EXPLANATION – Matter in bolded italics is new; matter between brackets ~~omitted material~~ is material to be omitted.

AN ACT relating to justice courts; decreasing the monetary limit on the claims that may be adjudicated under the procedure for small claims; revising, removing and repealing certain provisions relating to small claims; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Under the Nevada Constitution, justice courts are courts of limited original jurisdiction that must be prescribed by statute. (Nev. Const. Art. 6, § 8) Existing law vests the justice courts with jurisdiction over: (1) certain civil actions and proceedings; and (2) actions for small claims for the recovery of money only where the amount claimed does not exceed $10,000. (NRS 4.370, 73.010)

Section 1 of this bill prohibits a person from filing more than 15 actions for small claims in any calendar year. Section 2 of this bill decreases the monetary threshold for the jurisdiction of the justice courts over actions for small claims from $10,000 to $7,500 and limits such actions for the recovery of money only to actions: (1) arising on contract; (2) for personal injury; (3) for taking, detaining or injuring personal property; (4) arising in certain circumstances between a landlord and tenant; (5) for certain fines and penalties; and (6) for the collection of taxes.

Section 2 also removes actions for exemplary or punitive damages or damages for pain and suffering from the jurisdiction of the justice court for small claims.

Section 4 of this bill makes a conforming change to reflect the decrease in the monetary threshold for jurisdiction.

Existing law provides that an affidavit to be used before any court, judge or officer of this State may be taken before any justice, judge or clerk of any court, or any justice of the peace or notary public in this State, as well as before certain other persons when taken in another state or a foreign country, and that certain unsworn declarations may be used in lieu of an affidavit. (NRS 53.010-53.045) Existing law also provides that any affidavit required or authorized in an action for small claims

23 may be certified by a justice of the peace before whom the matter is to be filed or is
24 pending or by a notary public in this State. (NRS 73.015) Section 5 of this bill
25 eliminates those specific provisions governing affidavits in actions for small claims,
26 thereby making such affidavits subject to the general rules for affidavits.
27 Section 3 of this bill eliminates the requirement in existing law that the 28 prevailing party in an action for small claims deposit the amount ascertained and 29 assessed as costs with the justice of the peace before final judgment is entered by 30 the justice. (NRS 73.030)
