The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Eleven

An Act to combat recidivist drunk driving..

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 90, Section 23, paragraph two, is amended by striking the entire 2 paragraph and replacing it with the following:

3 “Any person convicted of operating a motor vehicle after his license to operate has been 4 suspended or revoked pursuant to a violation of paragraph (a) of subdivision (1) of section 5 twenty-four, or pursuant to section twenty-four D, twenty-four E, twenty-four G, twenty-four L,
6 or twenty-four N of this chapter, or pursuant to subsection (a) of section eight, or pursuant to a 7 violation of section eight A or section eight B of chapter ninety B, or after notice of such 8 suspension or revocation of his right to operate a motor vehicle without a license has been issued 9 and received by such person or by his agent or employer, and prior to the restoration of such

10 license or right to operate or the issuance to him of a new license to operate, or after his license 11 to operate has been suspended or revoked pursuant to a substantially similar law in another state, 12 or, in the case of a person operating a motor vehicle without obtaining a license, any person 13 convicted of operating a motor vehicle after a violation of paragraph (a) of subdivision (1) of 14 section twenty-four, or pursuant to section twenty-four D, twenty-four E, twenty-four G, twenty-15 four L, or twenty-four N of this chapter, or pursuant to subsection (a) of section eight, or 16 pursuant to a violation of section eight A or section eight B of chapter ninety B, or after a 17 violation of a substantially similar law in another state, shall be punished by a fine of not less 18 than three thousand and not more than twenty thousand dollars and by imprisonment in a house 19 of correction for not less than one hundred and twenty days and not more than five years; 20 provided, however, that the sentence of imprisonment imposed upon such person shall not be 21 reduced to less than one hundred and twenty days, nor suspended, nor shall any such person be 22 eligible for probation, parole, or furlough or receive any deduction from his sentence for good 23 conduct until he shall have served one hundred and twenty days of such sentence; provided, 24 further, that the commissioner of correction may, on the recommendation of the warden, 25 superintendent or other person in charge of a correctional institution, or of the administrator of a 26 county correctional institution, grant to an offender committed under this paragraph a temporary 27 release in the custody of an officer of such institution for the following purposes only: to attend 28 the funeral of a relative; to visit a critically ill relative; to obtain emergency medical or 29 psychiatric services unavailable at said institution; or to engage in employment pursuant to a 30 work release program. The provisions of section eighty-seven of chapter two hundred and 31 seventy-six shall not apply to any person charged with a violation of this paragraph. Prosecutions 32 commenced under this paragraph shall not be placed on file or continued without a finding.”

33 Section 2. Chapter 90, Section 24(1)(a)(1), paragraphs 4 through 7 shall be stricken and 34 replaced by the following paragraphs:

35 If the defendant has been previously convicted or assigned to an alcohol or controlled 36 substance education, treatment, or rehabilitation program by a court of the commonwealth or any 37 other jurisdiction because of a like violation preceding the date of the commission of the offense 38 for which he has been convicted, the defendant shall be punished by a fine of not less than nine 39 hundred nor more than fifteen thousand dollars and by imprisonment for not less than ninety 40 days nor more than three and three-quarters years; provided, however, that the sentence imposed 41 upon such person shall not be reduced to less than forty-five days, nor suspended, nor shall any 42 such person be eligible for probation, parole, or furlough or receive any deduction from his 43 sentence for good conduct until such person has served forty-five days of such sentence, unless 44 otherwise sentenced to an intermediate sanction as promulgated by the sentencing commission 45 established in chapter four hundred and thirty-two of the acts of nineteen hundred and ninety-46 three; provided, further, that the commissioner of correction may, on the recommendation of the 47 warden, superintendent, or other person in charge of a correctional institution, or the 48 administrator of a county correctional institution, grant to an offender committed under this 49 subdivision a temporary release in the custody of an officer of such institution for the following
50 purposes only: to attend the funeral of a relative; to visit a critically ill relative; to obtain 51 emergency medical or psychiatric services unavailable at said institution; to engage in 52 employment pursuant to a work release program; or for the purposes of an aftercare program
53 designed to support the recovery of an offender who has completed an alcohol or controlled 54 substance education, treatment or rehabilitation program operated by the department of 55 correction; and provided, further, that the defendant may serve all or part of such forty-five day

56 sentence to the extent such resources are available in a correctional facility specifically 57 designated by the department of correction for the incarceration and rehabilitation of drinking 58 drivers.

