SUMMARY

2 This bill provides that if the State pleads and proves that a gross sexual assault was 3 committed against an individual who had not yet attained 12 years of age, the court is 4 required to impose a definite term of imprisonment of not less than 25 years, none of which 5 may be suspended. It also provides that, in the case of a gross sexual assault committed 6 against an individual who had not yet attained 12 years of age when the defendant had 7 previously been convicted and sentenced for committing gross sexual assault, formerly 8 denominated as gross sexual misconduct, or rape against an individual who had not yet 9 attained 12 years of age or that the defendant had previously been convicted and sentenced 10 for engaging in substantially similar conduct in another jurisdiction against an individual 11 who had not yet attained 12 years of age, the court is required to instead impose a term of 12 imprisonment for life. It also provides that, in the case of aggravated sex trafficking for 13 which the State pleads and proves that the defendant knowingly promoted prostitution of a 14 person who had not yet attained 12 years of age, the court is required to set a definite term 15 of imprisonment of not less than 25 years, none of which may be suspended.
