ROBERT B. HUNT
Clerk

Presented by Representative COLLINGS of Portland.
Cosponsored by Senator BALDACCI of Penobscot and Representative: TALBOT ROSS of Portland.

1           Emergency preamble. Whereas, acts and resolves of the Legislature do not 2 become effective until 90 days after adjournment unless enacted as emergencies; and

3           Whereas, this legislation needs to take effect before the expiration of the 90-day 4 period in order to protect the health and safety of tenants and maintain their access to 5 housing during the state of emergency that has been declared and renewed by the Governor; 6 and

7           Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within 8 the meaning of the Constitution of Maine and require the following legislation as 9 immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, 10 therefore,

11 Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

12           Sec. 1. 14 MRSA §6016-B is enacted to read:

13 §6016-B. Remedy limited during state of emergency

14           During a state of emergency proclaimed by the Governor pursuant to Title 37-B, 15 section 742, the process of forcible entry and detainer may not be commenced or 16 maintained and judgment for forcible entry and detainer may not be granted for failure of 17 a tenant to pay rent.

18           Sec. 2. 35-A MRSA §704, sub-§1, as amended by PL 1999, c. 398, Pt. A, §18 and 19 affected by §§104 and 105, is further amended to read:

20           1. Residential customers. The commission shall adopt and promulgate reasonable 21 rules after a hearing concerning the termination or disconnection of any residential 22 customer's service by a transmission and distribution, gas, water or telephone utility of the 23 State. These rules apply generally to all such utilities within the commission's jurisdiction 24 and must provide for adequate written notice by that utility to the residential customer that 25 the customer's utility bill has not been paid, and a notice of the prospective termination or 26 disconnection and the right, prior to disconnection, to enter into reasonable installment 27 payment arrangements with that utility; to settle any dispute concerning the proposed 28 disconnection at an informal hearing with that utility and to appeal the results of that 29 utility's decision to the commission. The rules must also provide that there may be no 30 termination or disconnection during a limited medical emergency and for a just and 31 reasonable procedure regarding reconnections of utility service and deposit requirements.
32 The rules must also provide that there may be no termination or disconnection during a 33 state of emergency proclaimed by the Governor pursuant to Title 37-B, section 742.

34           Emergency clause. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this legislation 35 takes effect when approved.

36 SUMMARY

37           This bill provides that during a state of emergency proclaimed by the Governor, the 38 process of forcible entry and detainer may not be commenced or maintained and judgment 39 for forcible entry and detainer may not be granted for failure of a tenant to pay rent. It also 40 provides that a utility regulated by the Public Utilities Commission may not terminate or 41 disconnect utility service for a residential customer during a state of emergency proclaimed
42 by the Governor.
