5 SECTION 1. BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND,
6 That the Laws of Maryland read as follows:

7 Article – Business Regulation

8 6–407.

9 (a) A charitable organization that collects less than $25,000 in charitable 10 contributions from the public in a year need not pay an annual fee, except that, if the 11 charitable organization uses a professional solicitor, it shall pay an annual fee of $50.

12 (b) (1) Each charitable organization that submits a separate registration
13 statement and collects at least $25,000 in charitable contributions from the public in a year
14 shall pay an annual fee based on the charitable contributions collected.

15 (2) The annual fee shall be:

16 (i) $50, if charitable contributions from the public are at least
17 $25,000 but less than $50,001;

18 (ii) $75, if charitable contributions from the public are at least
19 $50,001 but less than $75,001;

20 (iii) $100, if charitable contributions from the public are at least
21 $75,001 but less than $100,001;

22 (iv) $200, if charitable contributions from the public are at least 23 $100,001 but less than $500,001; and

24 (v) $300, if charitable contributions from the public are at least
25 $500,001.

26 (c) (1) [An] A CHARITABLE organization failing to file an annual report
27 either by the end of the 6–month period after the end of the charitable organization’s fiscal
28 year or within any period of extension granted shall pay, in addition to the annual fee, $25
29 for each month or part thereof after the date on which the annual report was due to be filed
30 or after the period of extension granted for such filing.

31 (2) The late fee shall be assessed 60 days after:

32 (i) the end of the 6th month after the end of the fiscal year; or

1 (ii) the period of extension.

2 (3) Failure to remit an assessed late fee is a violation of this title.
