Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

1 With certain exceptions, existing law requires a peace officer to arrest a person when the
 2 peace officer has probable cause to believe that the person to be arrested has, within the
 3 preceding 24 hours, committed a battery which constitutes domestic violence. (NRS 171.137)
 4 Existing law also requires a peace officer investigating an act of domestic violence to provide
 5 a person suspected of being the victim of an act of domestic violence with a written statement
 6 setting forth the circumstances under which the peace officer is required to arrest the person
 7 suspected of committing the act of domestic violence. (NRS 171.1225) Section 2 of this bill
 8 ~~extends the period during which~~ requires a peace officer ~~is required~~ to arrest a person 9 suspected of committing a battery which constitutes domestic violence ~~from~~ : (1) if the 10 peace officer encountered the person while responding to the initial request for 11 assistance relating to the battery, within 24 hours after the alleged battery ~~to within 14~~ ; or 12 (2) if the peace officer did not encounter the person while responding to the initial 13 request for assistance relating to the battery, within 7 days after the alleged battery.
 14 Section 1 of this bill makes a conforming change to the written statement a peace officer must 15 provide to a suspected victim of domestic violence.

16 Existing law authorizes a peace officer, whether or not a warrant has been issued, to arrest
 17 a person when the peace officer has probable cause to believe that the person to be arrested
 18 has, within the preceding 24 hours, committed a battery upon a person with whom he or she is 19 actually residing or upon a sibling or cousin, if the person is not the custodian or guardian of 20 the sibling or cousin. (NRS 171.1375) Section 3 of this bill ~~extends that~~ revises the period

21 for such a discretionary arrest ~~from~~ to be: (1) if the peace officer encountered the person
22 while responding to the initial request for assistance relating to the battery, within 24
23 hours after the alleged battery ~~to within 14~~ ; or (2) if the peace officer did not encounter
24 the person to be arrested while responding to the initial request for assistance relating to 25 the battery, within 7 days after the alleged battery.

26 ~~Existing law sets forth a list of certain unlawful acts that constitute domestic violence~~
27 ~~when committed against or upon certain persons. (NRS 33.018) Section 5 of this bill expands~~
28 ~~the list of acts that constitute domestic violence to include an attempt to commit any of those~~
29 ~~acts. Sections 4, 9, 13, 19 and 20 of this bill make a conforming change to include in the~~ 30 ~~definition of domestic violence an attempt to commit any of those acts.~~

31 ~~Existing law authorizes a court to issue a temporary or extended order for protection~~
32 ~~against domestic violence if it appears to the satisfaction of the court that an act of domestic~~
33 ~~violence has occurred or there exists a threat of domestic violence. (NRS 33.020, 33.030)~~
34 ~~Existing law also makes it unlawful, with certain exceptions, for a person to record his or her~~
35 ~~own telephone call without the consent of the other person on the call. (NRS 200.620; Lane v.~~
36 ~~Allstate Ins. Co., 114 Nev. 1176 (1998), cited, McLellan v. State, 124 Nev. 263 (2008))~~
37 ~~Section 6 of this bill provides that a court issuing a temporary or extended order for protection~~
38 ~~against domestic violence may, after considering certain factors, include a provision in the~~ 39 ~~order authorizing the person who applied for the order to record any communication with the~~
40 ~~adverse party for the purpose of obtaining evidence reasonably believed to relate to a violation~~
41 ~~of the order. Sections 7, 8, 15 and 17 of this bill provide that a court may make a similar~~
42 ~~authorization regarding the recording of communications for a person who applies for a~~
43 ~~temporary or extended order: (1) for protection against harassment in the workplace; (2) for~~
44 ~~the protection of a child; (3) to restrict the conduct of a person who may have committed~~
45 ~~sexual assault; or (4) to restrict the conduct of a person who may have committed the crime of~~ 46 ~~stalking, aggravated stalking or harassment. Section 18 of this bill makes a conforming~~
47 ~~change to provide an exception to the general prohibition on intercepting or attempting to~~
48 ~~intercept a wire communication if such an interception has been authorized by a court in its~~
49 ~~order pursuant to section 6, 8, 15 or 17.]~~

