370.030. At the time of filing the certificate with the director of the 3 bylaws with acknowledgment of their adoption by the organizers which shall 4 provide:

5 (1) For the annual meeting, which shall take place no later than one

21 determining a dividend.

370.071. A credit union may have the following additional powers:

2 (1) To contract for group insurance plans, approved by the state of 3 Missouri, on behalf of members electing to participate in such insurance programs 4 and to charge a fee for providing such services;

5 (2) To exercise such additional powers, with the approval of the director, 6 as federally chartered credit unions may be authorized under federal statutes; 7 however, this section shall not apply to field of membership provisions within this 8 chapter;

9 (3) To hold membership in central credit unions whose field of 10 membership includes credit unions, and to invest funds in shares of corporations 11 to aid the liquidity of credit unions;

12 (4) To act as the fiscal or transfer agent of the United States, of any state, 13 municipality, or political subdivision and in such capacity to receive and disburse 14 money, to transfer, register and countersign certificates of stock, bonds and other 15 evidences of indebtedness;

16 (5) Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, a credit union may 17 charge initial and/or recurring membership fees, provided such fees have been 18 approved by a majority of the membership in attendance at any regular or special 19 meeting or by a mail or electronic ballot as provided in the credit union bylaws, 20 after notice of the purpose thereof shall have been mailed or delivered, to each 21 member, at least seven days and no longer than sixty days prior to the date of 22 such meeting. Such membership fees shall not be construed as reserve income 23 but shall be used at the sole discretion of the board of directors for the benefit of 24 the credit union.

370.110. 1. Each credit union shall make a report of its condition [on or 2 before January thirty-first of each year], verified by the president or the 3 president's designee, as required by the federal credit union insurer 4 and at such other times as the director of the division of credit unions may 5 require.

6 2. [Such reports shall be made on blank forms to be provided by the 7 director of the division of credit unions and shall be verified under oath or 8 affirmation of the president and treasurer of the credit union.

9 3.] Any credit union which neglects to make any report when due, or 10 makes such report that is inaccurate or incomplete, shall forfeit to the state, 11 payable to the director of revenue, twenty-five dollars for each day of the first 12 seven days of such neglect and seventy-five dollars for each additional day 13 thereafter, after the due date of such report or such subsequent due date 14 established by the director in a notice to the credit union to correct an inaccurate 15 or incomplete report unless such payments are excused in whole or in part by the 16 director of the division of credit unions.

370.120. 1. The director of the division of credit unions, in person or by 2 his or her agents, shall examine each credit union annually and at other times 3 as he or she shall direct, and at all times shall have free access to all books, 4 papers, securities and other sources of information pertaining to the credit union;

5 except that the division of credit unions shall examine qualifying credit unions, 6 as determined by the director, at least once each eighteen calendar months.

7         2. The director of the division of credit unions and his or her agents may 8 subpoena and examine witnesses under oath or affirmation, and documents 9 pertaining to the business of the credit unions.

10         3. The director of the division of credit unions may accept, in lieu of 11 making an annual examination of a credit union, an audit report of the condition 12 of the credit union made by an auditor approved by the director of the division 13 of credit unions for the purpose of making such credit union audits, the cost of 14 which audit shall be borne by the credit union.

15         4. The director of the division of credit unions may accept, in 16 lieu of conducting an annual examination of a credit union, a final 17 examination report of the credit union made by the federal credit 18 union insurer.

370.130. 1. If any credit union neglects for [fifteen] thirty days to make 2 the required reports or to pay the required charges, including charges for delay 3 in filing reports, the director shall notify such credit union of his or her intention 4 to revoke its certificate of approval.

5         2. If such neglect or failure continues for an additional fifteen days, the 6 director may revoke the certificate of approval of such credit union.

7         3. Whenever the director revokes the certificate of approval of any credit 8 union, he or she shall file notice of such revocation with the secretary of state.

370.151. 1. The director may call a special meeting of the members to 2 consider and act upon a plan of reorganization; but he or she may at his or her 3 option require the president or secretary to do so. Notice of the meeting shall be 4 mailed or delivered, to each member, or posted in a conspicuous place 5 frequented by the members, at least seven days before the meeting.

6         2. If the plan of reorganization is approved by a two-thirds majority of the 7 votes cast at the meeting, it shall become effective upon the date, terms and 8 conditions specified therein, and the director shall, upon, or as of, the date, return 9 the possession, assets and conduct of the business of the credit union to its 10 directors and officers.

11         3. If a reorganization plan, when submitted to the members as herein 12 provided, is not approved by the required majority, the director may issue a 13 notice of involuntary liquidation and appoint a liquidating agent to liquidate the 14 credit union.

