An Act relative to creating a statutory housing restriction and providing remedies related to statutory housing.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Subsection (b) of section 1 of chapter 30B of the General Laws, as 2 appearing in the 2016 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking out, in line 118, the word 3 “or”; and

4 by striking out, in line 119, the word “111C” and inserting in place thereof the following 5 words:- “111C; or”; and 6 by adding at the end thereof the following subsection:- “(35) contracts or other actions to 7 acquire or dispose of statutory housing premises as defined in section 17A of chapter 183, 8 including exercise of the statutory housing power to sell, following which the statutory housing 9 restriction continues in force and effect as to the premises as before.”

10 SECTION 2. Chapter 183 of the General Laws is hereby amended by adding the 11 following 7 sections:-

12 Section 17A. As used in this section and sections 17B to 17G, inclusive, the following 13 words shall have the following meanings unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

14 "Affordable value", the affordable value of the statutory housing premises under the 15 statutory housing condition and the statutory housing power to sell, unless otherwise defined in 16 the restriction, equal to the consideration paid for the premises by the eligible household owning 17 the premises, subject to the statutory housing restriction adjusted in proportion to any increase of 18 the area median income from the date the eligible household acquired the premises to the date 19 next preceding the sale for which such information is publicly available; provided, however, that 20 in a restriction stating an alternate means of determining the value of the statutory housing 21 premises, the "affordable value" shall be the amount determined as stated in that restriction.

22 "Area median income", the median income for the standard metropolitan statistical area 23 or equivalent area for the statutory housing premises in which the statutory housing premises are 24 located, adjusted for household size, published by the United States Department of Housing and 25 Urban Development or such other standard adopted by the department of housing and 26 community development to measure individual and household incomes.

27 "Conforming mortgage", a statutory housing restriction having priority over all 28 mortgages, any mortgage which, when aggregated with all then existing mortgages senior to 29 such mortgage, does not secure principal exceeding the affordable value of the statutory housing 30 premises.

31 "Eligible household", the owner and all persons residing together with the owner at the 32 statutory housing premises and whose household income determined in connection with the 33 acquisition of the statutory housing premises does not exceed the maximum household income 34 established by the holder at the time of such acquisition as stated in the deed, covenant or 35 restriction on the statutory housing premises; provided, however, that if no maximum household 36 income is stated in a deed, covenant or restriction, the household income does not exceed 80 per 37 cent of the area median income, adjusted for the number of individuals in the eligible household.

38 "Governmental body", the United States or the commonwealth, acting through any of its 39 departments, divisions, commissions, boards or agencies, or a political subdivision or public 40 instrumentality thereof or a public authority or quasi-public entity or a municipal affordable 41 housing trust or an instrumentality, whether acting for its own account or as an agent or designee 42 for or as assignees of a private individual or private entity which has been required to place such 43 restriction in its chain of title as a condition of receiving financial or other assistance from the 44 governmental body.

45 "Grantor", a person granting a restriction on the statutory housing condition and with the 46 statutory housing power to sell and an individual acquiring the premises subject to such a 47 restriction previously granted.

48 "Household income", the aggregate combined gross income of all members of a 49 household under standards established by the United States Department of Housing and Urban 50 Development or such other standards established by the department of housing and community 51 development to measure individual and household incomes.

52 "Statutory housing condition", a condition that may be incorporated in a deed, covenant 53 or restriction by reference, whereby the grantor intends, declares and covenants on behalf of the 54 grantor and grantor's heirs, successors and assigns that the grantor and the grantor's heirs, 55 successors and assigns shall:

56 (i) occupy the dwelling unit on the statutory housing premises as the principal residence 57 of the grantor and the grantor's eligible household;

58 (ii) pay and discharge, when due and payable, all debts secured by the statutory housing 59 premises including, without limitation, taxes, mortgages and other voluntary liens and judgments 60 and reimburse the holder on demand for all amounts paid by the holder to discharge such debts, 61 with interest thereon, until reimbursement at the rate applicable to damages in actions for breach 62 of contract obligations.

