5.18 filing officer must immediately be paid to the commissioner of management and budget, 5.19 who must deposit them in the state treasury and credit them to the judicial performance 5.20 evaluation fee account established by section 480B.05, subdivision 2.

6.21 (b) If a majority of those voting on the question votes "No," then upon the expiration 6.22 of the term for which the judge was serving, a vacancy exists, which must be filled as 6.23 provided by law. If a majority of those voting on the question votes "Yes," the judge shall 6.24 remain in office for an eight-year term, subject to removal as provided by the Minnesota 6.25 Constitution. A judge who loses a retention election is ineligible to be appointed to fill the 6.26 resulting vacancy.

6.27 (c) A judge seeking to retain judicial office is considered a candidate for election to 6.28 that office. A judicial retention election is not a ballot question for the purposes of the 6.29 Minnesota Election law.

6.30 Sec. 13. [480B.02] INDEPENDENT JUDICIAL PERFORMANCE
6.31 COMMISSION.

6.32 Subdivision 1. Establishment. An Independent Judicial Performance Evaluation 6.33 Commission is established and shall be an independent body not subject to the direct 6.34 control of any branch of government.

7.1 Subd. 2. Purpose of commission. After public hearings, the commission shall 7.2 adopt and administer for all judges a process for evaluating judicial performance.
7.3 The performance review process must be designed to assist voters in evaluating the 7.4 performance of judges standing for retention, facilitate self-improvement of all judges, 7.5 and promote public accountability of the judiciary.

7.6 Subd. 3. Composition; appointment of commission members. (a) The 7.7 commission is composed of 24 members. All members of the commission must be 7.8 residents of Minnesota at the time of their appointment and for the duration of their term.
7.9 Sitting judges and public officials, as defined in section 10A.01, subdivision 35, may not 7.10 be appointed or serve on the commission. Members of the commission who are attorneys 7.11 at the time of their appointment must have been admitted to practice before the Minnesota 7.12 Supreme Court for not less than five years. Members of the commission are eligible for 7.13 reappointment up to two additional full terms.

7.14 (b) Members of the commission must be appointed and serve as follows:

7.15 (1) the governor shall appoint a total of eight members, no more than four of whom 7.16 may be attorneys at the time of their appointment. Gubernatorial appointees serve on the 7.17 commission until the governor who made the appointment leaves office or for a term of 7.18 four years, whichever comes first;

7.19 (2) the Supreme Court shall appoint a total of eight members. The court shall 7.20 designate one of the appointees to serve as chair of the commission. No more than four of 7.21 the appointees may be attorneys at the time of their appointment. The Supreme Court's 7.22 appointees serve on the commission for a four-year term; and 7.23 (3) the legislature shall appoint a total of eight members, no more than four of 7.24 whom may be attorneys at the time of their appointment. Legislative appointments must 7.25 be made sequentially as follows: the speaker of the house shall appoint one member, the 7.26 majority leader of the senate shall appoint one member, the minority leader of the house 7.27 of representatives shall appoint one member, and the minority leader of the senate shall 7.28 appoint one member. After each legislative leader has made one appointment as provided 7.29 in this clause, a second round of appointments must be made in the same sequence.

7.30 Legislative appointees serve on the commission for a two-year term.

7.31 In the case of a vacancy on the commission, the authority who appointed the 7.32 member whose seat has become vacant shall appoint a person to fill the vacancy for the 7.33 remainder of the unexpired term.

7.34 (c) In making appointments, the governor, Supreme Court, and legislative leaders 7.35 must consider the diversity of the state's population, as well as the importance of balanced 7.36 geographic representation, and appoint individuals of outstanding competence and 8.1 reputation. The governor, Supreme Court, and legislative leaders should consult with one 8.2 another to ensure the requirements of this paragraph are met.

8.3 (d) Members shall perform their duties in an impartial and objective manner and 8.4 shall base their recommendations solely upon matters that are in the record developed 8.5 by the commission. A member who violates this paragraph may be removed from the 8.6 commission by majority vote of the commission's membership.

8.7 (e) A member may be removed by the appointing authority at any time for cause, 8.8 after notice and hearing, or after missing three consecutive meetings. After a member 8.9 misses two consecutive meetings and before the next meeting, the secretary of the 8.10 commission shall notify the member in writing that the member may be removed if the 8.11 member misses the next meeting. The chair of the commission shall inform the appointing 8.12 authority if a member misses three consecutive meetings.

