The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Thirteen

An Act to ensure fairness in the disability adjudication process..

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 14 of Chapter 152 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2010
2 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting after subsection (1)(b) the following additional 3 new paragraph:-

4 For the purposes of this section, if an insurer contests the total permanent disability of an 5 employee after that decision has been fully and finally adjudicated in favor of the employee, 6 without either evidence of improvement in the condition of the employee, evidence that the 7 employee has been working or otherwise behaving in a manner inconsistent with a total and 8 permanent disability, or evidence of a significant advancement in medical science that has a 9 substantial likelihood of affecting the total and permanent disability of the employee, more than 10 once in any five-year period, that contest shall be considered an action not based on reasonable 11 grounds.

12 SECTION 2. Section 24 of Chapter 152 of the General Laws is hereby amended by 13 inserting at the end thereof the following new subsection:-

14 “All bills submitted pursuant to adjudication under this chapter shall be paid within 30 15 days unless good cause for delay is shown before 30 days has elapsed. Any payments made after 16 the initial 30-day period shall include payment of the prevailing rate of interest”.

17 SECTION 3. Section 11 of Chapter 152 of the General Laws is hereby amended 18 by inserting at the end the following paragraphs:-

19 “All such hearings shall be recorded either by tape-recorder or by video and copies or 20 transcriptions made available to the parties for a reasonable fee not exceeding the costs of labor
21 and materials. On motion from the employee and when information of a personally sensitive 22 nature is being discussed, the member may close the proceeding to the parties and family 23 members of the employee.”

24 SECTION 4. Section 8 of Chapter 152 of the General Laws is hereby amended by 25 striking subsection 2(d) in its entirety; and further, by striking in Section 2 in line 89 the 26 following words:- “For purposes of clause (d) of this section, any termination of an employee 27 within one year of resumption of work with his prior employer will be presumed to be for the 28 reason that the employee was physically or mentally incapable of performing the duties required 29 by the job or that the job was unsuitable for the employee, unless the insurer demonstrates the 30 contrary by a preponderance of evidence at a subsequent proceeding”.

31 SECTION 5. Section 30 of Chapter 152 of the General Laws is hereby amended by 32 inserting at the end of the second paragraph the following sentence:- “No insurer shall participate 33 in the medical judgments of any utilization review process established by said regulations, except 34 to provide necessary information at the request of the utilization review agent or agents”.
