The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Third General Court (2023-2024)

An Act to establish an office of fair housing and a fair housing trust fund.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 6A of the General Laws is hereby amended by adding the 2 following section:-

3 Section 16DD. (a) As used in this section the following words shall, unless the context
4 clearly requires otherwise, have the following meanings:-

5 “Office”, the office of fair housing.

6 “Fair housing trust fund”, the Fair Housing Trust Fund, as established by Chapter 121H.

7 (b) There shall be an office of fair housing within the executive office housing. The office 8 shall be under the supervision and control of a director of fair housing who shall be appointed by 9 and shall report to the secretary of housing.

10 (c) The office shall coordinate all activities of the commonwealth to eliminate housing 11 discrimination and affirmatively further fair housing, overcome patterns of segregation, foster

12 inclusive communities free from barriers that restrict access to opportunity based on protected
13 characteristics of Chapter 151B, and to help enforce and maintain compliance with all fair
14 housing laws, including, but not limited to, Chapter 151B and the federal Fair Housing Act, 42
15 U.S.C. 3601 et seq.

16 (d) The office shall collaborate with the executive offices, state agencies, and the office
17 of the attorney general on fair housing initiatives to address the factors that influence housing
18 discrimination, segregated communities, and disparities in access to opportunity. The executive 19 offices shall include, but not be limited to, the executive office of health and human services, the 20 executive office of economic development, the executive office of public safety and security, the 21 executive office of energy and environmental affairs, the Massachusetts department of 22 transportation, the executive office of labor and workforce development, the executive office for 23 administration and finance, the executive office of technology services and security, and the 24 executive office of education. The office shall facilitate communication and partnership between 25 these executive offices and agencies to develop greater understanding of the intersections 26 between agency activities and fair housing. The office shall facilitate the development of 27 interagency initiatives to address the social and economic determinants of housing disparity 28 issues including, but not limited to: (i) equal access to housing and quality; (ii) housing 29 affordability; (iii) transportation availability, location and cost; (iv) air, water, and land usage and 30 quality; (v) employment and workforce development; (vi) access to healthcare; (vii) education 31 access and quality; and (viii) language access.

50 requires otherwise, have the following meanings:-

51 “Office”, the office of fair housing, established in section 16DD of Chapter 6A.

52 “Trust fund”, the Fair Housing Trust Fund.

53 Section 2. There shall be within the office a separate fund to be known as the Fair 54 Housing Trust Fund. The office shall administer the trust fund for the purpose of eliminating 55 housing discrimination and affirmatively furthering fair housing, overcoming patterns of 56 segregation, fostering inclusive communities free from barriers that restrict access to opportunity 57 based on protected characteristics of Chapter 151B, and to helping enforce and maintain 58 compliance with all fair housing laws, including, but not limited to, Chapter 151B and the federal 59 Fair Housing Act, 42 U.S.C. 3601 et seq. Activities eligible for assistance from the trust fund 60 shall include, but not be limited to, private enforcement initiatives, education and outreach 61 initiatives, fair housing testing, lending discrimination, affirmatively furthering fair housing, and 62 special projects.

63 Section 3. The trust fund shall be overseen by the director of the office and an advisory 64 board composed of at least six members representing those with protected characteristics and at 65 least two experienced civil rights practitioners. The director and advisory board shall set the 66 criteria for selecting grantees.

67 Section 4. Grantees eligible for assistance shall include, but not be limited to, fair housing 68 assistance programs and fair housing initiative programs, as defined by the U.S. Department of 69 Housing and Urban Development, any private, non-profit agency, or any state-funded public 70 housing authority. Awards from the trust fund shall be for a period of up to three years in an 71 amount not to exceed $1,000,000 over three years or $333,333 in any one year.

72 Section 5. There shall be credited to the trust fund revenue from appropriations or other 73 monies authorized by the general court and specifically designated for the fund and any gifts, 74 grants, private contributions, investment income earned on the fund's assets and any other

75 sources. Money remaining in the fund at the end of a fiscal year shall not revert to the General 76 Fund.