8.13 (f) Commission members shall serve without compensation but may be reimbursed 8.14 for expenses associated with their work on the commission.

8.15 (g) The commission shall appoint an executive secretary to provide administrative 8.16 assistance and coordinate the work of the commission.

8.17 Subd. 4. Meetings and data. Meetings of the Independent Judicial Performance 8.18 Commission are subject to the requirements of chapter 13D, except that a meeting held to 8.19 evaluate the performance of a judge may only be closed to discuss issues related to the 8.20 judge's health or allegations against the judge that may be defamatory. The commission is 8.21 subject to the requirements of chapter 13. Except as otherwise provided in this section, 8.22 data of the commission are public data pursuant to section 13.03, subdivision 1.

8.23 Subd. 5. Standards and procedures. (a) The Independent Judicial Performance
8.24 Commission shall develop written standards, subject to approval of the Supreme Court 8.25 in their entirety, by which judicial performance is to be evaluated. The standards must 8.26 be periodically updated and must include knowledge of the law, procedure, integrity, 8.27 impartiality, temperament, respect for litigants, respect for the rule of law, administrative 8.28 skill, punctuality, and communication skills. The commission may not evaluate judicial 8.29 performance based on substantive legal issues or opinions subject to standard appellate 8.30 processes.

8.31 (b) The commission shall adopt procedures for collecting information and 8.32 conducting reviews and shall create and implement a program of periodic review of the 8.33 performance of each judge. The commission must request public comment on these 8.34 procedures before their adoption.

8.35 Subd. 6. Surveys. (a) Midway through a judge's term and again no fewer than nine 8.36 months before the date of the election for retention of the judge's position, the commission

9.1 must distribute anonymous survey forms eliciting performance evaluations of the judge to 9.2 a representative sampling of attorneys, litigants, other judges, and other persons who have 9.3 been in direct contact with the judge being evaluated and who have direct knowledge of 9.4 the judge's judicial performance during the evaluation period.

9.5 (b) The commission must employ or contract with qualified individuals to prepare 9.6 survey forms, process responses, and compile the statistical reports of the survey results in 9.7 a manner that ensures confidentiality and accuracy.

9.8 (c) Each survey conducted must seek evaluations in accordance with the written 9.9 performance standards adopted as provided in paragraph (a) and must solicit narrative 9.10 comments regarding the judge's performance. Narrative comments contained in a survey 9.11 response are private data on the judge, as defined in section 13.02, subdivision 12. Other 9.12 data on an individual who completes or responds to a survey form are private data on 9.13 that individual.

9.14 Subd. 7. Midterm evaluation. The commission shall evaluate each judge halfway 9.15 through the judge's term, as nearly as practicable, to provide feedback to the judge about 9.16 the judge's performance and to give the judge an opportunity for improvement. The 9.17 commission shall adopt procedures for conducting the midterm evaluation.

9.18 Subd. 8. Retention-year evaluation. (a) In each year in which a judge has the 9.19 opportunity to file as a candidate for retention, the Independent Judicial Performance 9.20 Commission must conduct a final evaluation of the judge and determine whether the 9.21 judge meets or does not meet judicial performance standards. Upon completion of 9.22 the evaluation, the commission must rate the judge "well-qualified," "qualified," or 9.23 "unqualified" for office. A rating of "unqualified" does not prohibit a judge from seeking 9.24 retention by the voters.

9.25 (b) The final evaluation of a judge must include a public hearing and an opportunity 9.26 for submission of written public comments on the performance of a judge standing for 9.27 retention. Before accepting public comment and conducting a hearing, the commission 9.28 must notify each judge to be evaluated of the process for conducting the evaluation and 9.29 the right of the judge to submit written comments and appear in person at the hearing.
9.30 The hearing and evaluation may be conducted by a panel of commission members, as 9.31 provided in subdivision 9.

9.32 (c) A judge who does not intend to seek retention may waive the final evaluation 9.33 process by providing written notice to the commission affirming the judge's intention to 9.34 not file as a retention candidate for the judge's current office. If a judge waives the final 9.35 evaluation under this paragraph, the judge is not eligible to file an affidavit of candidacy 9.36 for the office and is not eligible to be appointed to fill the resulting vacancy.

