SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION—Ratifying the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States providing that equality of rights under the law shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of sex.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

1 Under Article V of the United States Constitution, Congress has the power to 2 propose an amendment to the federal Constitution and to determine the mode of 3 ratification. (U.S. Const. Art. V) In 1972, Congress passed the Equal Rights
4 Amendment and sent it to the states for ratification, imposing a 7-year limit for 5 ratification in the resolving clause of the Amendment, but later extended this time
6 limit to June 30, 1982. The Equal Rights Amendment was ratified by 35 states
7 before the deadline. Under Coleman v. Miller, 307 U.S. 433, 450, 456 (1939), the 8 United States Supreme Court held that, as a political question, Congress may 9 determine whether an amendment is valid because ratifications of the amendment
10 are made within a reasonable period of time, even after the deadline. This 11 resolution ratifies the Equal Rights Amendment, which provides for equality of 12 rights under the law regardless of sex.

1 WHEREAS, Both houses of the 92nd Congress of the United 2 States of America, by a constitutional majority of two-thirds,
3 adopted the following resolution proposing to amend the United 4 States Constitution:

1           RESOLVED BY THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF
2 REPRESENTATIVES OF THE UNITED STATES OF 3 AMERICA IN CONGRESS ASSEMBLED (TWO-THIRDS 4 OF EACH HOUSE CONCURRING THEREIN), That the 5 following article is proposed as an amendment to the 6 Constitution of the United States, which shall be valid to all
7 intents and purposes as part of the Constitution when ratified
8 by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several States within 9 seven years from the date of its submission by the Congress:

10                           ARTICLE.....

11           Section 1. Equality of rights under the law shall not be 12 denied or abridged by the United States or by any State on 13 account of sex.

14           Section 2. The Congress shall have the power to 15 enforce, by appropriate legislation, the provisions of this 16 article.

17           Section 3. This amendment shall take effect two years
18 after the date of ratification; and 19

20           WHEREAS, The 95th Congress of the United States amended the 21 resolution of the 92nd Congress to extend the time for ratification to 22 June 30, 1982, thereby indicating its continued support of the 23 amendment; and

24           WHEREAS, The Congress of the United States adopted the 27th 25 Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which was 26 proposed in 1789 by our First Congress but not ratified by three-27 fourths of the States until May 7, 1992, and, on May 18, 1992, 28 certified as the 27th Amendment; and

29           WHEREAS, The restricting time limit for ratification of the Equal 30 Rights Amendment is in the resolving clause and is not part of the 31 amendment which was proposed by Congress and which has already 32 been ratified by 35 states; and

33           WHEREAS, Having passed a time extension for the Equal Rights
34 Amendment on October 20, 1978, Congress demonstrated that a 35 time limit in a resolving clause may be disregarded if it is not part of 36 the proposed amendment; and

37           WHEREAS, The United States Supreme Court in Coleman v.
38 Miller, 307 U.S. 433 (1939), recognized that Congress is in a unique 39 position to judge the tenor of the nation, to be aware of the political, 40 social and economic factors affecting the nation and to be aware of 41 the importance to the nation of the proposed amendment; and

42           WHEREAS, If an amendment to the Constitution of the United 43 States has been proposed by two-thirds of both houses of Congress 44 and ratified by three-fourths of the state legislatures, it is for 45 Congress, under the principles of Coleman v. Miller, to determine

1 the validity of the state ratifications occurring after a time limit in 2 the resolving clause, but not in the amendment itself; and

3 WHEREAS, The Legislature of the State of Nevada finds that the 4 proposed amendment is meaningful and needed as part of the 5 Constitution of the United States and that the present political, social 6 and economic conditions demonstrate that constitutional equality for 7 women and men continues to be a timely issue in the United States;
8 now, therefore, be it

9 RESOLVED BY THE SENATE AND ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF 10 NEVADA, JOINTLY, That the proposed amendment to the 11 Constitution of the United States of America is hereby ratified by 12 the Legislature of the State of Nevada; and be it further

13 RESOLVED, That the Secretary of the Senate prepare and 14 transmit a copy of this resolution to the Secretary of State for her 15 certification and transmittal to the Archivist of the United States
16 pursuant to 1 U.S.C. §§ 106b and 112; and be it further

17 RESOLVED, That the Secretary of the Senate prepare and 18 transmit a copy of this resolution to the Vice President of the United 19 States as the presiding officer of the United States Senate, the 20 Speaker of the House of Representatives and each member of the 21 Nevada Congressional Delegation; and be it further

22 RESOLVED, That this resolution becomes effective upon 23 passage.
