The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Eleven

An Act Allowing for increased efficiencies in judicial administration.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 1 of Chapter 29A of the General Laws, is hereby amended by 2 inserting after the first paragraph the following:

3 All cost of maintenance and operation of the supreme judicial court, including the 4 operation of the clerk’s office, the commission on judicial conduct and the board of bar 5 examiners shall be paid in lump sum to the supreme judicial court to be distributed among the 6 supreme judicial court’s operations, the clerk’s office, the commission on judicial conduct and 7 the board of bar examiners.

8 All cost of maintenance and operation of the appeals court, including salaries, 9 traveling allowances and expenses of the chief justice, recall judges and the associate justices 10 shall be paid in lump sum to the appeals court department to be distributed as outlined above.

11 All cost of maintenance and operation of the Trial Court, including the salaries of the 12 justices of the various departments, all costs of the central administration of the trial court, the 13 Massachusetts sentencing commission, for alternative dispute resolution services for the trial 14 court, for court security and for the chief justice of administration and management shall be paid 15 in lump sum to the chief justice of administration and management to be distributed for the 16 central administration of the trial court.

17 All cost of maintenance and operation of the superior court department shall be paid in 18 lump sum to the administrative office of the superior court department to be distributed among 19 the various courts of the department.

20 All cost of maintenance and operation of the district court department shall be paid in lump sum 21 to the administrative office of the district court department to be distributed among the various 22 courts of the department.

23 All cost of maintenance and operation of the probate and family court department 24 shall be paid in lump sum to the administrative office of the probate and family court department 25 to be distributed among the various courts of the division.

26 All cost of maintenance and operation of the land court department shall be paid in lump sum to 27 the administrative office of the land court department to be distributed among the various courts 28 of the division.

29 All cost of maintenance and operation of the Boston municipal court department shall 30 be paid in lump sum to the central division of the Boston municipal court department to be 31 distributed among the various courts of the division.

32 All cost of maintenance and operation of the housing court department shall be paid in 33 lump sum to the administrative office of the housing court department to be distributed among 34 the various courts of the division.

35 All cost of maintenance and operation of the juvenile court department shall be paid in 36 lump sum to the administrative office of the juvenile court department to be distributed among 37 the various courts of the division.

38 SECTION 2. Section 6 of Chapter 211B of the General Laws, is hereby amended by 39 striking out the following word “shall” in the fourth sentence of the paragraph and inserting in 40 place thereof the following word: “may”

41 SECTION 3. Section 6 of Chapter 211B of the General Laws, is hereby further 42 amended by striking out the following word “only” in the fourth sentence of the paragraph.

43 SECTION 4. Section 6 of Chapter 211B of the General Laws, is hereby further 44 amended by striking out the following phrase “in the nature of malfeasance, misfeasance or 45 nonfeasance” in the fourth sentence of the paragraph.

46 SECTION 5. Section 3 of Chapter 211 of the General Laws, is hereby amended by 47 striking out the following in the first sentence of the second paragraph:

48 “and provided, further that general superintendence also shall not include the authority or power 49 to exercise or supersede any of the powers, duties and responsibilities of the chief justice for

50 administration and management, as established by section one of chapter two hundred and eleven 51 B, in any general or special law except under extraordinary circumstances leading to a severe, 52 adverse impact on the administration of justice; provided, that the majority of the supreme 53 judicial court shall issue a written order that sets forth the basis for a finding that, absent such 54 action, there would be a severe and adverse impact on the administration of justice in the 55 commonwealth”.

56 SECTION 6. Section 9 of Chapter 211B of the General Laws, is hereby amended by 57 striking out part (xxii) (a) and (b) and inserting in place thereof:

58 Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, the chief justice of 59 administration and management may freely transfer appropriated funds for any trial court 60 department within that same trial court department; provided, that he shall not transfer funds 61 between different trial court departments.
