1 Emergency preamble. Whereas, acts and resolves of the Legislature do not 2 become effective until 90 days after adjournment unless enacted as emergencies; and Whereas, this legislation increases the amount of wood pellets presumed to meet the 3 4 requirement of residential use and thus to qualify for a sales tax exemption; and 5 Whereas, in order to be in effect for this winter season and to allow citizens of the State to benefit from this exemption; and 6 7 Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine and require the following legislation as 8 immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, 9 10 therefore. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows: 11 Sec. 1. 36 MRSA §1760, sub-§9, as amended by PL 2009, c. 625, §7, is further 12 13 amended to read: 14 9. Coal, oil and wood. Coal, oil, wood and all other fuels, except gas and electricity, when bought for cooking and heating in buildings designed and used for both 15 human habitation and sleeping. Kerosene or home heating oil that is prepackaged or 16 17 dispensed from a tank for retail sale in containers with a capacity of 5 gallons or less is presumed to meet the requirements of this subsection. A purchase of 200 2,000 pounds 18 or less of wood pellets or of any 100% compressed wood product intended for use in a 19 20 wood stove or fireplace is presumed to meet the requirements of this subsection. 21 Emergency clause. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this legislation takes effect when approved. 22 23 SUMMARY 24 Currently, in order to qualify for a sales tax exemption on the purchase of wood pellets for residential use, customers purchasing more than 200 pounds of wood pellets 25 26 for residential cooking or heating must sign an affidavit or a log. This bill increases the amount of wood pellets presumed to meet the requirement of residential use, and thus to 27 28 qualify for the sales tax exemption, from 200 pounds to 2,000 pounds.