63 (iii) not encumber the statutory housing premises or any portion of the statutory housing 64 premises in an amount in excess of its affordable value, nor convey, transfer or otherwise dispose 65 of the statutory housing premises or any portion of the statutory housing premises other than as 66 statutory housing premises; and

67 (iv) upon disposition, convey a fee interest in the statutory housing premises only to a 68 member of an eligible household, approved in writing by the holder, for consideration not 69 exceeding the affordable value of the statutory housing premises at the time of the conveyance; 70 provided, however, that a continuing or newly-acquired ownership, with continued occupancy as 71 a principal residence by the surviving spouse of a qualified owner in the eligible household who 72 resided at the statutory housing premises as the surviving spouse's last principal residence before

73 the qualified owner's death, without regard to the surviving spouse's income, shall not constitute 74 a breach of this condition.

75 "Statutory housing covenant", in a conveyance of real estate:

76 (i) the grantor, for the grantor and the grantor's heirs, executors, administrators, 77 successors and assigns, covenants with the holder and its successors and assigns that: (a) the 78 granted statutory housing premises are free from all encumbrances made by the grantor; (b) the 79 grantor and the grantor's heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns shall warrant 80 and defend the same to the holder and the holder's successors and assigns forever against the 81 lawful claims and demands of all persons claiming by, through or under the grantor, but against 82 none other; (c) the grantor and the grantor's heirs, successors or assigns, during their respective 83 ownership of the statutory housing premises, shall comply fully with the statutory housing 84 condition; and (d) the grantor and the grantor's heirs, successors or assigns, in case a sale shall be 85 made under the statutory housing power to sell, shall, upon request, execute, acknowledge and 86 deliver to any purchaser a deed of release confirming such sale and that the holder and the 87 holder's successors and assigns are appointed and constituted the attorneys-in-fact irrevocable of 88 the grantor to execute and deliver to any such purchaser a deed and a full transfer of all policies 89 of insurance on the buildings upon the land covered by the statutory housing restriction at the 90 time of sale.

91 "Statutory housing power to sell", the authority of the holder or its successors or assigns, 92 which may be incorporated in a deed, covenant or restriction by reference, upon a default in the 93 performance or observance of the foregoing or other condition reasonably related to maintaining 94 the premises as statutory housing premises, to sell the statutory housing premises or such portion

95 of the statutory housing premises as may remain subject to the statutory housing restriction, 96 together with all improvements thereon, by deed, first complying with the General Laws relating 97 to the holder's sale of statutory housing premises by the exercise of the statutory housing power 98 to sell and may convey the same by proper deed to the purchaser absolutely and in fee simple, 99 but subject always to the statutory housing covenants on the statutory housing condition and with 100 the statutory housing power to sell; provided, however, that such sale shall forever bar the 101 grantor and all persons claiming rights of fee simple ownership under the grantor or claiming 102 mortgages or other liens against the statutory housing premises in excess of the affordable value 103 from all right and interest in the statutory housing premises, whether at law or in equity.

104 "Statutory housing premises", residential real property subject to a statutory housing 105 restriction.

106 "Statutory housing restriction", a restriction containing the statutory housing covenants, 107 the statutory housing condition or the statutory housing power to sell.

108 Section 17B. A deed, covenant or restriction in substance following the form entitled 109 Deed with Statutory Housing Restriction or the form entitled Statutory Housing Restriction shall, 110 when duly executed, have the force and effect of an affordable housing restriction as defined in 111 section 31 of chapter 184, without limitation to the enforcement thereof as stated in section 32 of 112 said chapter 184, to the use of the holder and the holder's successors and assigns with statutory 113 housing covenants, upon the statutory housing condition and with the statutory housing power to 114 sell, to secure the performance of the statutory housing restriction and any obligation therein 115 specified. The parties may insert in such restriction any other lawful agreement or condition

116 reasonably related to the creation, maintenance and preservation of the premises as statutory 117 housing premises.

118 Section 17C. The following entities shall each be eligible to be a holder of a statutory 119 housing restriction: a governmental body or an agency thereof, a nonprofit organization, a 120 church, employer, university or other entity that is otherwise administering government-121 sponsored, federal, state or local subsidy programs and any other entity so authorized by the 122 department of housing and community development or a successor agency; provided, however, 123 that no restriction granted on the statutory housing power to sell shall be invalid by reason of 124 being held by other than an eligible entity provided that it is assigned to an eligible entity before 125 the exercise of the statutory housing power to sell.

