Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Existing law authorizes: (1) any justice or judge in this State; (2) any peace officer or retired peace officer; (3) the spouse or minor child of any such person; or (4) the surviving spouse or minor child of any such person who was killed in the performance of his or her duties to request that his or her home address or any photograph thereof that is contained in the records of a county assessor be kept confidential. A person who wishes to have such personal information be kept confidential is required to obtain an order of a court, based on a sworn affidavit by the person, requiring the county assessor to maintain the personal information in a confidential manner. A county assessor is authorized to provide such confidential information for use in certain limited circumstances and to deny a request for confidential information if he or she reasonably believes that the information may be used in an unauthorized manner. (NRS 250.120-250.170)

Existing law provides that a person who violates certain provisions relating to obtaining or disclosing any such confidential information is guilty of a misdemeanor. Additionally, a court may order a person who violates such a provision to pay a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed $2,500 for each act. (NRS 250.210-250.230) provide that any nonprofit entity in this State that maintains a confidential location for the purpose of providing shelter to victims of domestic violence may request that any information pertaining to such a confidential location that is contained in the records of a county assessor be kept confidential.

Sections 2-12 and 18-28 of this bill, respectively, apply the provisions of existing law relating to personal information contained in the records of a county assessor to personal information contained in the records of: (1) a county recorder; and (2) the Secretary of State or a county or city clerk. Accordingly, Sections 2-12 and 18-28 establish new provisions which are generally modeled after the provisions of existing law relating to personal information contained in the records of a county assessor. Sections 6 and 22 of this bill, respectively, authorize any district attorney or attorney employed by the district attorney or certain state or county public defenders to request that personal information contained in the records of a county recorder or the Secretary of State or county or city clerk be kept confidential. Section 6 additionally authorizes any nonprofit entity in this State that maintains a confidential location for the purpose of providing shelter to victims of domestic violence to request that information pertaining to such a confidential location that is contained in the records of a county recorder be kept confidential. Sections 8 and 24 of this bill, respectively, authorize a county recorder or the Secretary of State or a county or city clerk to provide confidential information for use by a title agent or title insurer acting in that capacity.
