1 (a) (1) On receipt of an order by an administrative law judge granting a
2 petition under subsection (b) of this section, the Board of Public Works shall compensate
3 an individual erroneously convicted, sentenced, and confined under State law for a crime
4 the individual did not commit in an amount equal to the product of the total number of days
5 that the individual was wrongfully confined after the erroneous conviction multiplied by a 6 daily rate of the State's most recent annual median household income as published in the 7 American Community Survey of the U.S. Census Bureau in the year the order of eligibility 8 is issued under subsection (b) of this section and divided by 365 days to the nearest whole 9 cent.

10 (2) In addition to the compensation awarded under paragraph (1) of this 11 subsection, the administrative law judge issuing an order under subsection (b) of this 12 section may direct the appropriate State agency or service provider to provide to the 13 individual free of charge any of the following benefits:

14 (i) a State identification card and any other document necessary for 15 the individual's health or welfare on the individual's release from confinement;

27 or the Baltimore City Community College for a period of enrollment not exceeding [5] 8 28 years; and

29 (vi) reimbursement for court fines, fees, and restitution paid by the 30 individual for the crime for which the individual was erroneously convicted, sentenced, and 31 confined.

32 (3) (i) If an individual previously received a monetary award from a 33 civil suit or entered into a settlement agreement with the State or a political subdivision of 34 the State for an erroneous conviction, sentence, or confinement, the amount owed to the 35 individual under this subsection shall be reduced by the amount of the monetary award or 36 settlement that was paid to the individual less any amount paid for attorney's fees and 37 costs for litigating the award or settlement.

1 (ii) 1. If, after receiving compensation under this subsection, an 2 individual receives a monetary award from a civil suit or enters into a settlement
3 agreement with the State or a political subdivision of the State for an erroneous conviction,
4 sentence, or confinement, the individual shall reimburse the State the amount of money 5 paid under this section less any amount paid for attorney's fees and costs for litigating the 6 award or settlement.

7 2. Reimbursement required under subparagraph 1 of this 8 subparagraph may not exceed the amount of the monetary award the individual received 9 in the civil suit or settlement agreement.

10 3. The State may obtain a lien against the monetary award
11 from a civil suit or settlement agreement to satisfy an obligation under subparagraph 1 12 of this subparagraph.

13 (4) [An individual may not receive compensation under this subsection for 14 any period of confinement during which the individual was concurrently serving a sentence 15 for a conviction of another offense for which the individual was lawfully convicted and 16 confined.
