7 NEW SECTION. Section 2. Credit calculations. (1) The department shall calculate a returning 8 citizen's education credits, work credits, behavioral credits, and self-improvement credits guarterly and notify 9 the returning citizen of the total credits the returning citizen has earned. The department shall provide the 10 returning citizen with two copies of the most recent calculation. The calculation must include the date of parole 11 eligibility or the expiration date of the returning citizen's sentence based on the assumption that all possible 12 education credits, work credits, behavioral credits, and self-improvement credits are awarded. The calculation 13 form must include a notice that the date is tentative and subject to change if the returning citizen fails to accrue 14 education credits, work credits, behavioral credits, or self-improvement credits at the assumed rate.

(2) The returning citizen shall sign and return to the department one copy of calculation to acknowledge receipt, and the department shall retain that copy in its files. The returning citizen may keep the second copy.

NEW SECTION. Section 3. Education credits -- work credits. (1) (a) To ensure that a returning citizen has an opportunity to earn education credits, the department of corrections shall facilitate education programs in all state prisons as follows:

(b) within 15 days of a returning citizen's entry into a state prison, the department shall determine the level of education attained by the returning citizen;

(c) within 30 days of the screening required in subsection (1)(b), the department shall offer each returning citizen the opportunity to enroll in education classes, including vocational programs, apprenticeships, internships, and accredited educational programs leading to a certificate or degree; and

27 (d) within 180 days of a returning citizen's request, the department shall ensure the returning citizen 28 starts classes.

| 27 | NE   | N SECTION. Section 4. Behavioral credits types. (1) (a) A returning citizen who is on parole      |  |
| 28 | and who is o  | on time for a scheduled appointment, tests clean on a urinalysis, and abides by the conditions of        |  | parole is eligible for behavioral credits. For each 30 days that a returning citizen who is on parole meets the behavioral requirements, 30 days must be removed from the remaining time the returning citizen shall serve on parole.

4 (b) Behavioral credits may not accrue to a returning citizen who is on parole during a calendar month 5 in which a violation of parole has been reported to the board of pardons and parole as provided in 46-23-1025. 6 If the board or its hearing panel determines that the violation is a compliance violation or, if the violation is not a 7 compliance violation but the board or its hearing panel chooses to continue the returning citizen's parole without 8 any changes in conditions, the returning citizen must be awarded the behavioral credits that were suspended 9 during the parole violation decisionmaking process. If the board or the hearing panel determines the violation is 10 not a compliance violation and modifies the terms of parole or revokes parole, the returning citizen may not be 11 awarded behavioral credits for the time in which the violation was pending.

(2) (a) A returning citizen who is on probation and who is on time for a scheduled appointment, tests clean on a urinalysis, and abides by the conditions of probation is eligible for behavioral credits. For each 30 days that a returning citizen who is on probation meets the behavioral requirements, 30 days must be removed from the remaining time the returning citizen shall serve on probation.

(b) Behavioral credits may not accrue to a returning citizen who is on probation during a calendar month in which a probation violation is alleged. If a court determines that the violation is a compliance violation or, if the violation is not a compliance violation but the court chooses to continue the returning citizen's probation without any changes in conditions, the returning citizen must be awarded the behavioral credits that were suspended during the probation violation decisionmaking process. If the court determines the violation is not a compliance violation and modifies the terms of probation or revokes the returning citizen's probation, the returning citizen may not be awarded behavioral credits for the time in which the violation was pending.

23 (3) The department may not revoke a returning citizen's behavioral credits after the credits are 24 earned.

NEW SECTION. Section 5. Exceptions. The following types of returning citizens may take all educational classes but may not earn education credits, work credits, behavioral credits, or self-improvement credits:
