DISTRICT/ADDRESS:

First Essex and Middlesex

SENATE No. 923

By Mr. Tarr, a petition (accompanied by bill, Senate, No. 923) of Bruce E. Tarr for legislation relative to Consumer Legal Equalization Act. The Judiciary.

[SIMILAR MATTER FILED IN PREVIOUS SESSION
SEE SENATE, NO. 821 OF 2013-2014.]

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Eighty-Ninth General Court (2015-2016)

An Act Consumer Legal Equalization Act.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 223 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2014 Official Edition,
2 is hereby amended by striking section 2C in its entirety and inserting in place thereof the 3 following new section:-

4 Section 2C. Whenever any action or proceeding is transferred to another court under any 5 provision of section two A, section two B, or section two D, such action or proceeding shall 6 thereafter proceed in the court to which it is thus transferred as though originally entered there.

7 SECTION 2. Chapter 223 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2014 Official Edition,
8 is hereby further amended by inserting, after section 2C, the following new section:-

9 Consolidation of unsecured consumer actions

10 Section 2D. (a) In any action commenced within the district court department of the trial
11 courts of this Commonwealth, including, without limitation, those commenced as so-called 12 “small claims actions” under section twenty-one of chapter two hundred and eighteen, against a 13 natural person based upon any unsecured credit card or other revolving extension of credit to 14 such natural person, the administrative justice of the district court department of the trial court 15 shall, upon a motion filed by the defendant in such action within twenty days of the first entry of 16 a notice of appearance by an attorney authorized to practice law within this Commonwealth on 17 behalf of such defendant, transfer venue of such action to the division of the district court 18 department of the trial court so requested in the motion. The defendant making such motion shall 19 give notice thereof to the clerks or clerk magistrates of the divisions in which said action is 20 pending, to all other parties to such action, and to the administrative justice of the district court 21 department of the trial court. Thereafter, no action shall be taken with respect to said action until 22 it shall be transferred to the division of the district court department of the trial court so 23 requested in said motion.

24 (b) All hearings, conferences and trials requested by any plaintiff with respect to any 25 action commenced within the district court department of the trial courts of this Commonwealth,
26 including, without limitation, those commenced as so-called “small claims actions” under section
27 twenty-one of chapter two hundred and eighteen, against a natural person based upon any 28 unsecured credit card or other revolving extension of credit to such natural person, where the 29 defendant is represented of record by an attorney licensed to practice law within this 30 Commonwealth, shall be scheduled, subject to mutual agreement between the parties, at a date 31 and time designated by the defendant’s counsel by a written notice of designation served upon 32 plaintiff within ten business days of plaintiff’s service upon defendant of such request; provided,

33 however, that the date so designated by the defendant must be (1) no later than forty-five days 34 after the date of service of plaintiff's request and (2) on a date when the district court in which 35 the action is pending normally hears such matters.

36 (c) All hearings, conferences and trials set by the district court with respect to any action
37 commenced within the district court department of the trial courts of this Commonwealth,
38 including, without limitation, those commenced as so-called "small claims actions" under section
39 twenty-one of chapter two hundred and eighteen, against a natural person based upon any 40 unsecured credit card or other revolving extension of credit to such natural person, where the 41 defendant is represented of record by an attorney licensed to practice law within this 42 Commonwealth, shall be scheduled, subject to the defendant's right to waive such right or a 43 mutual agreement between the parties, at a date and time together with all similar hearings, 44 conferences and trials for all actions filed within any twelve month period where the defendants
45 are represented by the same counsel of record. It shall be the defendant's responsibility to assure 46 compliance with this section by notifying the court in which any action is so pending of the need 47 to consolidate all such actions by giving the clerk and the other parties notice of the required 48 consolidation within ten business days of the court's serving notice of any such hearings, 49 conferences or trials.

50 (d) As used in this section, (1) the term "natural person," shall have the meaning assigned
51 to such term in section two of chapter ninety-three of the General Laws; (2) the term "credit 52 card," shall have the meaning assigned to such term in section one hundred four of chapter
53 ninety-three of the General Laws; and (3) the term "extension of credit" shall have the meaning 54 assigned to such term in section sixty-eight A of chapter ninety-three of the General Laws.
