4 CHILD SUPPORT IS SUFFICIENTLY REDUCED DUE TO INCARCERATION.

5 12-104.1.

6 (a) (1) In this section the following words have the meanings indicated.

7 (2) "Administration" has the meaning stated in § 10-101 of this article.

8 (3) "Obligee" has the meaning stated in § 10-101 of this article.

9 (4) "Obligor" has the meaning stated in § 10-101 of this article.

10 (b) A child support payment is not past due and arrearages may not accrue during
11 any period when the obligor is incarcerated, and continuing for 60 days after the obligor's
12 release from confinement, if[:

13 (1) the obligor was sentenced to a term of imprisonment of 180 consecutive
14 calendar days or more;

15 (2)] the obligor is not on work release and has insufficient resources with 16 which to make payment[; and

17 (3) the obligor did not commit the crime with the intent of being
18 incarcerated or otherwise becoming impoverished].

19 (c) (1) In any case in which the Administration is providing child support
20 services under Title IV, Part D of the Social Security Act, the Administration may, without
21 the necessity of any motion being filed with the court, adjust an incarcerated obligor's
22 payment account to reflect the suspension of the accrual of arrearages under subsection (b)
23 of this section.

24 (2) Before making an adjustment under paragraph (1) of this subsection,
25 the Administration shall send written notice of the proposed action to the obligee, including 26 the obligee's right to object to the proposed action and an explanation of the procedures for 27 filing an objection.

28 12-201.

29 (a) In this subtitle the following words have the meanings indicated.

30 (m) "Potential income" means income attributed to a parent determined by:

31 (1) the parent's employment potential and probable earnings level based

1 on, but not limited to:

- 2 (i) the parent's:
 - 3 1. age;
 - 4 2. physical and behavioral condition;
 - 5 3. educational attainment;
 - 6 4. special training or skills;
 - 7 5. literacy;
 - 8 6. residence;
 - 9 7. occupational qualifications and job skills;
 - 10 8. employment and earnings history;
 - 11 9. record of efforts to obtain and retain employment; and
 - 12 10. criminal record and other employment barriers; and

- 13 (ii) employment opportunities in the community where the parent
14 lives, including:
 - 15 1. the status of the job market;
 - 16 2. prevailing earnings levels; and
 - 17 3. the availability of employers willing to hire the parent;

- 18 (2) the parent's assets;
- 19 (3) the parent's actual income from all sources; and
- 20 (4) any other factor bearing on the parent's ability to obtain funds for child
21 support.

22 (q) "Voluntarily impoverished" means that a parent has made the free and
23 conscious choice, not compelled by factors beyond the parent's control, to render the parent
24 without adequate resources.

25 12-204.

- 26 (a) (1) The basic child support obligation shall be determined in accordance

1 with the schedule of basic child support obligations in subsection (e) of this section. The
2 basic child support obligation shall be divided between the parents in proportion to their
3 adjusted actual incomes.

4 (2) (i) If one or both parents have made a request for alimony or
5 maintenance in the proceeding in which a child support award is sought, the court shall
6 decide the issue and amount of alimony or maintenance before determining the child
7 support obligation under these guidelines.

8 (ii) If the court awards alimony or maintenance, the amount of 9 alimony or maintenance awarded shall be considered actual income for the recipient of the 10 alimony or maintenance and shall be subtracted from the income of the payor of the alimony
11 or maintenance under § 12–201(c)(2) of this subtitle before the court determines the amount
12 of a child support award.

13 (b) (1) (I) Except as provided in paragraph (3) of this subsection, if a parent
14 is voluntarily impoverished, child support may be calculated based on a determination of 15 potential income.

16 (II) A PARENT WHO IS INCARCERATED MAY NOT BE
17 CONSIDERED TO BE VOLUNTARILY IMPOVERISHED.

18 (2) If there is a dispute as to whether a parent is voluntarily impoverished,
19 the court shall:

20 (i) make a finding as to whether, based on the totality of the 21 circumstances, the parent is voluntarily impoverished; and

22 (ii) if the court finds that the parent is voluntarily impoverished,
23 consider the factors specified in § 12–201(m) of this subtitle in determining the amount of 24 potential income that should be imputed to the parent.

25 (3) A determination of potential income may not be made for a parent who 26 IS:

27 (i) [is] unable to work because of a physical or mental disability;
28 [or]

29 (ii) [is] caring for a child under the age of 2 years for whom the 30 parents are jointly and severally responsible; OR

31 (III) INCARCERATED.

32 SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect
33 October 1, 2024.