370.170. 1. Special meetings of the members may be held by order of the board of directors, or the supervisory committee, and shall be held on request of ten percent of the members.

2. At all meetings a member shall have but one vote.

3. No member may vote by proxy, but a society, association, copartnership, or corporation, having membership in a credit union, may be represented by one person, previously authorized by such society, association, copartnership or corporation to transact business with the credit union. The bylaws of a credit union, when approved by the membership, may provide for mail or electronic ballots for the election of officers.

4. By majority vote of those present at any meeting, the members may decide on any matter of interest to the credit union, amend the bylaws relating to qualifications for membership, the election or appointment of the supervisory committee, determine the requirements for a credit committee and if such committee should be elected or appointed, and overrule the directors on any matter concerning guidelines for future plans and objectives, provided the notice of the meeting has stated any such matter to be considered upon a written request of any member, except that the members cannot cause the credit union to breach or abrogate any legally binding obligation or contract previously executed by the board.

370.190. 1. [At the first meeting, and at each first meeting in the fiscal year, the board of directors shall elect from their own number a president, vice president, secretary and treasurer. If the bylaws so provide, the offices of secretary and treasurer may be held by the same person.

2. Where the credit union bylaws so provide] At its first meeting following the annual membership meeting, the board of directors[, in lieu of the officers specified in subsection 1,] shall elect from their own number a [chairman] chairperson of the board of directors, a vice [chairman] chairperson, a secretary and a treasurer; and further shall designate such administrative officers [including a president of the credit union and a vice president] as the bylaws may provide. [In the event the bylaws of a credit union provide for the designation of officers as provided in this subsection, where in this chapter there is a reference to a "president" and "vice president", for such a credit union, the reference shall be understood to be to "chairman of the board" and "vice chairman of the board"; and the word "manager" shall be understood to refer to a "president"] If the bylaws so provide, the offices of secretary and 17 treasurer may be held by the same person.

18 [3.] 2. The duties of the officers shall be prescribed by the board of 19 directors unless otherwise specified in the bylaws.

370.200. 1. The board of directors shall have the general management of 2 the affairs, funds and records of the corporation, and unless they shall be 3 specifically reserved to the members or delegated to the president or 4 operating manager, it shall be the special duty of the directors:

5 (1) To [act upon all applications for membership and on the exclusion of 6 members or the board may delegate to a membership officer the approval of 7 membership applications, and a record of such officer's approval or denial of 8 membership shall be available to the board of directors for inspection, and a 9 person denied membership by such officer may appeal such denial to the board] 10 act upon applications for membership in the credit union;

11 (2) To determine, from time to time, rates of interest which shall be 12 charged on loans;

13 (3) [To fix the amount of the surety bond which shall be required of each 14 officer having the custody of funds;

15 (4)] To fix the maximum number of shares which may be held by and the 16 maximum amount, both secured and unsecured, which may be loaned to any one 17 member, such limitations to apply alike to all members;

18 [(5) To declare dividends;

19 (6)] (4) To accept and act upon resignations and determine and fill 20 vacancies on the board of directors, credit committee, and, if the bylaws so 21 provide, the supervisory committee until the election or appointment of qualified 22 successors;

23 [(7)] (5) To have charge of the investment of funds of the credit union, 24 other than loans to members, and to perform such other duties as the members 25 may, from time to time, authorize;

26 [(8) To amend the bylaws except for those provisions in other sections of 27 this chapter specifically reserved for membership action.]

28 2. In addition, it shall be the duty of the board to:

29 (1) Authorize the employment and compensation of the chief 30 executive officer;

31 (2) Approve an annual operating budget for the credit union;

32 (3) Declare dividends on regular shares;

33 (4) Accept and act upon resignations and determine and fill

34 vacancies on the board of directors, credit committee, and, if the 35 bylaws so provide, the supervisory committee until the election or 36 appointment of qualified successors;

37 (5) Amend the bylaws except for those provisions in other 38 sections of this chapter specifically reserved for membership action; 39 and

40 (6) Consider an appeal of a person denied membership by the 41 credit union.

42 3. Unless specifically prohibited by the bylaws, directors may 43 participate in and act at any meeting of the board through the use of 44 a telephone or other electronic means. Participation in the meeting in 45 this manner shall constitute attendance.

370.220. 1. The credit committee or, when authorized, credit manager, 2 [if authorized,] shall [approve every loan or advance made by the credit union to 3 its members] follow the bylaws, policies, and procedures established by 4 the board of directors regarding loans and advances.

