- 17 2. For all other violations of offenses in chapters 566 and 568 not specifically listed in 18 subsection 1 of this section or for a violation of an offense committed in another state when a

26 residence of the abused child or any child care facility or school that the abused child attends,

17 2. For all other violations of offenses in chapters 566 and 568 not specifically listed in 18 subsection 1 of this section or for a violation of an offense committed in another state when a 19 child is the victim that would be a violation of chapter 566 or 568 if committed in Missouri, the 20 juvenile court may exercise its discretion regarding the placement of a child under the 21 jurisdiction of the juvenile court in a home in which a parent or any person residing in the home 22 has been found guilty of, or pled guilty to, any such offense.

23 3. If the juvenile court determines that a child has abused another child, such abusing 24 child shall be prohibited from returning to or residing in any residence located within one 25 thousand feet of the residence of the abused child, or any child care facility or school that the 26 abused child attends, until the abused child reaches eighteen years of age. The prohibitions of 27 this subsection shall not apply where the alleged abuse occurred between siblings or children 28 living in the same home.

303.025. 1. No owner of a motor vehicle registered in this state, or required to be 2 registered in this state, shall operate, register or maintain registration of a motor vehicle, or 3 permit another person to operate such vehicle, unless the owner maintains the financial 4 responsibility which conforms to the requirements of the laws of this state. No nonresident shall 5 operate or permit another person to operate in this state a motor vehicle registered to such 6 nonresident unless the nonresident maintains the financial responsibility which conforms to the 7 requirements of the laws of the nonresident's state of residence. Furthermore, no person shall 8 operate a motor vehicle owned by another with the knowledge that the owner has not maintained 9 financial responsibility unless such person has financial responsibility which covers the person's 10 operation of the other's vehicle; however, no owner or nonresident shall be in violation of this 11 subsection if he or she fails to maintain financial responsibility on a motor vehicle which is 12 inoperable or being stored and not in operation. The director may prescribe rules and regulations 13 for the implementation of this section.

14 2. A motor vehicle owner shall maintain the owner's financial responsibility in a manner 15 provided for in section 303.160, or with a motor vehicle liability policy which conforms to the 16 requirements of the laws of this state. A nonresident motor vehicle owner shall maintain the 17 owner's financial responsibility which conforms to the requirements of the laws of the 18 nonresident's state of residence.

19 3. Any person who violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor. A first violation of 20 this section shall be punishable as a class D misdemeanor. A second or subsequent violation of 21 this section shall be punishable ~~[by imprisonment in the county jail for a term not to exceed~~ 22 ~~fifteen days and/or a fine not to exceed five hundred dollars]~~ as a class C misdemeanor. Prior 23 pleas of guilty and prior findings of guilty shall be pleaded and proven in the same manner as 24 required by section 558.021. However, no person shall be found guilty of violating this section 25 if the operator demonstrates to the court that he or she met the financial responsibility 26 requirements of this section at the time the peace officer, commercial vehicle enforcement officer 27 or commercial vehicle inspector wrote the citation. In addition to any other authorized 28 punishment, the court shall notify the director of revenue of any person convicted pursuant to this 29 section and shall do one of the following:

30 (1) Enter an order suspending the driving privilege as of the date of the court order. If 31 the court orders the suspension of the driving privilege, the court shall require the defendant to 32 surrender to it any driver's license then held by such person. The length of the suspension shall 33 be as prescribed in subsection 2 of section 303.042. The court shall forward to the director of 34 revenue the order of suspension of driving privilege and any license surrendered within ten days;

35 (2) Forward the record of the conviction for an assessment of four points;

36 (3) In lieu of an assessment of points, render an order of supervision as provided in 37 section 302.303. An order of supervision shall not be used in lieu of points more than one time 38 in any thirty-six-month period. Every court having jurisdiction pursuant to the provisions of this 39 section shall forward a record of conviction to the Missouri state highway patrol, or at the written 40 direction of the Missouri state highway patrol, to the department of revenue, in a manner 41 approved by the director of the department of public safety. The director shall establish 42 procedures for the record keeping and administration of this section; or 43 (4) For a nonresident, suspend the nonresident's driving privileges in this state in 44 accordance with section 303.030 and notify the official in charge of the issuance of licenses and 45 registration certificates in the state in which such nonresident resides in accordance with section 46 303.080.

47 4. Nothing in sections 303.010 to 303.050, 303.060, 303.140, 303.220, 303.290, 303.330 48 and 303.370 shall be construed as prohibiting the department of insurance, financial institutions 49 and professional registration from approving or authorizing those exclusions and limitations 50 which are contained in automobile liability insurance policies and the uninsured motorist 51 provisions of automobile liability insurance policies.

