The Executive Director of the Department is its Chief Administrative Officer. (NRS 360.120, 360.200) Existing law also requires the Attorney General, when requested by the head of any state department, agency, board or commission, to give his or her written opinion on any question of law relating to the respective office, department, agency, board or commission. (NRS 228.150) Section 1 of this bill requires the Executive Director to prepare, publish and periodically revise technical bulletins to educate the public on: (1) issues relating to businesses and taxes administered by the Department; and (2) written opinions that the Executive Director receives from the Attorney General. Section 2 of this bill exempts such technical bulletins from the provisions of the Nevada Administrative Procedure Act governing administrative regulations so that the technical bulletins can be approved and posted without being drafted, reviewed and adopted in the manner required for administrative regulations.