50 Existing law provides that a person who commits a crime that is punishable as a felony in 51 violation of certain orders for protection must, in addition to the term of imprisonment for the 52 underlying crime, be punished by imprisonment for a minimum term of not less than 1 year
53 and a maximum term of not more than 20 years. However, if the underlying crime is 54 punishable as a category A or B felony, the person must be additionally punished by 55 imprisonment for a minimum term of not less than 1 year and a maximum term of not more
56 than 5 years. (NRS 193.166) Section 14 of this bill provides instead that if the underlying 57 crime is punishable as a category A or B felony, the additional period of imprisonment must 58 be for a maximum term of not more than 20 years, but if the underlying crime is not
59 punishable as a category A or B felony, the additional period of imprisonment must be for a 60 maximum term of not more than 5 years.

61 Existing law provides that a court may not grant probation to or suspend the sentence of a
62 person who is charged with committing a battery which constitutes domestic violence that is
63 punishable as a misdemeanor, except that: (1) a justice court or municipal court may suspend
64 the sentence of such a person under certain circumstances; and (2) a court may suspend the 65 sentence of such a person to assign the person to a program for the treatment of veterans and 66 members of the military. Existing law does not expressly prohibit a court from granting 67 probation to or suspending the sentence of a person who is charged with committing a battery
68 which constitutes domestic violence that is punishable as a gross misdemeanor or felony.
69 (NRS 200.485) Section 16 of this bill ~~maintains such existing law with respect to a person~~

38 you, the Statewide Program Against Domestic Violence at (state
39 toll-free telephone number of Statewide Program).

40 2. The failure of a peace officer to carry out the requirements set forth in 41 subsection 1 is not a defense in a criminal prosecution for the commission of an act 42 of domestic violence, nor may such an omission be considered as negligence or as 43 causation in any civil action against the peace officer or the officer's employer.

44 3. As used in this section:

45 (a) "Act of domestic violence" means any of the following acts committed by a 46 person against his or her spouse, former spouse, any other person to whom he or 47 she is related by blood or marriage, a person with whom he or she has had or is

19 characterized by the expectation of affectional or sexual involvement. The term 20 does not include a casual relationship or an ordinary association between persons in 21 a business or social context.

22 Sec. 2. NRS 171.137 is hereby amended to read as follows:

23 171.137 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, whether or not a
24 warrant has been issued, a peace officer shall, unless mitigating circumstances
25 exist, arrest a person when the peace officer has probable cause to believe that the 26 person to be arrested has ~~+, within the preceding 24 hours, 14 days,~~ committed a 27 battery upon his or her spouse, former spouse, any other person to whom he or she

37 preceding 7 days.

38 2. If the peace officer has probable cause to believe that a battery described in 39 subsection 1 was a mutual battery, the peace officer shall attempt to determine
40 which person was the primary physical aggressor. If the peace officer determines 41 that one of the persons who allegedly committed a battery was the primary physical 42 aggressor involved in the incident, the peace officer is not required to arrest any 43 other person believed to have committed a battery during the incident. In 44 determining whether a person is a primary physical aggressor for the purposes of 45 this subsection, the peace officer shall consider:

46 (a) Prior domestic violence involving either person;

47 (b) The relative severity of the injuries inflicted upon the persons involved;

48 (c) The potential for future injury;

49 (d) Whether one of the alleged batteries was committed in self-defense; and

50 (e) Any other factor that may help the peace officer decide which person was 51 the primary physical aggressor.

52 3. A peace officer shall not base a decision regarding whether to arrest a 53 person pursuant to this section on the peace officer's perception of the willingness

1 of a victim or a witness to the incident to testify or otherwise participate in related
 2 judicial proceedings.