52 5. If a court enters an order of suspension, the offender may appeal such order directly 53 pursuant to chapter 512 and the provisions of section 302.311 shall not apply.

452.375. 1. As used in this chapter, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

2 (1) "Custody" means joint legal custody, sole legal custody, joint physical custody or 3 sole physical custody or any combination thereof;

4 (2) "Joint legal custody" means that the parents share the decision-making rights, 5 responsibilities, and authority relating to the health, education and welfare of the child, and, 6 unless allocated, apportioned, or decreed, the parents shall confer with one another in the 7 exercise of decision-making rights, responsibilities, and authority;

8 (3) "Joint physical custody" means an order awarding each of the parents significant, but 9 not necessarily equal, periods of time during which a child resides with or is under the care and 10 supervision of each of the parents. Joint physical custody shall be shared by the parents in such 11 a way as to assure the child of frequent, continuing and meaningful contact with both parents;

12 (4) "Third-party custody" means a third party designated as a legal and physical 13 custodian pursuant to subdivision (5) of subsection 5 of this section.

14 2. The court shall determine custody in accordance with the best interests of the child.
15 When the parties have not reached an agreement on all issues related to custody, the court shall 16 consider all relevant factors and enter written findings of fact and conclusions of law, including, 17 but not limited to, the following:

18 (1) The wishes of the child's parents as to custody and the proposed parenting plan 19 submitted by both parties;

20 (2) The needs of the child for a frequent, continuing and meaningful relationship with 21 both parents and the ability and willingness of parents to actively perform their functions as 22 mother and father for the needs of the child;

23 (3) The interaction and interrelationship of the child with parents, siblings, and any other 24 person who may significantly affect the child's best interests;

25 (4) Which parent is more likely to allow the child frequent, continuing and meaningful 26 contact with the other parent;

27 (5) The child's adjustment to the child's home, school, and community;

28 (6) The mental and physical health of all individuals involved, including any history of 29 abuse of any individuals involved. If the court finds that a pattern of domestic violence as 30 defined in section 455.010 has occurred, and, if the court also finds that awarding custody to the 31 abusive parent is in the best interest of the child, then the court shall enter written findings of fact 32 and conclusions of law. Custody and visitation rights shall be ordered in a manner that best 33 protects the child and any other child or children for whom the parent has custodial or visitation 34 rights, and the parent or other family or household member who is the victim of domestic 35 violence from any further harm;

36 (7) The intention of either parent to relocate the principal residence of the child; and 37 (8) The wishes of a child as to the child's custodian. The fact that a parent sends his or 38 her child or children to a home school, as defined in section 167.031, shall not be the sole factor 39 that a court considers in determining custody of such child or children.

40           3. (1) In any court proceedings relating to custody of a child, the court shall not award 41 custody or unsupervised visitation of a child to a parent if such parent or any person residing with 42 such parent has been found guilty of, or pled guilty to, any of the following offenses when a child 43 was the victim:

44           (a) A felony violation of section 566.030, 566.032, 566.031, 566.060, 566.062, 566.064, 45 566.067, 566.068, 566.061, 566.083, 566.101, 566.100, 566.111, 566.151, 566.203, 566.206, 46 566.209, 566.210, 566.211, or 566.215;

47           (b) A violation of section 568.020;

48           (c) A violation of subdivision (2) of subsection 1 of section 568.060;

49           (d) A violation of section 568.065;

50           (e) A violation of section 573.200;

51           (f) A violation of section 573.205; or 52           (g) A violation of section 568.175.

53           (2) For all other violations of offenses in chapters 566 and 568 not specifically listed in 54 subdivision (1) of this subsection or for a violation of an offense committed in another state 55 when a child is the victim that would be a violation of chapter 566 or 568 if committed in 56 Missouri, the court may exercise its discretion in awarding custody or visitation of a child to a 57 parent if such parent or any person residing with such parent has been found guilty of, or pled 58 guilty to, any such offense.

59           4. The general assembly finds and declares that it is the public policy of this state that 60 frequent, continuing and meaningful contact with both parents after the parents have separated 61 or dissolved their marriage is in the best interest of the child, except for cases where the court 62 specifically finds that such contact is not in the best interest of the child, and that it is the public 63 policy of this state to encourage parents to participate in decisions affecting the health, education 64 and welfare of their children, and to resolve disputes involving their children amicably through 65 alternative dispute resolution. In order to effectuate these policies, the court shall determine the 66 custody arrangement which will best assure both parents participate in such decisions and have 67 frequent, continuing and meaningful contact with their children so long as it is in the best 68 interests of the child.

