AN ACT

To repeal section 451.100, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to the solemnization of marriages.

---

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the state of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 451.100, RSMo, is repealed and one new section enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 451.100, to read as follows:

451.100. Marriages may be solemnized by any clergyman, either active or retired, who is in good standing with any church or synagogue in this state. Marriages may also be solemnized, without compensation, by any judge, including a municipal judge. Marriages may also be solemnized by a religious society, religious institution, or religious organization of this state, according to the regulations and customs of the society, institution or organization, when either party to the marriage to be solemnized is a member of such society, institution or organization. Marriages may also be solemnized by the recorder of deeds who holds office at the time of the marriage or by the deputy recorder under the supervision of the recorder of deeds.