3 4. Nothing in this section shall be construed to impose liability upon a peace
 4 officer or his or her employer for a determination made in good faith by the peace
 5 officer not to arrest a person pursuant to this section.

7 (a) Siblings, except those siblings who are in a custodial or guardianship
 8 relationship with each other; or

24 presumption that sole or joint custody of the child by the perpetrator of the 25 domestic violence is not in the best interest of the child. Upon making such a
26 determination, the court shall set forth:~~

~~27 — (a) Findings of fact that support the determination that one or more acts of

33 determines that more than one party has engaged in acts of domestic violence, it

36 section, the court shall consider:~~

~~37 — (a) All prior acts of domestic violence involving any of the parties;~~

~~38 — (b) The relative severity of the injuries, if any, inflicted upon the persons
39 involved in those prior acts of domestic violence;~~

~~40 — (c) The likelihood of future injury;~~

~~41 — (d) Whether, during the prior acts, one of the parties acted in self defense; and~~

~~42 — (e) Any other factors that the court deems relevant to the determination.~~

~~43 — In such a case, if it is not possible for the court to determine which party is the 44 primary physical aggressor, the presumption created pursuant to subsection 1
45 applies to each of the parties. If it is possible for the court to determine which party
46 is the primary physical aggressor, the presumption created pursuant to subsection 1
47 applies only to the party determined by the court to be the primary physical
48 aggressor.~~

Sec. 20. ~~[NRS 432B.157 is hereby amended to read as follows:~~

~~432B.157 1. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 125C.210 and 432B.153, a determination by the court after an evidentiary hearing and finding by clear and convincing evidence that either parent or any other person seeking custody of a child has engaged in one or more acts of domestic violence against the child, a parent of the child or any other person residing with the child creates a rebuttable presumption that it is not in the best interest of the child for the perpetrator of the domestic violence to have custody of the child. Upon making such a determination, the court shall set forth:~~

~~(a) Findings of fact that support the determination that one or more acts of domestic violence occurred; and~~

~~(b) Findings that the custody or visitation arrangement ordered by the court adequately protects the child and the parent or other victim of domestic violence who resided with the child.~~

~~2. If after an evidentiary hearing held pursuant to subsection 1 the court determines that more than one party has engaged in acts of domestic violence, it shall, if possible, determine which person was the primary physical aggressor. In determining which party was the primary physical aggressor for the purposes of this section, the court shall consider:~~

~~(a) All prior acts of domestic violence involving any of the parties;~~

~~(b) The relative severity of the injuries, if any, inflicted upon the persons involved in those prior acts of domestic violence;~~

~~(c) The likelihood of future injury;~~

~~(d) Whether, during the prior acts, one of the parties acted in self defense; and~~

~~(e) Any other factors that the court deems relevant to the determination.~~

~~In such a case, if it is not possible for the court to determine which party is the primary physical aggressor, the presumption created pursuant to subsection 1 applies to each of the parties. If it is possible for the court to determine which party is the primary physical aggressor, the presumption created pursuant to subsection 1 applies only to the party determined by the court to be the primary physical aggressor.~~

~~3. A court, agency, institution or other person who places a child in protective custody shall not release a child to the custody of a person who a court has determined pursuant to subsection 1 has engaged in one or more acts of domestic violence against the child, a parent of the child or any other person residing with the child unless:~~

~~(a) A court determines that it is in the best interest of the child for the perpetrator of the domestic violence to have custody of the child; or~~

1 ~~— (b) Pursuant to the provisions of subsection 2, the presumption created~~
2 ~~pursuant to subsection 1 does not apply to the person to whom the court releases the~~
3 ~~child.~~

4 ~~— 4. As used in this section, “domestic violence” means the commission of or~~ 5 ~~the attempt to commit any act described in NRS 33.018.] (Deleted by~~