10.1 Subd. 9. Evaluation panels; review by full commission. (a) The evaluation of a 10.2 judge may be conducted by an evaluation panel. An evaluation panel is composed of five 10.3 members, including at least one member appointed by each branch of government, but 10.4 otherwise chosen randomly. A panel must report its results to the full commission. The 10.5 full commission shall review a panel's evaluation if the panel rates a judge unqualified, or 10.6 if one panelist or three members of the commission request a review within 15 days after 10.7 the panel makes its report. The commission may overturn a panel's rating. If a panel's 10.8 report and rating is not reviewed, the determination of the panel is final. Decisions of an 10.9 evaluation panel or the full commission regarding a judge's performance are not subject 10.10 to judicial review.

10.11 (b) If an evaluation is reviewed by the full commission, the commission shall 10.12 provide written notice to the affected judge. The judge has the right to submit written 10.13 comments to the commission and to appear and be heard by the commission before a final 10.14 vote of the commission members regarding the judge's performance.

10.15 Subd. 10. Publication of evaluation results. Following the final evaluation of a 10.16 judge, the commission shall compile a factual report on the judicial performance of each 10.17 judge intending to stand for retention, including the final rating assigned to the judge's 10.18 performance. The report must be made available to the public at least one month before 10.19 the time period established in section 204B.09 for filing an affidavit of candidacy with 10.20 the secretary of state.

10.21 Sec. 14. [480B.03] JUDICIAL RETENTION ELECTIONS.

10.22 Judicial retention elections must be conducted consistent with the procedures 10.23 established by law for the administration of state general elections. Judges standing for 10.24 retention must be placed on the ballot as provided in section 204D.30.

10.25 Sec. 15. [480B.04] REQUIREMENTS FOR SERVICE ON COMMISSIONS.

10.26 Subdivision 1. Service on multiple commissions prohibited. A person may not 10.27 simultaneously serve on more than one commission established under this chapter.

10.28 Subd. 2. Service until appointment of successors. Members of commissions 10.29 established under this chapter continue to serve until their successors have been appointed 10.30 and qualified.

10.31 Sec. 16. [480B.05] JUDICIAL PERFORMANCE EVALUATION; FEE.

10.32 Subdivision 1. Authorization. The Supreme Court, through the Lawyer Registration 10.33 Office, may assess a judicial performance evaluation fee on each licensed attorney in the 11.1 state. If imposed, the fee must not exceed $15 and may only apply to attorneys actively 11.2 engaged in the practice of law.

11.3 Subd. 2. Creation of account. The Judicial Performance Evaluation Fee Account 11.4 is created in the special revenue fund. The state court administrator shall forward fees 11.5 collected under subdivision 1 to the commissioner of management and budget who shall 11.6 deposit them in the state treasury and credit them to the account. The judicial performance 11.7 evaluation fee collected under section 204B.11, subdivision 3, must also be credited to the 11.8 account. Money in the account is appropriated to the Independent Judicial Performance 11.9 Commission.

11.10 Sec. 17. INDEPENDENT JUDICIAL PERFORMANCE COMMISSION; FIRST 11.11 MEETING; TRANSITION.

11.12 (a) Initial appointments must be made to the Independent Judicial Performance 11.13 Commission on July 1, 2011.

11.14 (b) Initial appointees shall serve for a term ending January 15, 2013, and may be 11.15 considered for reappointment as provided in this article at that time. The chair of the 11.16 commission must convene the first full meeting of the commission no later than August 1, 11.17 2011, and appoint a secretary for the commission at that first meeting.

11.18 (c) The commission is only required to conduct a final retention-year evaluation of 11.19 each judge whose term expires on or before January 5, 2015, but may conduct an initial 11.20 evaluation of these judges to provide an opportunity for improvement if the commission 11.21 determines that it is prepared and equipped to do so. Judges whose terms expire after 11.22 January 5, 2015, are subject to both the midterm and final retention-year evaluations 11.23 required by this article.

11.24 Sec. 18. REPEALER.

11.25 Minnesota Statutes 2008, sections 204B.36, subdivision 5; and 204D.14, subdivision 11.26 3, are repealed.

11.27 Sec. 19. EFFECTIVE DATE.

11.28 This article is effective July 1, 2011, if the constitutional amendment in article
