21 3. A candidate who has more than one candidate committee supporting the person's 22 candidacy shall designate one of those candidate committees as the committee responsible for 23 consolidating the aggregate contributions to all such committees under the candidate's control 24 and direction as required by section 130.041.

25 4. (1) Every committee shall have a single official fund depository within this state 26 which shall be a federally or state-chartered bank, a federally or state-chartered savings and 37 an official depository account and the committee treasurer, deputy treasurer or candidate.

38 Contributions received by a committee shall not be commingled with any funds of an agent of 40 the candidate's own funds to the person's candidate committee shall be deposited to an official

42 committee when the office of committee treasurer is vacant except that when the office of a

50 from interest or dividends from a savings account or other investment or proceeds from 51 withdrawals from a savings account or from the sale of an investment shall not be expended 52 or reinvested, except in the case of renewals of certificates of deposit, without first 53 redepositing such proceeds in an official depository account. Investments, other than savings 54 accounts, held outside the committee's official depository account at any time during a

55 reporting period shall be disclosed by description, amount, any identifying numbers and the 66 limited purposes allowed by law. These funds may be invested only in short-term treasury 67 instruments or short-term bank certificates with durations of one year or less, or that allow the 68 removal of funds at any time without any additional financial penalty other than the loss of 69 interest income. Continuing committees, political party committees, and other committees 70 such as out-of-state committees not formed for the benefit of any single candidate or ballot