69           5. Prior to awarding the appropriate custody arrangement in the best interest of the child, 70 the court shall consider each of the following as follows:

71           (1) Joint physical and joint legal custody to both parents, which shall not be denied 72 solely for the reason that one parent opposes a joint physical and joint legal custody award. The 73 residence of one of the parents shall be designated as the address of the child for mailing and 74 educational purposes;

75 (2) Joint physical custody with one party granted sole legal custody. The residence of 76 one of the parents shall be designated as the address of the child for mailing and educational 77 purposes;

78 (3) Joint legal custody with one party granted sole physical custody;

79 (4) Sole custody to either parent; or

80 (5) Third-party custody or visitation:

81 (a) When the court finds that each parent is unfit, unsuitable, or unable to be a custodian, 82 or the welfare of the child requires, and it is in the best interests of the child, then custody, 83 temporary custody or visitation may be awarded to any other person or persons deemed by the 84 court to be suitable and able to provide an adequate and stable environment for the child. Before 85 the court awards custody, temporary custody or visitation to a third person under this 86 subdivision, the court shall make that person a party to the action;

87 (b) Under the provisions of this subsection, any person may petition the court to 88 intervene as a party in interest at any time as provided by supreme court rule.

89 6. If the parties have not agreed to a custodial arrangement, or the court determines such 90 arrangement is not in the best interest of the child, the court shall include a written finding in the 91 judgment or order based on the public policy in subsection 4 of this section and each of the 92 factors listed in subdivisions (1) to (8) of subsection 2 of this section detailing the specific 93 relevant factors that made a particular arrangement in the best interest of the child. If a proposed 94 custodial arrangement is rejected by the court, the court shall include a written finding in the 95 judgment or order detailing the specific relevant factors resulting in the rejection of such 96 arrangement.

97 7. Upon a finding by the court that either parent has refused to exchange information 98 with the other parent, which shall include but not be limited to information concerning the 99 health, education and welfare of the child, the court shall order the parent to comply immediately 100 and to pay the prevailing party a sum equal to the prevailing party's cost associated with 101 obtaining the requested information, which shall include but not be limited to reasonable 102 attorney's fees and court costs.

103 8. As between the parents of a child, no preference may be given to either parent in the 104 awarding of custody because of that parent's age, sex, or financial status, nor because of the age 105 or sex of the child. The court shall not presume that a parent, solely because of his or her sex, 106 is more qualified than the other parent to act as a joint or sole legal or physical custodian for the 107 child.

108 9. Any judgment providing for custody shall include a specific written parenting plan 109 setting forth the terms of such parenting plan arrangements specified in subsection 8 of section 110 452.310. Such plan may be a parenting plan submitted by the parties pursuant to section 452.310

111 or, in the absence thereof, a plan determined by the court, but in all cases, the custody plan 112 approved and ordered by the court shall be in the court's discretion and shall be in the best 113 interest of the child.

114 10. After August 28, 2016, every court order establishing or modifying custody or 115 visitation shall include the following language: "In the event of noncompliance with this order, 116 the aggrieved party may file a verified motion for contempt. If custody, visitation, or third-party 117 custody is denied or interfered with by a parent or third party without good cause, the aggrieved 118 person may file a family access motion with the court stating the specific facts that constitute a 119 violation of the custody provisions of the judgment of dissolution, legal separation, or judgment 120 of paternity. The circuit clerk will provide the aggrieved party with an explanation of the 121 procedures for filing a family access motion and a simple form for use in filing the family access 122 motion. A family access motion does not require the assistance of legal counsel to prepare and 123 file."

124 11. No court shall adopt any local rule, form, or practice requiring a standardized or 125 default parenting plan for interim, temporary, or permanent orders or judgments.
126 Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, a court may enter an interim order 127 in a proceeding under this chapter, provided that the interim order shall not contain any 128 provisions about child custody or a parenting schedule or plan without first providing the parties 129 with notice and a hearing, unless the parties otherwise agree.

130 12. Unless a parent has been denied custody rights pursuant to this section or visitation 131 rights under section 452.400, both parents shall have access to records and information 132 pertaining to a minor child including, but not limited to, medical, dental, and school records. If 133 the parent without custody has been granted restricted or supervised visitation because the court 134 has found that the parent with custody or any child has been the victim of domestic violence, as 135 defined in section 455.010, by the parent without custody, the court may order that the reports 136 and records made available pursuant to this subsection not include the address of the parent with 137 custody or the child. Unless a parent has been denied custody rights pursuant to this section or 138 visitation rights under section 452.400, any judgment of dissolution or other applicable court 139 order shall specifically allow both parents access to such records and reports.

140 13. Except as otherwise precluded by state or federal law, if any individual, professional, 141 public or private institution or organization denies access or fails to provide or disclose any and 142 all records and information, including, but not limited to, past and present dental, medical and 143 school records pertaining to a minor child, to either parent upon the written request of such 144 parent, the court shall, upon its finding that the individual, professional, public or private 145 institution or organization denied such request without good cause, order that party to comply 146 immediately with such request and to pay to the prevailing party all costs incurred, including, but

147 not limited to, attorney's fees and court costs associated with obtaining the requested 148 information.

149         14. An award of joint custody does not preclude an award of child support pursuant to 150 section 452.340 and applicable supreme court rules. The court shall consider the factors 151 contained in section 452.340 and applicable supreme court rules in determining an amount 152 reasonable or necessary for the support of the child.

153         15. If the court finds that domestic violence or abuse as defined in section 455.010 has 154 occurred, the court shall make specific findings of fact to show that the custody or visitation 155 arrangement ordered by the court best protects the child and the parent or other family or 156 household member who is the victim of domestic violence, as defined in section 455.010, and 157 any other children for whom such parent has custodial or visitation rights from any further harm.

452.400. 1. (1) A parent not granted custody of the child is entitled to reasonable 2 visitation rights unless the court finds, after a hearing, that visitation would endanger the child's 3 physical health or impair his or her emotional development. The court shall enter an order 4 specifically detailing the visitation rights of the parent without physical custody rights to the 5 child and any other children for whom such parent has custodial or visitation rights. In 6 determining the granting of visitation rights, the court shall consider evidence of domestic 7 violence. If the court finds that domestic violence has occurred, the court may find that granting 8 visitation to the abusive party is in the best interests of the child.

9         (2) (a) The court shall not grant visitation to the parent not granted custody if such 10 parent or any person residing with such parent has been found guilty of or pled guilty to any of 11 the following offenses when a child was the victim:

12         a. A felony violation of section 566.030, 566.032, 566.031, 566.060, 566.062, 566.064, 13 566.067, 566.068, 566.061, 566.083, 566.101, 566.100, 566.111, 566.151, 566.203, 566.206, 14 566.209, 566.210, 566.211, or 566.215;

15         b. A violation of section 568.020;

16         c. A violation of subdivision (2) of subsection 1 of section 568.060;

17         d. A violation of section 568.065;

18         e. A violation of section 573.200;

23 a child is the victim that would be a violation of chapter 566 or 568 if committed in Missouri, 24 the court may exercise its discretion in granting visitation to a parent not granted custody if such

25 parent or any person residing with such parent has been found guilty of, or pled guilty to, any 26 such offense.

27 (3) The court shall consider the parent's history of inflicting, or tendency to inflict, 28 physical harm, bodily injury, assault, or the fear of physical harm, bodily injury, or assault on 29 other persons and shall grant visitation in a manner that best protects the child and the parent or 30 other family or household member who is the victim of domestic violence, and any other 31 children for whom the parent has custodial or visitation rights from any further harm.

32 (4) The court, if requested by a party, shall make specific findings of fact to show that 33 the visitation arrangements made by the court best protect the child or the parent or other family 34 or household member who is the victim of domestic violence, or any other child for whom the 35 parent has custodial or visitation rights from any further harm.

36 2. (1) The court may modify an order granting or denying visitation rights whenever 37 modification would serve the best interests of the child, but the court shall not restrict a parent's 38 visitation rights unless it finds that the visitation would endanger the child's physical health or 39 impair his or her emotional development.

40 (2) (a) In any proceeding modifying visitation rights, the court shall not grant 41 unsupervised visitation to a parent if the parent or any person residing with such parent has been 42 found guilty of or pled guilty to any of the following offenses when a child was the victim:

53 paragraph (a) of this subdivision or for a violation of an offense committed in another state when 54 a child is the victim that would be a violation of chapter 566 or 568 if committed in Missouri,
55 the division may exercise its discretion regarding the placement of a child taken into the custody 56 of the state in which a parent or any person residing in the home has been found guilty of, or pled 57 guilty to, any such offense.

58 (3) When a court restricts a parent's visitation rights or when a court orders supervised 59 visitation because of allegations of abuse or domestic violence, a showing of proof of treatment 60 and rehabilitation shall be made to the court before unsupervised visitation may be ordered.