5 2. [Every application for a loan shall be in the format approved by the 6 board of directors.] The applicant shall state the purpose for which the loan is 7 desired and the security, if any, offered.

8 3. Security must be taken for any loan in excess of the limit set by written 9 policy of the board of directors. Endorsement of a note or assignment of shares 10 in any credit union shall be deemed security within the meaning of this section.

11 4. No loan shall be made unless it has received the majority approval of 12 the members of the committee present when the loan was considered, which 13 number shall constitute at least a majority of the committee. However, in the 14 case of any credit union having total assets in excess of one hundred thousand 15 dollars, the board of directors may appoint a credit manager. The credit manager 16 may be delegated authority to act on all or some applications for loans, reporting 17 monthly thereon to the credit committee or board of directors, as the case may be.

18 5. An applicant for a loan may appeal to the directors from the decision 19 of the credit committee or credit manager, if it is so provided in the bylaws, and 20 in the way and manner therein provided.

21 6. [Notwithstanding any other provisions in this chapter, the board of 22 directors may delegate to the treasurer, or manager, the power to make loans to 23 members provided the amount of any one such loan shall not exceed one hundred 24 dollars and the period of any such loan shall not exceed thirty days.

25           7.] The credit committee or, when authorized, a credit manager may 26 approve in advance, upon its or his or her own motion or upon application by a 27 member, an extension of credit, and loans may be granted to such members 28 within the limits of such extensions of credit. When an extension of credit has 29 been approved, applications for loans need no further consideration as long as the 30 aggregate obligation does not exceed the limits of such extension of credit. The 31 credit committee or, when authorized, the credit manager shall, at least once a 32 year, review, or cause to be reviewed, all extensions of credit and any extension 33 of credit shall expire if the member becomes more than ninety days delinquent 34 in his or her obligation to the credit union.

370.230. 1. The supervisory committee shall make, or cause to be made, 2 an examination of the affairs of the credit union, at least annually, including its 3 books and accounts, and shall make, or cause to be made, a verification of 4 members' share and loan accounts in the same manner and with the same 5 frequency as required by federal law for federal credit unions, and shall review 6 the acts of the board of directors, credit committee and officers, any or all of 7 whom the supervisory committee may suspend at any time by a majority vote.

8           2. Within seven days after such suspension, the supervisory committee 9 shall cause notice to be given the members of a special meeting to take action on 10 such suspension, the call for the meeting to indicate clearly its purpose.

11           3. By a majority vote the committee may call a meeting of the members 12 to consider any violation of this chapter or of the bylaws, or any practice of the 13 credit union which, in the opinion of said committee, is unsafe and unauthorized.

14           4. During the fiscal year, the supervisory committee shall make or cause 15 to be made a thorough audit of the receipts, disbursements, income, assets, and 16 liabilities of the credit union, and shall make a full report on such audit to the 17 directors. In the event that a credit union has over one million dollars in assets, 18 an independent audit shall be required in lieu of the audit by the supervisory 19 committee, and a report on such audit shall be read at the annual meeting and 20 shall be filed and preserved with the records of the credit union.

21           5. Where the credit union bylaws so provide, the supervisory 22 committee shall elect a chairperson from their own number.

23           6. The supervisory committee shall fill vacancies in their own number 24 until the next annual meeting or, if the bylaws so provide, vacancies may be filled 25 by appointment by the board of directors.

370.235. [1.] As a condition precedent to qualification or entry upon the

2 discharge of his or her duties, every person appointed or elected to any position 3 requiring the receipt, payment of money or other personal property owned by a 4 credit union or in its custody or control as collateral or otherwise, shall give a 5 bond with some surety company, licensed to do business in this state, as surety 6 thereon in such reasonably adequate sum as the director shall require and 7 approve. The term "reasonably adequate" as used herein, requires the director 8 to have reasonable regard for the protection of the accounts and assets of the 9 credit union. In lieu of individual bonds, the director may accept a schedule or 10 blanket bond which covers all of the officers and employees of any credit union 11 whose duties include the receipt, payment or custody of money or other personal 12 property on behalf of the credit union. All bonds shall be in the form prescribed 13 by the director.

14 [2. Within forty-five days next after approval of such bonds by the board 15 of directors, attested copies thereof, with a certificate of their custodian that the 16 originals are in his possession, shall be filed with the director.]

370.260. 1. A credit union may, upon the resignation or expulsion of a 2 member, cancel the shares of such member and apply the withdrawal value of 3 such shares toward the liquidation of the member's indebtedness.

