18 destroying the legal effect of the holiday for it and solely for the 19 convenience of its customers, remain open all or part of such day in a 20 limited fashion by treating every transaction with its customers on such 21 day as though the transaction had taken place immediately upon the 22 opening of such bank on the first following business day.

23           (5) Whenever the word bank is used in this section it includes 24 building and loan association, savings and loan association, credit