61 “Supervised visitation”, as used in this section, is visitation which takes place in the presence of 62 a responsible adult appointed by the court for the protection of the child.

63 3. The court shall mandate compliance with its order by all parties to the action, 64 including parents, children and third parties. In the event of noncompliance, the aggrieved 65 person may file a verified motion for contempt. If custody, visitation or third-party custody is 66 denied or interfered with by a parent or third party without good cause, the aggrieved person may 67 file a family access motion with the court stating the specific facts which constitute a violation 68 of the judgment of dissolution, legal separation or judgment of paternity. The state courts 69 administrator shall develop a simple form for pro se motions to the aggrieved person, which shall 70 be provided to the person by the circuit clerk. Clerks, under the supervision of a circuit clerk, 71 shall explain to aggrieved parties the procedures for filing the form. Notice of the fact that clerks 72 will provide such assistance shall be conspicuously posted in the clerk’s offices. The location 73 of the office where the family access motion may be filed shall be conspicuously posted in the 74 court building. The performance of duties described in this section shall not constitute the 75 practice of law as defined in section 484.010. Such form for pro se motions shall not require the 76 assistance of legal counsel to prepare and file. The cost of filing the motion shall be the standard 77 court costs otherwise due for instituting a civil action in the circuit court.

78 4. Within five court days after the filing of the family access motion pursuant to 79 subsection 3 of this section, the clerk of the court shall issue a summons pursuant to applicable 80 state law, and applicable local or supreme court rules. A copy of the motion shall be personally 81 served upon the respondent by personal process server as provided by law or by any sheriff.
82 Such service shall be served at the earliest time and shall take priority over service in other civil 83 actions, except those of an emergency nature or those filed pursuant to chapter 455. The motion 84 shall contain the following statement in boldface type:

105 5. If an alternative dispute resolution program is available pursuant to section 452.372, 106 the clerk shall also provide information to all parties on the availability of any such services, and 107 within fourteen days of the date of service, the court may schedule alternative dispute resolution.

108 6. Upon a finding by the court pursuant to a motion for a family access order or a motion 109 for contempt that its order for custody, visitation or third-party custody has not been complied 110 with, without good cause, the court shall order a remedy, which may include, but not be limited

125 parenting plan, for the purpose of determining that party's ability and willingness to allow the 126 child frequent and meaningful contact with the other party.

127 8. The reasonable expenses incurred as a result of denial or interference with custody or 128 visitation, including attorney's fees and costs of a proceeding to enforce visitation rights, custody 129 or third-party custody, shall be assessed, if requested and for good cause, against the parent or 130 party who unreasonably denies or interferes with visitation, custody or third-party custody. In 131 addition, the court may utilize any and all powers relating to contempt conferred on it by law or 132 rule of the Missouri supreme court.

133 9. Final disposition of a motion for a family access order filed pursuant to this section 134 shall take place not more than sixty days after the service of such motion, unless waived by the 135 parties or determined to be in the best interest of the child. Final disposition shall not include 136 appellate review.

86 remaining in the crime victims' compensation fund at the end of each biennium shall not be 87 subject to the provision of section 33.080 requiring the transfer of such unexpended balance to 88 the ordinary revenue fund of the state, but shall remain in the crime victims' compensation fund.
89 In the event that there are insufficient funds in the crime victims' compensation fund to pay all 90 claims in full, all claims shall be paid on a pro rata basis. If there are no funds in the crime 91 victims' compensation fund, then no claim shall be paid until funds have again accumulated in 92 the crime victims' compensation fund. When sufficient funds become available from the fund, 93 awards which have not been paid shall be paid in chronological order with the oldest paid first.
94 In the event an award was to be paid in installments and some remaining installments have not 95 been paid due to a lack of funds, then when funds do become available that award shall be paid
96 in full. All such awards on which installments remain due shall be paid in full in chronological 97 order before any other postdated award shall be paid. Any award pursuant to this subsection is 98 specifically not a claim against the state, if it cannot be paid due to a lack of funds in the crime 99 victims' compensation fund.

100           13. When judgment is entered against a defendant as provided in this section and such 101 sum, or any part thereof, remains unpaid, there shall be withheld from any disbursement,

106 to reimburse court costs or pay for such judgment. The director of the department of corrections 107 shall have the authority to pay into the crime victims' compensation fund from an offender's 108 compensation or account the amount owed by the offender to the crime victims' compensation 109 fund, provided that the offender has failed to pay the amount owed to the fund prior to entering 110 a correctional facility of the department of corrections.

111           14. All interest earned as a result of investing funds in the crime victims' compensation