4 2. Each member shall keep the credit union informed about his or her 5 current address. In the event a member fails to do this, a quarterly charge may 6 be made to the member's share account [for the actual cost of necessary locator 7 service in determining such address; provided, however, that such charge shall 8 not exceed five dollars. The charge shall be made only for amounts paid to a 9 person or concern normally engaged in providing such service, and shall be made 10 against the account or accounts of any one member not more than once in any 11 twelve-month period].

370.275. Shares, share certificates, deposits and deposit certificates may 2 be held in the name of a member in trust for a beneficiary, in the name of a 3 nonmember in trust for a beneficiary who is a member or in the name of a trustee 4 of a trust of which a member is grantor, trustee or beneficiary. Beneficiaries may 5 be a minor or minors. No beneficiary, trustee or grantor of a trust, unless a 6 member in his or her own right, shall be permitted to vote, obtain loans, or hold 7 office [or be required to pay an entrance or membership fee]. Payment of part or 8 all of such a trust account to the party in whose name the account is held shall, 9 to the extent of such payment, discharge the liability of the credit union to that 10 party and to the beneficiary, and the credit union shall be under no obligation to 11 see to the application of such payment. In the event of death of the party in 12 whose name a trust account is held, and if the credit union has been given no 13 other written notice of the existence or terms of any trust, account funds and any 14 dividends or interest thereon shall be paid to the beneficiary.

370.288. 1. A credit union may refuse to make a payment from an 2 account to a depositor, shareholder, any trust or payable-on-death 3 account beneficiary, or any other person claiming an interest in the 4 account if the credit union:

5 (1) Is uncertain under the agreement governing the account of 6 who is entitled to receive the payment; or

7 (2) Has actual knowledge of a dispute between any depositors, 8 shareholders, beneficiaries with present vested rights in the account, 9 or other persons concerning ownership of the money in the account, the 10 proposed withdrawal, or any previous withdrawals from the account.

11 2. If a credit union refuses to make a payment under subsection 12 1 of this section, the credit union:

13 (1) Shall notify, in writing, all depositors, shareholders, 14 beneficiaries with present vested rights in the account, and other 15 persons claiming an interest in the account of the basis for the credit 16 union's refusal; and

17 (2) May refuse to make the payment until all interested parties 18 consent in writing to the requested payment or a court with proper 19 jurisdiction orders the credit union to make the payment.

20 3. The credit union shall not be liable in damages as a result of 21 an action taken under this section.

370.310. 1. A credit union may lend to its members, as herein provided, 2 for such purposes and upon such security as the bylaws provide and the credit 3 committee or credit manager shall approve, provided that no secured or 4 unsecured loan shall be made in excess of two thousand dollars, except that if ten 5 percent of the assets of the credit union exceeds two thousand dollars then the 6 maximum amount of a loan by the credit union shall be ten percent of its assets, 7 and unsecured loans to any one member shall not exceed the limitations found 8 in current written policies of the board of directors.

9 2. [A member who needs funds with which to purchase necessary supplies 10 for growing crops may receive a loan in installments instead of one sum.

11 3. A borrower may repay the whole or any part of his loan on any day on 12 which the office of the credit union is open for the transaction of business.

13 4.] All loans to directors, credit and supervisory committee members of 14 the credit union shall comply with all the requirements in this chapter and the 15 credit union bylaws with respect to loans to other members and may not be on 16 terms more favorable than those of loans extended to other member-borrowers 17 and such loans shall also be reported at the next regularly scheduled meeting of 18 the board of directors; and further, all such loans shall be reported to the director 19 of the division of credit unions annually.

370.340. 1. At any regularly called meeting the members, by a two-thirds 2 vote of those present, may expel from the credit union any member thereof.

3 2. A member may withdraw from a credit union[, as herein provided, by 4 filing a written notice of such intention] upon request.

5 3. The board of directors, the president, or an executive officer 6 designated by the board may expel a member pursuant to a written policy 7 adopted by [it] the board. Any person expelled [by the board] shall have the 8 right to [request a hearing before] appeal the decision [the board to reconsider 9 the expulsion] pursuant to a written policy adopted by the board.

10 4. The share balance of an expelled or withdrawing member, with any 11 dividends credited to his or her shares to the date of expulsion, or withdrawal, 12 shall be paid to said member but only as funds therefor become available, and, 13 after deducting any amounts due to the credit union by said member. The share 14 balance of an expelled or withdrawing member, with any dividends credited to his 15 or her shares, shall be paid to such member, subject to sixty days' notice, and 16 after deducting any amounts due to the credit union by said member.

17 5. Said member, when withdrawing shares, shall have no further right in 18 said credit union or to any of its benefits, but such expulsion or withdrawal shall 19 not operate to relieve such member from any remaining liability to the credit 20 union.

