

STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD

TWO THOUSAND TWENTY-FOUR

JOINT RESOLUTION RECOGNIZING MAY 5-11, 2024 AS MAINE
HOMESCHOOL EDUCATION WEEK

WHEREAS, homeschooling has become an integral part of the State's educational landscape, providing families with the flexibility and autonomy to tailor educational experiences to meet the diverse needs of their children; and

WHEREAS, homeschooling empowers parents to actively engage in their children's education, foster strong family bonds and promote lifelong learning; and

WHEREAS, homeschooling encourages academic excellence, creativity, critical thinking skills and character development, preparing students for success in higher education, careers and civic life; and

WHEREAS, homeschooling promotes diversity, inclusivity and respect for individual differences, creating a rich and vibrant educational environment that celebrates the unique talents and perspectives of each student; and

WHEREAS, homeschooling has demonstrated its resilience and adaptability, providing continuity of education and stability for students and families, especially during times of crisis such as the COVID-19 pandemic, with 2023 homeschool enrollment totaling 10,122 students; and

WHEREAS, homeschooling fosters civic engagement, community involvement and a deep appreciation for the values of citizenship and service, contributing to the well-being and prosperity of the State; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED: That We, the Members of the One Hundred and Thirty-first Legislature now assembled in the Second Regular Session, on behalf of the people we represent, take this opportunity to recognize the week of May 5, 2024 to May 11, 2024 as Maine Homeschool Education Week; and be it further

RESOLVED: That we acknowledge and celebrate the diversity and achievements of homeschooling families, recognize the dedication and commitment of homeschooling parents and educators and express gratitude for their invaluable contributions to the education and development of the State's youth.
