17 18 PART IV. PREVENT GERRYMANDERING

19 SECTION 4.1.(a) The General Assembly makes the following findings:

- 20 (1) The redistricting process is intended to produce voting maps that reflect 21 population shifts as shown by the decennial U.S. census, guided by the 22 principle of one person, one vote. However, for decades, politicians from both 23 sides of the aisle in state legislatures have manipulated districts through 24 gerrymandering.
- 25 (2) Gerrymandering is the practice of drawing district lines to unfairly favor 26 particular politicians or political parties in elections, and modern advances in 27 mapping technology and more sophisticated data collection enable politicians
28 today to rig our voting maps with even more pernicious effectiveness, splitting 29 neighborhoods and treating voters as political pawns instead of constituents.
- 30 (3) The damaging impact of gerrymandering is seen with increased polarization 31 in government and extreme policies that fail to consider the will of voters.
- 32 (4) The State has spent millions of tax dollars defending against lawsuits brought 33 by North Carolinians who have been disenfranchised by gerrymandering.
- 34 (5) North Carolinians deserve the ability to choose their elected representatives 35 freely and without interference from elected officials.
- 36 (6) The process for determining a new procedure for drawing district maps should 37 ensure voters choose their elected officials and politicians do not choose their 38 voters.

39 SECTION 4.1.(b) The School of Government at the University of North Carolina at 40 Chapel Hill shall study and report to the General Assembly in accordance with G.S. 120-29.5 by 41 February 1, 2024, on options and recommendations to create a nonpartisan process for 42 redistricting districts for the House and Senate of the North Carolina General Assembly and the 43 House of Representatives of the United States Congress. The report shall include a recommended 44 time line for putting the nonpartisan process into practice, including the likelihood of 45 implementing the process following the return of the 2030 federal decennial census.

46 SECTION 4.1.(c) It is the intent of the General Assembly to review the options
47 presented pursuant to subsection (b) of this section and transition to a nonpartisan redistricting
48 process following the return of the 2030 federal decennial census.

49 SECTION 4.2. This Part is effective when it becomes law.
