SUBPART 2

JURISDICTION

§ 5-521. Definitions; significant connection factors

(a). As used in this subpart, unless the context otherwise indicates, the following terms have the following meanings.

(1). "Emergency" means a circumstance that likely will result in substantial harm to a respondent's health, safety or welfare, and for which the appointment of a guardian is necessary because no other person has authority and is willing to act on the respondent's behalf.

(2). "Home state" means the state in which the respondent was physically present, including any period of temporary absence, for at least 6 consecutive months immediately before the filing of a petition for a protective order or the appointment of a guardian or, if none, the state in which the respondent was physically present, including any period of temporary absence, for at least 6 consecutive months ending within the 6 months prior to the filing of the petition.

(3). "Significant-connection state" means a state, other than the home state, with which a respondent has a significant connection other than mere physical presence and in which substantial evidence concerning the respondent is available.

(b). In determining under section 5523 and section 5531, subsection (e) whether a respondent has a significant connection with a particular state, the court shall consider:

(1). The location of the respondent's family and other persons required to be notified of the guardianship or protective proceeding;

(2). The length of time the respondent at any time was physically present in the state and the duration of any absence;

(3). The location of the respondent's property; and

(4). The extent to which the respondent has ties to the state such as voting registration, state or local tax return filing, vehicle registration, driver's license, social relationship and receipt of services.

§ 5-522. Exclusive basis

This subpart provides the exclusive jurisdictional basis for a court of this State to appoint a guardian or issue a protective order for an adult.

§ 5-523. Jurisdiction

A court of this State has jurisdiction to appoint a guardian or issue a protective order for a respondent if:

(a). This State is the respondent's home state;

(b). On the date the petition is filed, this State is a significant-connection state and:

(1). The respondent does not have a home state or a court of the respondent's home state has declined to exercise jurisdiction because this State is a more appropriate forum;

(2). The respondent has a home state, a petition for an appointment or order is not pending in a court of that state or another significant-connection state and, before the court makes the appointment or issues the order:

(i) A petition for an appointment or order is not filed in the respondent's home state;

(ii) An objection to the court's jurisdiction is not filed by a person required to be notified of the proceeding; and

(iii) The court in this State concludes that it is an appropriate forum under the factors set forth in section 5526;

(3). This State does not have jurisdiction under either paragraph (1) or (2), the respondent's home state and all significant-connection states have declined to exercise jurisdiction because this State is the more appropriate forum and jurisdiction in this State is consistent with the constitutions of this State and the United States; or

(4). The requirements for special jurisdiction under section 5524 are met.

§ 5-524. Special jurisdiction

(a). A court of this State lacking jurisdiction under section 5-523, subsections (a) to (c) has special jurisdiction to do any of the following:

(1). Appoint a guardian in an emergency for a term not exceeding 90 days for a respondent who is physically present in this State;

(2). Issue a protective order with respect to real or tangible personal property located in this State; or

(3). Appoint a guardian or conservator for an incapacitated person or protected person for whom a provisional order to transfer the proceeding from another state has been issued under procedures similar to section 5-531.

(b). If a petition for the appointment of a guardian in an emergency is brought in this State and this State was not the respondent's home state on the date the petition was filed, the court shall dismiss the proceeding at the request of the court of the home state, if any, whether dismissal is requested before or after the emergency appointment.

§ 5-525. Exclusive and continuing jurisdiction

Except as otherwise provided in section 5524, a court that has appointed a guardian or issued a protective order consistent with this Part has exclusive and continuing jurisdiction over the proceeding until it is terminated by the court or the appointment or order expires by its own terms.

§ 5-526. Appropriate forum

(a). A court of this State having jurisdiction under section 5523 to appoint a guardian or issue a protective order may decline to exercise its jurisdiction if it determines at any time that a court of another state is a more appropriate forum.

(b). If a court of this State declines to exercise its jurisdiction under subsection (a), it shall either dismiss or stay the proceeding. The court may impose any condition the court considers just and proper, including the condition that a petition for the appointment of a guardian or issuance of a protective order be filed promptly in another state.

(c). In determining whether it is an appropriate forum, the court shall consider all relevant factors, including:

- (1). Any expressed preference of the respondent;
- (2). Whether abuse, neglect or exploitation of the respondent has occurred or is likely to occur and which state could best protect the respondent from the abuse, neglect or exploitation;
- (3). The length of time the respondent was physically present in or was a legal resident of this State or another state;
- (4). The distance of the respondent from the court in each state;
- (5). The financial circumstances of the respondent's estate;
- (6). The nature and location of the evidence;
- (7). The ability of the court in each state to decide the issue expeditiously and the procedures necessary to present evidence;
- (8). The familiarity of the court of each state with the facts and issues in the proceeding; and
- (9). If an appointment were made, the court's ability to monitor the conduct of the guardian or conservator.

§ 5-527. Jurisdiction declined by reason of conduct

(a). If at any time a court of this State determines that it acquired jurisdiction to appoint a guardian or issue a protective order because of unjustifiable conduct, the court may:

- (1). Decline to exercise jurisdiction;
- (2). Exercise jurisdiction for the limited purpose of fashioning an appropriate remedy to ensure the health, safety and welfare of the respondent or the protection of the respondent's property or prevent a repetition of the unjustifiable conduct, including staying the proceeding until a petition for the appointment of a guardian or issuance of a protective order is filed in a court of another state having jurisdiction; or
- (3). Continue to exercise jurisdiction after considering:

(i) The extent to which the respondent and all persons required to be notified of the proceedings have acquiesced in the exercise of the court's jurisdiction;

(ii) Whether it is a more appropriate forum than the court of any other state under the factors set forth in section 5526, subsection (c); and

(iii) Whether the court of any other state would have jurisdiction under factual circumstances in substantial conformity with the jurisdictional standards of section 5-523.

(b). If a court of this State determines that it acquired jurisdiction to appoint a guardian or issue a protective order because a party seeking to invoke its jurisdiction engaged in unjustifiable conduct, it may assess against that party necessary and reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, investigative fees, court costs, communication expenses, witness fees and expenses and travel expenses. The court may not assess fees, costs or expenses of any kind against this State or a governmental subdivision, agency or instrumentality of this State unless authorized by law other than this Part.

§ 5-528. Notice of proceeding

If a petition for the appointment of a guardian or issuance of a protective order is brought in this State and this State was not the respondent's home state on the date the petition was filed, in addition to complying with the notice requirements of this State, notice of the petition must be given to those persons who would be entitled to notice of the petition if a proceeding were brought in the respondent's home state. The notice must be given in the same manner as notice is required to be given in this State.

§ 5-529. Proceedings in more than one state

Except for a petition for the appointment of a guardian in an emergency or issuance of a protective order limited to property located in this State under section 5524, subsection (a), paragraph (1) or (2), if a petition for the appointment of a guardian or issuance of a protective order is filed in this State and in another state and neither petition has been dismissed or withdrawn, the following apply:

(a). If the court in this State has jurisdiction under section 5523, it may proceed with the case unless a court in another state acquires jurisdiction under provisions similar to section 5523 before the appointment or issuance of the order.

(b). If the court in this State does not have jurisdiction under section 5523, whether at the time the petition is filed or at any time before the appointment or issuance of the order, the court shall stay the proceeding and communicate with the court in the other state. If the court in the other state has jurisdiction, the court in this State shall dismiss the petition unless the court in the other state determines that the court in this State is a more appropriate forum.

SUBPART 3

TRANSFER OF GUARDIANSHIP OR CONSERVATORSHIP

§ 5-531. Transfer of guardianship or conservatorship to another state

(a). A guardian or conservator appointed in this State may petition the court to transfer the guardianship or conservatorship to another state.

(b). Notice of a petition under subsection (a) must be given to the persons that would be entitled to notice of a petition in this State for the appointment of a guardian or conservator.

(c). On the court's own motion or on request of the guardian or conservator, the incapacitated person or protected person or other person required to be notified of the petition, the court shall hold a hearing on a petition filed pursuant to subsection (a).

(d). The court shall issue an order provisionally granting a petition to transfer a guardianship and shall direct the guardian to petition for guardianship in the other state if the court is satisfied that the guardianship will be accepted by the court in the other state and the court finds that:

(1). The incapacitated person is physically present in or is reasonably expected to move permanently to the other state;

(2). An objection to the transfer has not been made or, if an objection has been made, the objector has not established that the transfer would be contrary to the interests of the incapacitated person; and

(3). Plans for care and services for the incapacitated person in the other state are reasonable and sufficient.