370.350. 1. At any meeting called for the purpose, notice of the purpose 2 being contained in the call, three-fourths of the membership present may vote to 3 dissolve the credit union and shall thereupon signify their consent to such 4 dissolution in writing and shall file such consent with the director of the division 5 of credit unions attested by a majority of its officers, with a statement of the 6 names and addresses of the directors and officers duly verified.

7 2. The director of the division of credit unions shall execute [in duplicate] 8 a certificate to the effect that such consent and statement have been filed and 9 that it appears therefrom that the credit union has complied with this section.

18 4. There shall be delivered to the director of the division of credit unions 19 with the application a copy of its certificate of organization in the state in which 20 it is organized, and all amendments thereto and a copy of its bylaws and 21 amendments duly authenticated by the proper officer of the state or country 22 where it was organized. There shall also be submitted a statement similarly 23 authenticated that the credit union is in good standing in the state or country.

24 5. (1) When the application is filed in conformity with the foregoing 25 sections and the same fee paid to the director of the division of credit unions as 26 would be paid by applicants for organization of a credit union in Missouri, the 27 director of the division of credit unions, if he or she finds the application is in 28 conformity herewith, may issue a certificate of organization creating the credit

30 in which it is organized, but having a duration of ninety days. A copy of the 31 certificate shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state.

32 (2) When the director of the division of credit unions receives a certificate

36 subsection 2 of section 370.040.

37 (3) Thereafter, the provisions of subsections 2, 3 and 4 of section 370.040
38 shall be followed in organizing the credit union as a Missouri corporation.

39 6. Any credit union organized under the laws of this state and in good

41 the following requirements:

42 (1) The proposition for the transfer shall first be approved by the board of 43 directors of the credit union and a date set for a vote thereon by the 47 more than thirty nor less than seven days prior to the date. Approval of the 48 proposition to transfer shall be by the affirmative vote of a majority of the 49 members voting in person or by a written or electronic ballot filed with the 50 credit union secretary on or before the date of the meeting. The board of directors

56 (3) The transfer of the credit union to another state or country shall be 57 subject to the approval of the director of the division of credit unions.

58 (4) After the application and approval, there shall be filed with the 60 by the official of another state or country in charge of issuing credit union 61 charters stating that upon cancellation of the charter of the Missouri credit union 62 it will be organized as a credit union in the state or country with all of the rights 63 of its members unimpaired.

64 (5) When the foregoing provisions are complied with the director of the 65 division of credit unions may issue a certificate of cancellation of the credit union 66 charter, a copy of which shall be filed with the secretary of state.

370.359. 1. A credit union holding a certificate of organization under the 2 laws of this state may be converted into a federal credit union under the laws of 5 set for a vote thereon by the members, either at a meeting to be held on the date 6 or by ballot to be cast on or before the date, by a majority of the directors of the 7 state credit union. Written notice of the proposition and of the date set for the 8 vote shall then be delivered in person to each member, or mailed or delivered to 9 each member at the address for the member appearing on the records of the 10 credit union, not more than thirty nor less than fourteen days prior to the 11 date. Approval of the proposition for conversion shall be by the affirmative vote

12 of a majority of the members who vote by written or electronic ballot. All

16 [president] chairperson or vice [president] chairperson and the secretary, 17 shall be filed with the director of the division of credit unions and the secretary 18 of state within ten days after the vote is taken;

19 (3) Promptly after the vote is taken and in no event later than ninety days 20 thereafter, if the proposition for conversion was approved by the vote, the credit 21 union shall take such action as may be necessary under the United States law to 22 make it a federal credit union, and within ten days after receipt of the federal 23 credit union charter there shall be filed with the secretary of state and the 24 director of the division of credit unions, a copy of the charter thus issued. Upon 25 filing, the credit union shall cease to be a state credit union;

26 (4) Upon ceasing to be a state credit union, the credit union shall no 27 longer be subject to any of the provisions of this chapter. The successor federal 28 credit union shall be vested with all of the assets and shall continue responsible 29 for all the obligations of the state credit union to the same extent as though the 30 conversion had not taken place.

31 2. A federal credit union, organized under the laws of the United States, 32 may be converted into a state credit union by:

33 (1) Complying with all federal requirements requisite to enabling it to 36 compliance, satisfactory to him or her; and

41 been complied with, he or she shall approve the organization certificate, a copy 42 of which shall be filed with the secretary of state. Upon approval, the federal

3           one dollar. Fully paid-up shares may be transferred to any person 4           upon election to membership, upon such terms as the bylaws may 5           provide and upon the payment of a transfer fee which shall not 6           exceed one dollar.]
