AN ACT relating to real property; revising provisions governing the sale of real property by certain banking and financial institutions after a foreclosure sale or trustee's sale; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

This bill provides that if a banking or other financial institution forecloses on real property, purchases that real property at the foreclosure sale or trustee's sale and intends to sell the real property for an amount less than the amount of the indebtedness, the banking or other financial institution must afford the debtor a right of first refusal if: (1) the real property is a single-family dwelling and the debtor was the owner of the real property; (2) the debtor used the loan to purchase the real property; and (3) the debtor occupied the real property continuously after obtaining the loan. Under this bill, the right of first refusal must be conditioned on the same terms that the judgment creditor or beneficiary of the deed of trust intends to accept in a subsequent sale of the real property.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. Chapter 40 of NRS is hereby amended by adding 2 thereto a new section to read as follows:

3 1. If the judgment creditor or the beneficiary of the deed of

1 the right of first refusal to the debtor or grantor of the deed of 2 trust if:

3 (a) The real property is a single-family dwelling and the debtor 4 or the grantor was the owner of the real property at the time of the 5 foreclosure sale;

6 *(b) The debtor or grantor used the amount for which the real
7 property was secured by the mortgage or deed of trust to purchase 8 the real property; and*

9 (c) The debtor or grantor continuously occupied the real 10 property as the debtor's or grantor's principal residence after 11 securing the mortgage or deed of trust.

12 *2. Any right of first refusal pursuant to subsection 1 must be 13 conditioned upon the same terms the judgment creditor or the 14 beneficiary of the deed of trust intends to accept in a subsequent

16 means the same price and the same manner of financing the 17 purchase of the real property, including, without limitation, an all-18 cash offer.*

19 *3. In affording any right of first refusal pursuant to 20 subsection 1, except as otherwise provided in this subsection, the 21 judgment creditor or beneficiary of the deed of trust must, after 22 receiving an offer to purchase the real property that the judgment 23 creditor or beneficiary intends to accept and before accepting that 24 offer, attempt to communicate the terms of the offer and the right
25 of first refusal to the debtor or grantor by certified letter to the last 26 physical mailing address provided by the debtor or grantor to the 27 judgment creditor or beneficiary. If, within 10 business days after 28 receiving the certified letter, the debtor or grantor does not provide 29 written notice to the judgment creditor or beneficiary that the 30 debtor or grantor intends to redeem the right of first refusal, the 31 right of first refusal is terminated and the judgment creditor or 32 beneficiary may immediately proceed with the sale. If the debtor or 33 grantor has moved from the real property and has not provided the 34 judgment creditor or beneficiary with an updated physical mailing 35 address:*

36 *(a) The debtor or grantor is not required to attempt to 37 communicate the terms of an offer or the right of first refusal
38 pursuant to this subsection, or make any other attempt to contact 39 the debtor or grantor;*

40 (b) The right of first refusal is terminated; and

41 *(c) The judgment creditor or beneficiary may immediately
42 proceed with the sale.*