(e). The court shall issue a provisional order granting a petition to transfer a conservatorship and shall direct the conservator to petition for conservatorship in the other state if the court is satisfied that the conservatorship will be accepted by the court of the other state and the court finds that:

(1). The protected person is physically present in or is reasonably expected to move permanently to the other state, or the protected person has a significant connection to the other state considering the factors in section 5-521, subsection (b);

(2). An objection to the transfer has not been made or, if an objection has been made, the objector has not established that the transfer would be contrary to the interests of the protected person; and

(3). Adequate arrangements will be made for management of the protected person's property.

(f). The court shall issue a final order confirming the transfer and terminating the guardianship or conservatorship upon its receipt of:

(1). A provisional order accepting the proceeding from the court to which the proceeding is to be transferred that is issued under provisions similar to section 5532; and

(2). The documents required to terminate a guardianship or conservatorship in this State.

§ 5-532. Accepting guardianship or conservatorship transferred from another state

(a). To confirm transfer of a guardianship or conservatorship transferred to this State under provisions similar to section 5-531, the guardian or conservator must petition the court in this State to accept the guardianship or conservatorship. The petition must include a certified copy of the other state's provisional order of transfer.

(b). Notice of a petition under subsection (a) must be given to those persons that would be entitled to notice if the petition were a petition for the appointment of a guardian or issuance of a protective order in both the transferring state and this State. The notice must be given in the same manner as notice is required to be given in this State.

(c). On the court's own motion or on request of the guardian or conservator, the incapacitated person or protected person or other person required to be notified of the proceeding, the court shall hold a hearing on a petition filed pursuant to subsection (a).

(d). The court shall issue an order provisionally granting a petition filed under subsection (a) unless:

(1). An objection is made and the objector establishes that transfer of the proceeding would be contrary to the interests of the incapacitated person or protected person; or

(2). The guardian or conservator is ineligible for appointment in this State.

(e). The court shall issue a final order accepting the proceeding and appointing the guardian or conservator as guardian or conservator in this State upon its receipt from the court from which the proceeding is being transferred of a final order issued under provisions similar to section 5-531 transferring the proceeding to this State.

(f). Not later than 90 days after issuance of a final order accepting transfer of a guardianship or conservatorship, the court shall determine whether the guardianship or conservatorship needs to be modified to conform to the law of this State.

(g). In granting a petition under this section, the court shall recognize a guardianship or conservatorship order from the other state, including the determination of the incapacitated person's or protected person's incapacity and the appointment of the guardian or conservator.

(h). The denial by a court of this State of a petition to accept a guardianship or conservatorship transferred from another state does not affect the ability of the guardian or conservator to seek appointment as guardian or conservator in this State under Part 3 or 4 if the court has jurisdiction to make an appointment other than by reason of the provisional order of transfer.

SUBPART 4

REGISTRATION AND RECOGNITION OF ORDERS FROM OTHER STATES

§ 5-541. Registration of guardianship

§ 5-542. Registration of protective orders

§ 5-543. Effect of registration

(a). Upon registration of a guardianship or protective order from another state, the guardian or conservator may exercise in this State all powers authorized in the order of appointment except as prohibited under the laws of this State, including maintaining actions and proceedings in this State and, if the guardian or conservator is not a resident of this State, subject to any conditions imposed upon nonresident parties.

(b). A court of this State may grant any relief available under this Part and other law of this State to enforce a registered order.

SUMMARY

This bill enacts the Uniform Adult Guardianship and Protective Proceedings Jurisdiction Act as a new Part of Article 5 of the Probate Code. The uniform comments adopted by the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws are included.

The bill addresses the issue of jurisdiction over adult guardianships, conservatorships and other protective proceedings, providing an effective mechanism for resolving multistate jurisdictional disputes. It contains specific guidelines to specify which court has jurisdiction to appoint a guardian or conservator for an incapacitated adult. The objective is that only one state will have jurisdiction at any one time.

The bill takes effect January 1, 2012, but applies to all guardianships and conservatorships, including those created prior to that date.