126 A city, by the mayor, unless otherwise provided by charter, ordinance or vote of the city 127 council, and a town, by the board of selectmen, unless otherwise provided by charter, by-law or 128 vote of the town, may acquire by gift, purchase, grant, bequest, devise, lease or otherwise a 129 statutory housing restriction on real property resulting from regulatory action or funding by the 130 city or town, or otherwise authorized by the city or town, and may hold and exercise all the 131 holder's rights, including the authority to acquire and reconvey the real property as statutory 132 housing premises and otherwise administer and enforce the statutory housing restriction.

133 Section 17D. On written notice from an owner of statutory housing premises or from a 134 mortgagee, proposed mortgagee or other person holding a lien on such premises, the holder shall 135 state in writing the affordable value of the statutory housing premises as of the nearest date for 136 which such determination can be made from public record and such other facts known to the 137 holder necessary to establish whether the owner or other person is in compliance with the 138 statutory housing restriction. Such certificate shall be conclusive as to a mortgagee or other 139 person relying thereon and providing value to the owner within the affordable value or 140 transferring the property pursuant to the statutory housing restriction. The holder may charge a 141 reasonable fee for providing the certificate.

142 Section 17E. A statutory housing restriction shall continue until terminated by agreement 143 of the holder, by legislative or judicial action or otherwise according to law unless a term of 144 years is stated in the restriction. On termination of a statutory housing restriction for any reason 145 prior to expiration of its term and after payment of the affordable value to the owner, mortgagees 146 and other lienholders according to the priority established by law, or such greater amount as is 147 payable under section 3 of chapter 244A, as to holders of conforming mortgages, the holder 148 alone shall be entitled to receive the difference between the affordable value of the statutory 149 housing premises immediately before termination, regardless of the remaining term of the 150 statutory housing restriction, and the fair market value of those premises immediately after 151 termination. Such amount shall be considered a first priority lien in the event that the statutory 152 housing restriction is terminated by judicial action in a bankruptcy proceeding.

153 The statutory housing covenants, statutory housing condition and statutory housing 154 power to sell shall not be subject to section 23 and sections 26 to 30, inclusive, of chapter 184 155 and shall have the benefits of section 32 of said chapter 184 without approval otherwise required 156 thereunder, but all nonstatutory provisions of a statutory housing restriction shall remain subject 157 to said section 23 and said sections 26 to 30, inclusive, of said chapter 184 and shall have the 158 benefits of said section 32 of said chapter 184 only if approved as stated therein.

159 Section 17F. Unless otherwise agreed in an instrument appearing of record, following a 160 mortgagee's foreclosure by a regulated for-profit, not-for-profit or governmental mortgagee 161 holding a first mortgage on statutory housing premises which was subordinate to a statutory 162 housing restriction, in addition to remaining restricted at the affordable value for eligible 163 households as stated in the restriction, only the statutory housing covenants, the statutory 164 housing condition and the statutory housing power to sell, to the extent appearing in the statutory 165 housing restriction, and the statutory obligations of the holder to mortgagees holding conforming 166 mortgages, shall continue in effect, binding the statutory housing premises, and all other 167 provisions of the restriction shall be extinguished.

168 Section 17G. Ownership of statutory housing premises, either by the executor or 169 administrator of an owner in an eligible household, by the holder or by a mortgagee or other 170 lienholder or its designee or by an entity eligible to be a holder of a statutory housing restriction, 171 pursuant to exercise of lawful remedies against the owner, shall not constitute a violation of the 172 statutory housing covenants or the statutory housing condition so long as the premises are being 173 held for resale to, and are resold to, an eligible household as statutory housing premises for an 174 amount not exceeding the affordable value or, in the case of a holder of a conforming mortgage, 175 such greater amount as payable to the mortgagee under section 3 of chapter 244A; provided, 176 however, that the premises shall not be rented, leased or otherwise occupied by a household that 177 is not an eligible household during the period in which the premises are being held for resale.

179 following section:-

340 mailed at least 14 days prior to the date of sale to each such person at the address of that person

347 housing premises are located, notice may be published in a newspaper published in the county in 348 which the statutory housing premises are located and this provision shall be implied in every 349 restriction containing the statutory housing power to sell in which it is not expressly set forth. A 350 newspaper which, by its title page, purports to be printed or published in such town, city or
