

Senate Bill No. 45–Committee on
Legislative Operations and Elections

CHAPTER.....

AN ACT relating to peace officers; revising provisions conferring the powers of a peace officer upon certain personnel of the Department of Public Safety; providing that certain personnel of the Department are category I peace officers; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Existing law specifically confers the powers of a peace officer upon certain personnel of the Department of Public Safety, including: (1) the State Fire Marshal and the assistant and deputies of the State Fire Marshal; (2) the investigators, agents, officers and employees of the Investigation Division; (3) the personnel of the Capitol Police Division; and (4) certain personnel of the Nevada Highway Patrol. (NRS 289.250, 289.270) Sections 1-3 of this bill remove those provisions specifically conferring the powers of a peace officer upon such personnel and provide generally that all personnel assigned to a sworn position in any division of the Department of Public Safety have the powers of a peace officer. Section 3 also removes parole and probation officers, the assistant and deputies of the State Fire Marshal and the personnel of the Capitol Police Division from the list of “category II” peace officers, thereby making such personnel “category I” peace officers with unrestricted duties. Section 5 of this bill removes a redundant reference to the State Fire Marshal which is not necessary because the State Fire Marshal is a chief of a division of the Department of Public Safety and, as such, is already covered in the general provision exempting division chiefs from certification by the Peace Officers’ Standards and Training Commission.