59 If the defendant has been previously convicted or assigned to an alcohol or controlled 60 substance education, treatment, or rehabilitation program by a court of the commonwealth, or 61 any other jurisdiction because of a like offense two times preceding the date of the commission 62 of the offense for which he has been convicted, the defendant shall be punished by a fine of not 63 less than one thousand seven hundred and fifty nor more than twenty-five thousand dollars and 64 by imprisonment for not less than three hundred days nor more than four and one-half years or 65 by a fine of not less than one thousand seven hundred and fifty nor more than twenty-five 66 thousand dollars and by imprisonment in the state prison for not less than four and one-half years 67 nor more than nine years; provided, however, that the sentence imposed upon such person shall 68 not be reduced to less than two hundred and fifty days, nor suspended, nor shall any such person 69 be eligible for probation, parole, or furlough or receive any deduction from his sentence for good 70 conduct until he shall have served two hundred and fifty days of such sentence, unless otherwise 71 sentenced to an intermediate sanction as promulgated by the sentencing commission established 72 in chapter four hundred and thirty-two of the acts of nineteen hundred and ninety-three; 73 provided, further, that the commissioner of correction may, on the recommendation of the 74 warden, superintendent, or other person in charge of a correctional institution, or the
76 subdivision a temporary release in the custody of an officer of such institution for the following
77 purposes only: to attend the funeral of a relative, to visit a critically ill relative; to obtain 78 emergency medical or psychiatric services unavailable at said institution; to engage in

79 employment pursuant to a work release program; or for the purposes of an aftercare program
80 designed to support the recovery of an offender who has completed an alcohol or controlled
81 substance education, treatment or rehabilitation program operated by the department of 82 correction; and provided, further, that the defendant may serve all or part of such two hundred 83 and fifty days sentence to the extent such resources are available in a correctional facility 84 specifically designated by the department of correction for the incarceration and rehabilitation of 85 drinking drivers.

86 If the defendant has been previously convicted or assigned to an alcohol or controlled
87 substance education, treatment, or rehabilitation program by a court of the commonwealth or any 88 other jurisdiction because of a like offense three times preceding the date of the commission of 89 the offense for which he has been convicted the defendant shall be punished by a fine of not less 90 than three thousand nor more than fifty thousand dollars and by imprisonment for not less than 91 four years nor more than five years, or by a fine of not less than three thousand nor more than 92 fifty thousand dollars and by imprisonment in the state prison for not less than five years nor 93 more than ten years; provided, however, that the sentence imposed upon such person shall not be 94 reduced to less than two years, nor suspended, nor shall any such person be eligible for 95 probation, parole, or furlough or receive any deduction from his sentence for good conduct until 96 such person has served two years of such sentence, unless otherwise sentenced to an intermediate 97 sanction as promulgated by the sentencing commission established in chapter four hundred and 98 thirty-two of the acts of nineteen hundred and ninety-three; provided, further, that the 99 commissioner of correction may, on the recommendation of the warden, superintendent, or other 100 person in charge of a correctional institution, or the administrator of a county correctional 101 institution, grant to an offender committed under this subdivision a temporary release in the

102 custody of an officer of such institution for the following purposes only: to attend the funeral of a 103 relative; to visit a critically ill relative; to obtain emergency medical or psychiatric services 104 unavailable at said institution; to engage in employment pursuant to a work release program; or 105 for the purposes of an aftercare program designed to support the recovery of an offender who has 106 completed an alcohol or controlled substance education, treatment or rehabilitation program 107 operated by the department of correction; and provided, further, that the defendant may serve all 108 or part of such two years sentence to the extent that resources are available in a correctional 109 facility specifically designated by the department of correction for the incarceration and 110 rehabilitation of drinking drivers.

111 If the defendant has been previously convicted or assigned to an alcohol or controlled
112 substance education, treatment or rehabilitation program by a court of the commonwealth or any 113 other jurisdiction because of a like offense four or more times preceding the date of the 114 commission of the offense for which he has been convicted, the defendant shall be punished by a 115 fine of not less than five thousand nor more than one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars 116 and by imprisonment for not less than six and one-half years or by a fine of not less than five 117 thousand nor more than one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars and by imprisonment in 118 the state prison for not less than six and one-half years nor more than twelve and one-half years; 119 provided, however, that the sentence imposed upon such person shall not be reduced to less than 120 five years, nor suspended, nor shall any such person be eligible for probation, parole, or furlough
121 or receive any deduction from his sentence for good conduct until he shall have served five years 122 of such sentence, unless otherwise sentenced to an intermediate sanction as promulgated by the 123 sentencing commission established in chapter four hundred and thirty-two of the acts of nineteen 124 hundred and ninety-three; provided, further, that the commissioner of correction may, on the 125 recommendation of the warden, superintendent, or other person in charge of a correctional 126 institution, or the administrator of a county correctional institution, grant to an offender 127 committed under this subdivision a temporary release in the custody of an officer of such 128 institution for the following purposes only: to attend the funeral of a relative; to visit a critically 129 ill relative; to obtain emergency medical or psychiatric services unavailable at said institution; to 130 engage in employment pursuant to a work release program; or for the purposes of an aftercare 131 program designed to support the recovery of an offender who has completed an alcohol or 132 controlled substance education, treatment or rehabilitation program operated by the department 133 of correction; and provided, further, that the defendant may serve all or part of such five years 134 sentence to the extent that resources are available in a correctional facility specifically designated 135 by the department of correction for the incarceration and rehabilitation of drinking drivers.

136 Section 3. Chapter 90 Section 24(1)(a)(1), paragraph 1 shall be amended by adding “but 137 in no case shall the defendant receive less than ten days’ imprisonment.”
